CITY CORDIALS.

Judge Russell granted a license to wed today to Mr. Chas. Olson and Miss Elizabeth Norlan.

The democratic delegates returned from St. Louis last evening and report having had a high time.

Dr. Livingston, sr., is repairing the room adjoining his office and will use it as a students' room in the future.

Mr. Jerry O'Rourke, of Chicago, brother of Mr. Maurice O'Rourke, came to the city yesterday. He is recovering from a severe injury he received some time ago—a badly broken leg—from which he is slowly recovering.

Mr. Jesse Root came over to the HERALD office this morning armed with a box of cigars. His face presented a very pleasant expression as he distributed the havanas among the typos. We wonder why?

The following is the valuation of the city returned by the assessor's books: First ward, $138,875 real estate, $102,830 personal property; Second ward, $84,404 real, $19,288 personal; Third ward, $106,440 real, $37,802 personal; Fourth ward, $160,317 real, $232,829 personal; total $82,285.

Mr. Latham, ticket agent, received a dispatch from headquarters yesterday afternoon, stating that the fare from Plattsmouth to Cincinnati, which was advertised to be over $16, during the K. of P. meeting there has been reduced to $10.25 for the round trip. Tickets for sale from the 8th to the 11th.

Mr. George Ballance, who recently purchased a lot on the top of Sixth street hill is making rapid progress with the new house which he is erecting. He intends to put up a fine residence. The lot is a prominent one, and with such a residence added will present a very handsome appearance to the street.

On account of the funeral service of Wesley Davis, which will be held at his father's residence, Pearl street, tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock, Mr. Alexander will be unable to take charge of the Sunday morning service, at the M. E. Church, and consequently there will be no morning service there.

The following named persons have been appointed by the Board of Trade to confer with the Rock Island officials touching the expediency of constructing their road into Plattsmouth: R. B. Windham, Dr. A. Shipman, S. Waugh, Judge A. N. Sullivan, George E. Dovey, Fred Hermann, Frank Guthman, Frank Carruth, Hon. F. E. White and W. S. Wise.

Reduced rates have been arranged for over the B. & M. from Omaha, on the 13th, the day of the A. O. U. W. picnic and base ball game, to Plattsmouth. A large crowd is expected from Omaha and Council Bluffs. The fare for the round trip will only amount to the small sum of 75 cents, which will include the street car fare to the grounds.

A gentleman from here yesterday who paid a visit to the metropolis had an interview with Mr. Rosewater of the Bee, and in their conversation the bandanna act which the correspondent of that paper here had reported, was mentioned. Mr. R. said that he was not acquainted with the gentleman, but was quite certain, judging from the report of the proceedings here the other evening, that he was a staunch democrat. He was not off.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. Wright went up to Omaha this morning.

Abie Rockwell, of Weeping Water, is in the city today.

Mrs. John Simpson started for Nebraska City this morning.

Mr. E. H. Wooley, of Weeping Water, was in the city yesterday.

Dr. F. D. Burgess of Omaha was in the city yesterday and returned this morning.

Mrs. Frank Palmer and daughter Jeanette, were passengers to Omaha this morning.

Misses Flora Donoyan, Anna Livingston and Mary Hawksworth started for Wymore this morning.

Mrs. Amerman, who has been the guest of Miss Maggie Streight for some time, leaves this evening for her home at Weeping Water.

Mrs. N. E. O'Brien and daughter, Miss Lotta, were in the city visiting friends yesterday. Mr. O'Brien is superintendent of the state fisheries at South Bend.

Wedding Bells.

Last evening at 9 o'clock was the time appointed for the nuptial ceremonies which were to be performed at the residence of Mr. J. N. Wise, Eighth street, the contracting parties being Miss Evelyn Wise and Mr. Jesse L. Root. Mr. Root is a lawyer in the office of Covell, Polk & Beeson, and is known by all who have the honor of his acquaintance to be a genial and honorable young man. The bride, Miss Evelyn Wise, has always been very popular among the young people here having resided in the city all her life.

About sixty-five of the intimate friends of the bride and groom were present. Miss Alice Root, sister of the groom and Miss Hattie Latham, acted as bridesmaids, and Messrs. Zimmerman and B. J. Scannell, as groomsmen. The ceremony was performed by Chaplain Wright, grandfather of the bride, assisted by Rev. J. T. Baird. We wish to make special mention of the decorations of the different rooms which, being decked with well arranged and beautiful wreaths, presented to the eye which craves for beauty, the richest gratification, and showed the good taste of Mrs. Wise who arranged them.

