NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
BENJAMIN HARRISON,
of Indiana.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
LEVI P. MORTON, of New York.

JOHN Y. STONE, who made an address last evening, is a man of fine address and brilliant abilities. He lost cast with the Iowa people when he betrayed their interests by assisting in the repeal of the Granger law in 1876, in the interest of the C. B. & Q. He is a railroad lawyer of the type of Hepburn.—Journal.

The above is a specimen of the manner in which the editor of the sewer sheet speaks of one of the finest political feasts that the people of Plattsmouth have been treated to for years. John Y. Stone and Col. W. P. Hepburn are today shining lights in the republican party of Iowa, and have the respect of every earnest republican in the state. As far as losing cast with the Iowa people, could the writer of the above miserable squib, coming from Iowa as he does, show the same endorsement of the best people of that state—his cast would not be as it is now—utterly beneath the notice of all.

The Irishman is asked to vote for Messrs. Cleveland, Bayard & Co., because protection ruined Ireland? No! The student of Irish history will yet learn that English landlordism is the direct result of protection and that the potato rot in that island was caused by adding the high duty to the market price of the bulbous necessity. The Plattsmouth Journal will demonstrate the latter proposition when it gets through proving that the English laborer gets higher wages than his Yankee brother. After the Journal establishes all these propositions it will next demonstrate why the prohibition plank abolishing all internal revenue is a prohibition measure and how the republican plank abolishing the same tax on alcohol used in the arts and manufactures is a free whisky measure. This will be such a grand opportunity for democratic frankness and truthfulness and will be such a rising above the personalities of the campaign and such an opportunity to appeal to the reason and understanding of the masses that the Journal man and his staff will never let it slide.

To break the force of the republican position of reducing the revenue by abolishing a large portion of the internal taxes instead of lowering the license which foreigners have to pay for the privilege of our markets, the democrats shout free whisky! How this sounds, and is, to the honest man a complete croak-fishing by the democracy of the country which belittled itself hoarse for a quarter of a century howling about the inequities and unconstitutional "war tax." Met face to face with the proposition to repeal this war tax and not attack the labor of the country the democratic party leaders seek to break the force of the republican position by shouting that to repeal the tax on alcohol, which enters into the arts and manufactures is to advocate free whisky—Now the democratic mouth pieces don't believe this, they know full well that in Kansas and Iowa the republican party has prohibited whisky and that in Nebraska and the north generally, we tax it high and will in the near future tax it still higher; they know that there is not a democratic politician in Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska, who has not denounced the republican party for its prohibition tendencies; its sumptuary and prohibition laws. When dealing with the saloon curse, it opposes the republican party as a fanatical temperance organization, but when dealing with the national revenue problem this democratic party has the excellent, dishonesty to charge us with being a free whisky organization. Poor old democracy is it any wonder Mr. Cleveland puts his thumb on your windpipe and shuts you off when he becomes tired of your snide twaddle. Why don't you charge St. John, Mr. Fisk and the prohibition party with being a free whisky party? Dare you do so? Dare you go before the saloon vote of Nebraska and make this charge? What do our prohibition friends think of this democratic view of their prohibition plank to do away with the internal revenue tax anyway?

OUR WEALTHY MEN.
Much has been said in newspapers of men who have made large fortunes in comparatively a few years in various business industries. Many of these artiprominent newspapers, and copied into others of lesser note. Correspondents generally are seldom men of business qualifications and wrongfully picture these men and their business as a thing of accident: this is not the case with those we have met. We find that where men have made large fortunes by their own business talent and industry they chose with sagacity and forethought such business as would lead to success when handled with business judgment. No man has been brought before the public as an example of success, both in wealth and magnitude of his business, (outside of stock and railroad men) more prominently than Dr. G. G. Green, of Woodbury, N. Y. He is at the head of many large industries, and yet comparatively a young man. When the fact that August Flower, for dyspepsia and liver complaint, and Boschee's German Syrup, for coughs and lung troubles, has grown to a wonderful sale in all parts of the world, it proves that it was not an accident or spontaneous strike at wealth. His medicines are recognized as valuable and established remedies, and the business has grown gradually and permanently during the last eighteen years on account not alone of Dr. Green's abilities as a business man, or his "good luck," but on the actual merits of the two preparations.—Copied from the N. Y. Weekly Sun, of Dec. 22, 1886.

