CITY CORDIALS.

—Rev. Alexander will change pulpits with Rev. Pearson of Nebraska City tomorrow.

—Judge Russell issued a marriage license today to Mr. John Lipavsky and Miss Tama Tamasek.

—A number of the young people of Plattsmouth held a picnic in Fitzgerald's forty yesterday afternoon. They report a pleasant time.

—There will be preaching at the Christian church tomorrow evening by Rev. L. Archer, colored. All are cordially invited to attend the services.

—The Weekly Plattsmouth HERALD is received at this office and in its newsy local page we can distinguish the work of our old friend J. W. Ball.—Idalia (Col.) Sentinel.

—It is said that the Illinois delegation have invited Col. R. G. Ingersoll to nominate Gresham for the Presidency. This will undoubtedly be the greatest oration of the convention.

—The subject at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow is "Failing in his strongest point." Rev. J. T. Baird leader. This is a very interesting subject and it will pay you to attend. All men of the city are cordially invited.

—The case of Schnellbacher vs. Jones in the county court was decided this morning by Judge Russell. The case involved several hundred dollars and a judgment of $3 was rendered against the defendant. Mr. Jones is highly pleased with the decision.

—Nebraska City seems considerably stirred up over the G. A. R. inviting Past Commander H. C. Russell to make the memorial speech. The trouble is based on the theory that Russell went back on Van Wyck in the senatorial election. We are sorry that Nebraska City can get over this but we see they are rather slow to catch on or they would have caught on to Van Wyck's humbug and traitor acts a long while ago.

—Miss Lenora Riddle, who for several years past has been one of the most successful teachers of the Wahoo schools, arrived in the city this morning and will hereafter make Plattsmouth her home. Miss Riddle is a fine accomplished lady and we are sure that the people of Plattsmouth will find her worthy of acquaintance. The HERALD extends to her a cordial welcome hoping that she may find here a pleasant home.

—Our city has been badly invaded with tramps for the past few days. Last night there were seven came in one box car. The Pinkerton men seem to be disposing of them pretty well and shipping them out about as fast as they come in. And it is said that one C. W. Sherman is winning quite a reputation among these fellows as a protector of fallen humanity and that as soon as a tramp leaves his car he begins to enquire for the Journal office. Its a mighty nice thing to have a good reputation.

—A petition from Governor Thayer has been presented to congress by Senator Paddock, asking for a survey of the sources of the Platte river, contemplating the construction of reservoirs and a more careful protection of the water, which is to a great extent at the present time, diverted from its natural channel into the irrigating and mining districts of Colorado. Such has been the extent of hydraulic thieving that the original volume of water of the shallow and sicker Platte has been reduced nearly half, and it is truthfully stated by the governor, that it is a question of vital interest to the people of Nebraska that their rights in this as well as in other respects, should be protected. It may be fortunate that the Platte does not cross the Missouri, so that our Iowa friends could bring the same charge against us Nebraskaans that we do against the coloradators.—Fremont Tribune.

—Any who fail to get their paper are requested to report thereof at this office.

—Rev. R. Pearson of Nebraska City, will preach at the M. E. church tomorrow both morning and evening, and Rev. W. B. Alexander will preach at Nebraska City.

—The Harlan county Standard has at the head of its columns "Our ticket for United States senator, Charles H. Van Wyck." By the way who is this man Van Wyck? Is he that great antimonopolist who carries his pockets full of railroad passes? Is he the man who a few years ago made such a great stir in congress as an antimonopolist and came back without even doing a thing for the people? Is this he? If so, we don't want him in ours.

—One of the latest swindles is designed to catch the scamp advertisers for ladies to address envelopes at their homes, the advertiser offering to furnish stationery and postage and to pay one cent for each envelope addressed. A rapid penman would soon get rich if she could get paid at that rate for her work. But the advertiser requires every applicant to deposit $1 with him, just as a guarantee of good intentions. On receipt of the $1 he rings down the curtain and the audience might as well go home, for that is all they will ever see of that show.—Nebraska City News.

—For the past few weeks it has been continually noticeable that our postoffice has been very crowded. In fact it has been so much so at times it would seem almost impossible to get into the office. Now this should not be, a city the size of Plattsmouth should have room for her citizens to get their mail without being crowded almost to death and we believe our postoffice should have more room. The book and news store should either be moved or the postoffice. It is not right to have both these crowded into the space which should be occupied by one, and we hope this matter will be considered and the proper changes made.

—We are in receipt of an invitation from the Cincinnati Press Club to attend the dedication of the Press Headquarters at the Centennial buildings in Cincinnati, June the 9th at 2 o'clock p. m. But as the invitation was not accompanied by the necessary railroad transportation and our feet have not lately been shod with the preparation that would take us there before 3 p. m. that day we are compelled to decline the invitation, hoping however, that those who are shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace with the railroads may have a good enjoyable season and that these headquarters may be properly dedicated so that at some future time, should it ever come, when we are clothed with the immortal documents necessary for our safe transportation we may be permitted to attend other gatherings held at these headquarters.

—The publisher of a newspaper has one thing to sell and one thing to rent. He has the newspaper to sell and the space in the columns to rent. Can any one inform us why he should be expected to give away either one or the other? He can do so, if he chooses, and he does as a matter of practical fact, furnish a great deal of space rent free. Yet it does not follow that he ought to be expected to do it. It ought to be recognized as a contribution exactly as would the giving away of sugar and coffee by the groceryman. But strange to say, it is not looked upon in that light at all yet everybody knows that the existence of a newspaper depends as much on the rent of its space and the sale of its paper, as the merchant's success depends on selling his goods instead of giving them away.—Ex.

—The democrats are granted the solid south in the presidential column. There are 153 votes out of the 201 needed in the electoral college to choose a president. But in addition to the solid south they must not only have the vote of New York (36) but also of Connecticut and New Jersey, with 6 and 9 votes each. There is a strong suspicion abroad among several people that they will not carry either Connecticut or Indiana, in which event, with New York and New Jersey to their credit, they will fail to get their man. There is no reason for republicans to feel other than quite jubilant over the prospects.—Fremont Tribune.

The example set by the prohibitionists yesterday of embracing their wives during the progress of a political convention cannot be too highly commended. Delegates whose wives were not in attendance were at a loss how to properly conduct themselves.—Walt Mason.

All Men Welcome.

Every man, young or old, is heartily invited to attend the gospel meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association, tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Presbyterian church. The meeting will be conducted by the Rev. J. T. Baird. The topic is "Failing in his Strongest Point." Let every man who feels an interest in this work be present.