We most heartily join with the entire community in extending to the happy couple our congratulations, and if we were permitted to bespeak a future for them, there would be just enough clouds in it to make a beautiful sunset.

The following is a list of the many handsome presents received by the bride:

Piano, groom to bride; silver knives and dinner set, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Wise, parents of bride; solid silver sugar shell, Alice M. Root, Yuma, Colo.; water set and tray, brother King; dozen solid silver tea spoons, pair individual silver casters, three sets table linens and towels, pair of wicker rockers and a set of salt sleds, grandpa and grandma Wright; flower case, Bertha Wise; cake basket, mother and father of groom, Yuma, Colo.; silver toothpick holder, Mable and Charles Root, Yuma, Colo.; cake plate, Miss Hattie Latham; white surah toilet cushion, Miss Alice Morrison, Rochester, N. Y.; dinner set decorated china, Dr. R. R. Livingston, and family; carrying set, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cox; carrying set, Mr. Eades and Miss Julia Oliver; handsome steel engraving, Mrs. H. E. Palmer, Mrs. S. M. Chapman, Mrs. A. N. Atwood, Mrs. F. E. White; potpourri of roses, Mr. Lewellyn A. Moore; dozen after dinner coffees and cakes, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Connor; dozen table napkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Patterson; card case, Mrs. J. W. Abbott, Denver; set fruit plates, Mrs. M. A. and Miss Patterson; silver and amberine olive bowl, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Celebrate the Fourth of July. In a little less than a month the glorious old Fourth of July will once more roll around, and as yet none of our citizens have made a movement towards getting up a celebration. What's the matter with you all? Are you dead in the shell? Are you in your dotage as progressive citizens of a live town, or are you merely asleep? We are inclined to think it is the latter. Now, let a number of the wide awakes call a meeting, wake up the rest, put in circulation a subscription paper, appoint the proper committees, secure speakers, invite all our country neighbors in and let us have a genuine, howling, red-hot Fourth of July celebration! We can do it if only a dozen lone citizens will take the matter in hand.

The Tail a Head. The democrats of Plattsmouth have swung the old Cleveland and Hendricks banner to the breeze again on Main street, and we notice the new bright part of the flag has the red bandanna tacked on, and the new name of Thurman instead of the old name of Hendricks. Everything in regard to Thurman is new and bright. Column after column of congratulations and editorials about the old Roman.

The glorious old Roman, The snuff taking Roman, The bandanna Roman Who will be left at home. But not a word can be found of congratulation about poor old Grover. "The tail is a head."

Since writing the above the flag has fallen, is it not a bad omen. A switchman by the name of Coffman was quite seriously injured this morning while in the act of coupling cars. His head was badly bruised, but there are hopes of his recovery.

BOARD OF TRADE.

Constitution and By-Laws of That Organization.

Through the kindness of one of the members of the Board of Trade we are enabled to publish the constitution and by-laws, which were drawn up eight years ago, and are adopted at present by this organization. We trust it may prove of interest to many:

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Feb. 11, 1880.

PREAMBLE. We, the undersigned, desiring to promote the commercial, manufacturing and general interests of the city of Plattsmouth, and feeling the necessity of co-operation, in all these matters, do hereby associate ourselves together and agree to be governed by the following constitution and by-laws:

ARTICLE 1. This association shall be known as the "Plattsmouth Board of Trade."

ART. 2. All applications for membership in this Board shall be recommended by two members; shall be accompanied by the membership fee, and referred to an election committee of three, who shall report to the board of directors. If the report of said committee be favorable, the applicant's name shall be posted in the "secretary's office" at least three days before the meeting of the board of directors, for election, and the election or rejection of said applicant by the Board of Trade shall be final; Provided, that said applicant shall have the right of appeal to the general board at any regular meeting.

ART. 3. The officers of this association shall consist of a president, two vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and board of directors of seven, all to be members of this association, all of whom shall be elected by ballot, (a majority of votes cast being necessary to a choice), at the annual meeting in January of each year, after the first organization—the term of such officers being one year from the time of election.