HOPE AND DESPAIR.
Clouds dark and lowering hid the sky;
Despair with cup of rue stood by
And sighed, "Drink, and be mine!"
But with such tears and moans she prayed,
To Hope I turned, the radiant maid,
And quaffed her rosy wine.
That instant heaven was sunny blue;
And in my secret soul I knew
Despair, the coward, brought the shade,
Brave-hearted Hope the shade!
—Edna Dean Proctor.

Flowers in the Sandwich Islands.
The Sandwich Islands may well be termed the land of flowers. The natives and all other residents use flowers profusely in decorating themselves. It is a common spectacle to see a barefooted Kanaka with an old straw hat literally buried in wreaths of rare flowers, and lines of the same hanging about her neck. When a steamer sails the band plays merrily upon the dock, and crowds of natives, with garlands of flowers and native matile wreaths, wave adieus. Departing friends are always profusely decorated with flowers and wreaths. Kanakas are almost amphibious. The bay is dotted with colored sails ready to dive for coin like fish. The holo—Mother Hubbard—is the universal dress for women on the islands. The women have fine figures and are generally barefooted. The men are generally fine specimens of mankind. They are not large, but are well formed and exceedingly muscular.—Detroit Free Press.

Fraud in the Mummy.
If you don't want to be swindled in mummies, choose only the dried up, "ornery" ones. There is said to be a great deal of fraud in the mummy business in Egypt. The dealers are aware that purchasers will pay a higher price for well preserved mummies, and as no genuine mummies are well preserved they contract with tramps, beggars, etc., for their bodies when defunct. The money paid to the mummies that are to be, of course, is spent in dissipation, which hastens their death. Then the dealers pick and smoke their bodies until they are what an ideal mummy should be. And the first rich "Christian-dog" who comes along sees them and pays a big price for one of them, with an elaborate pedigree running back to the days of Sesostris thrown in.—New York Tribune.

In an English Court.
In an English court recently Mr. Justice Hawkins said: "This is an exceedingly trumpery case; not that that is a distinctive description, because most of the cases that come here are trumpery." The lawyers began to endeavor to exonerate their clients. "My client, my lord, was most anxious to avoid these proceedings. We have simply been dragged here by my friend." "On the contrary, my lord," said the other lawyer, "we have been literally goaded into litigation by the conduct of my friend's client." "Oh, yes," replied the judge, "quite understandable. The plaintiff has been driven to bring this action by the exasperating resistance of the defendant to his unjust claim."—New York Sun.

An Explanation.
What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many seem now to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word Malaria was comparatively unknown,—today it is as common as any word in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in times past. So it is used with nervous diseases, as they and Malaria are intended to cover what our grandfathers called Biliousness, and all are caused by troubles that arise from a diseased condition of the Liver which in performing its functions finding it cannot dispose of the bile through the ordinary channel is compelled to pass it off through the system causing nervous troubles, Malaria, Bilious Fever, etc. You who are suffering can well appreciate a cure. We recommend Green's August Flower. Its cures are marvelous.

—We now publish music each week in the WEEKLY HERALD. Everybody should be a musician. The pieces furnished in the paper will be found as popular as any costing 50 cents. Everybody should take the paper. We are endeavoring to make it a great success, and feel quite confident we can suit all.

$500 Reward.
We will pay the above reward for any case of liver complaint, dyspepsia, sick headache, indigestion, constipation, costiveness, we cannot cure with West's Vegetable Liver Pills, when the directions are strictly complied with. They are purely vegetable, and never fail to give satisfaction. Large boxes containing 30 sugar coated pills, 25c. For sale by all druggists. Beware of counterfeits and imitations. The genuine manufactured only by John O. Well & Co., 862 W. Madison St. Chicago, Ill. Sold by W. J. Warrick.