ART. 4. The president, or in his absence at any meeting, one of the vice-presidents, in the order of their election, shall perform all the usual duties of a chief presiding officer.

The secretary shall give a bond in a sum of not less than $1,000, to be approved by the board of directors; receipt to the secretary for all monies of the Board paid to him; pay orders that may be presented, duly signed by the president and secretary; report the condition of the treasury as often as required by the Board or board of directors, and at the expiration of his term of office deliver to his successor all money or property of the Board that may be in his possession.

The treasurer shall give bonds in a sum of not less than $1,000, to be approved by the board of directors; receipt to the secretary for all monies of the Board paid to him; pay orders that may be presented, duly signed by the president and secretary; report the condition of the treasury as often as required by the Board or board of directors, and at the expiration of his term of office deliver to his successor all money or property of the Board that may be in his possession.

The board of directors shall fix the compensation of the secretary, the amount to be approved by the Board, appoint all standing committees at the annual meeting; appoint a "board of appeals," consisting of five members, and add such members of their committee as presiding and ex officio members as they may deem to be the best interests of the Board; audit all bills or claims against the Board; make assessments sufficient to meet the necessities of the board, upon the members, as herein provided; make such recommendations to the Board as will advance its welfare and extend its usefulness; fill all vacancies in office, and generally look after the financial interests and the practical working of the Board.

ART. 5. The members of the Board shall attend promptly all the regular monthly and annual meetings of the Board, doing whatever each can do to advance its interest; pay to the secretary a membership fee of ($10) ten dollars, and pay also quarterly, on the first Tuesday of April, July, October and January, of each year, such sums as may be assessed upon them by the board of directors, for the purpose of defraying necessary expenses of the Board; Provided, that the total annual assessment on each member shall not exceed $12.

ART. 6. Assessments shall be made when required to meet the necessary expenses of the Board, quarterly, on the first of April, July, October, and January of each year.

ART. 7. No person shall be taken or considered or be held to be a member of this Board, or be entitled to speak (except by permission) or vote until he has paid the secretary his membership fee, and signed this constitution and by-laws.

ART. 8. This constitution may be amended at any regular monthly meeting, by a two-thirds vote of the members present; Provided, that notice in writing of the amendment proposed shall have been submitted to the Board at least one month prior to such meeting, and a copy of the proposed change posted in the office of the secretary for one week previous to action thereon.

BY-LAWS, RULES AND REGULATIONS. SECTION 1. The regular monthly meeting of the Board shall be held at the rooms of the Board, on the first Tuesday evening of each month, at 7:30 p. m. The annual meeting shall be held on the first Tuesday evening in January, of each year; weekly meeting shall be held at the rooms of the Board on Tuesday of each week, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 10 a. m., and such business transacted as is not specially provided for at the monthly and annual meeting.

SECTION 2. At the annual meeting nine members shall constitute a quorum, at the monthly meeting fifteen members shall constitute a quorum, and at the weekly meeting nine members shall constitute a quorum.

SECTION 3. The order of business at all meetings of the Board shall be as follows:

WEEKLY MEETINGS. Special business and the sale and exchange of commodities.

MONTHLY MEETINGS. 1. Roll call. 2. Reading and approving minutes. 3. Reading communications. 4. Report of committees. 5. General business. 6. Adjournment.

ANNUAL MEETINGS.

1. Roll call. 2. Reports of president, secretary, treasurer and board of directors, and reports of standing committees. 3. Disposing of reports. 4. Election of officers. 5. Receiving and approving of bonds of secretary and treasurer by the board of directors. 6. Adjournment.

SECTION 4. The board of directors shall appoint annually the following standing committees from among the members. 1. Live stock. 2. Transportation. 3. Arbitration. 4. Manufactures. 5. Cass county lands and city lots. 6. Memorials and petitions. 7. Government meteorological committee. 8. Railroads.

All to consist of three members. SECTION 5. It shall be the duty of the committee of arbitrators to hear and determine all cases of disputed claims, voluntarily submitted for their adjudication by members of the Board. All evidence in such cases shall be taken under oath or affirmation and shall be duly recorded.

In all such adjudications the committee shall construe all rules, regulations and by-laws of the Board as being designed to secure justice in equity and trade, and all awards or findings shall be made in conformity therewith, and in accordance with the laws of the land.