The republicans of the United States, assembled by their delegates in national convention, pause on the threshold of their proceedings to honor the memory of their great and immortal champion of liberty and the rights of the people, Abraham Lincoln, and to review the events of his life, his noble character and his heroic deeds. His name and his memory will be forever remembered in the hearts of the noble soldier and favorite child of victory, Philip H. Sheridan.

FOREIGN RELATIONS.
The conduct of foreign affairs by the present administration has been distinguished by inefficiency and cowardice. Having withdrawn from the senate all pending treaties effected by the republican administration for the removal of foreign burdens and restrictions upon our commerce and for its extension into a better field, the administration has not proposed any others in their stead. Professing adherence to the Monroe doctrine, it has seen with indifference the extension of foreign influence in Central America and of foreign trade everywhere among our neighbors. It has refused to charter, sanction or encourage any American organization for constructing the Nicaragua canal, a work of vital importance to the maintenance of the Monroe doctrine and of our national influence in Central and South America, and necessary for the development of our trade with the territories of South America, and with the further coasts of the Pacific Ocean.

FISHERIES QUESTION.
We arraign the present democratic administration for its weak and unpatriotic treatment of the fisheries question, and its pusillanimous surrender of all privileges to which our fishery vessels are entitled in Canadian ports under the treaty of 1818, the reciprocal marine legislation of 1890 and comity of nations, and which Canadian fishing vessels receive in the ports of the United States. We condemn the policy of the present administration and its pusillanimous surrender of our fisheries as unpatriotic and as tending to destroy a valuable national industry and an indispensable resource of defense against foreign enemy.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM.
The men who abandoned the republican party in 1884 and continue to adhere to the democratic party have deserted not only the cause of honest government, but of sound finance, of freedom and purity of the ballot, but especially have they deserted the cause of reform in the civil service. We will not fail to keep our eyes upon the candidates who have broken their faith, because their candidate has broken his, we therefore repeat our declaration of 1884, to wit: The reform of civil service auspiciously begun under republican administration should be completed by a further extension of the reform system already established by law to all grades of service to which it is applied. The spirit and purpose of reform should be observed in all executive appointments, and all laws at variance with the object of existing reform legislation should be repealed, and that the danger of frequent institutions which lurk in the power of official patronage may be wisely and effectively avoided.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.
The republican electors of the state of Nebraska are requested to send delegates from their several counties to meet in convention at the city of Lincoln Thursday, August 23, 1888, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the following state offices: Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, State Treasurer, Auditor of Public Accounts, Attorney General, Commissioner of Public Lands and Buildings, and the transaction of such other business as may come before the convention.

THE APPOINTMENT.
The several counties are entitled to representation as follows, being based upon the vote cast for Hon. Samuel Maxwell, judge, in 1887, giving one delegate at large to each county, and for each 150 votes, and major fraction thereof:

OUR MERCHANT MARINE.
We earnestly recommend that prompt action be taken in congress in the enactment of such legislation as will best secure the rehabilitation of our merchant marine. We protest against the passage by congress of a free ship bill as calculated to work injustice to labor by the use of the money so engaged in preparing materials as well as those directly employed in our shipyards. We demand appropriations for the early rebuilding of our navy, for the construction of coast fortifications and modern ordnance and other approved modern means of defense, for the protection of our defenseless harbors and cities, for the payment of just pensions to our soldiers, for necessary works of national importance in the improvement of the harbors and channels of internal, coastwise and foreign commerce, for the encouragement of

THE MORMON QUESTION.
The political power of the Mormon church in the territories as exercised in the past is a menace to free institutions too dangerous to be long suffered. There is no pledge the republican party to appropriate legislation asserting the sovereignty of the nation in all the territories where the same is questioned, and in the event of any such legislation upon the statute book legislation stringent enough to divorce political from ecclesiastical power, and to drive out the attendant wickedness of polygamy.

THE MORMON QUESTION.
The republican party is in favor of the use of both military and civil power to demonstrate the policy of the democratic administration in its efforts to demonize silver.