Any award, or finding, of the committee of arbitration may be appealed from, and the case may be carried to the committee of appeals for revision; Provided, notice of such appeal shall be given to the secretary, in writing, within two business days after such award or finding has been delivered up to the parties in controversy.

It shall be the duty of the board of appeals to review such cases as may be appealed from committee of arbitration, and finally brought before it, and its awards or findings shall not be subject to revision by any other tribunal.

Provided, the board of directors may determine from the record and other evidence as to the proper constitution of the committee, and as to the regularity of its proceedings.

Three of either of these committees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and a majority decision shall be binding.

Parties desiring the services of either of the foregoing committees shall notify the secretary to that effect, in writing and before a hearing of the case, shall file an agreement with him signed by the parties to the controversy, binding themselves to abide, perform and fulfill the final award or finding which shall be made touching the matter submitted without recourse to any other court or tribunal.

Neither party shall postpone the trial of a case longer than ten days after it has been submitted, unless good cause can be shown therefor, satisfactory to the committee.

Trifling and unimportant matter shall not be entertained by the committee of arbitration.

Any member of a firm may execute said agreement on behalf of such firm.

SECTION 6. When the quarterly assessment is made it shall be considered due; and any member neglecting or refusing to pay the same within thirty (30) days thereafter may be excluded from the rooms of the association, until such assessment is paid, and all members failing to pay the assessment during the whole of any fiscal year shall be deemed to have relinquished their membership and the same shall be forfeited, and such parties shall thereafter be readmitted only as a new applicant.

Payment of quarterly assessments by a member shall not be construed as in any affecting such suspension.

SECTION 7. No appropriation of money or other property of the association shall be made except to defray its legitimate business expenditure or to promote the purpose of its organization.

SECTION 8. Visitors may be introduced by any member of the association, and shall be required to register in a book kept for that purpose by the secretary, and accessible to the members during the session of the Board.

No visitor, so introduced, shall be allowed to transact any business in the exchange rooms or rooms of the Board, except through a member of the association.

SECTION 9. When any member of the association shall be guilty of improper conduct of a personal character in any of the rooms of the association, or when any member shall be guilty of a willful violation of any business contract or obligation, and shall neglect or refuse to equitably and satisfactorily adjust and settle the same, or when any member shall willfully neglect or refuse to comply promptly with the award of any committee of arbitration or appeals, rendered in conformity with the by laws, rules and regulations of the association, or when any member shall be guilty of any act of bad faith, or any attempt at extortion, or any other dishonorable or dishonest conduct, he shall be censured, suspended, or expelled by the board of directors as they may determine from the nature and gravity of the offense committed.

A majority of a quorum sitting at a regular or adjourned meeting of the board of directors, shall be necessary to censure or suspend, and an affirmative vote of at least five members of the board of directors shall be necessary to expel; provided, however, that in case of expulsion, an appeal may be taken to the general Board.

All charges made to the board of directors against any member of the association for any default, misconduct or offense, shall be in writing, and shall state the default, misconduct or offense charged, and shall be signed by one or

ARE THEY TRUE. FOR THE HERALD BY O. T. WOOD. [Words composed in memory of little Wesley Davis. Affectionately inscribed to the bereft.] Are they true, these solemn words, Telling little Wesley's death? Hush your songs! Ye little birds! Only let him get his breath. 'Tis a melancholy story, How he smothered in the grain; Though 'tis sad, yet 'tis consoling, Though inscribed, brief was his pain, One by one we're all departing, All of us will be there soon. Earth has no one that can compare To death's cold, icy hand; He takes the old, the young, the fair, Down to his cold, dark land. Their spirits whisper back to us, Haunting, but clear: Heaven is most glorious; But earth is dark and drear. These little ones who pass before, Though hard to give them up, They beckon us to that bright shore, That rest and peace with them may sup. Oh! in that land of pure delight, Where death and sorrow never come, May we again our little units, In that eternal home.

All Men Invited. A cordial invitation is extended to all men of the city to the informal song and gospel meeting tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Presbyterian church. Mr. W. Pond will have charge of the meeting. The topic is "What is Christ to me?" There will be interesting singing and good music. Mr. Mutz who has charge of the singing would be pleased to see every young man who can sing present. Mr. Clark will also be present and favor us with the sweet music of his cornet. It is to be hoped that every member will make an effort to be present and try and bring some young man, stranger or friend with them.
