FOR PRESIDENT, BENJAMIN HARRISON, of Indiana.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, LEVI P. MORTON, of New York.

It is no wonder mutton tastes like crow to the democratic epicure.

GROVER—Dan! I didn't know there was so many sheep in the country.

Dan!—Yes Grover! There be many sheep and many shepherds and I fear me, Grover, that between the butting of the sheep and the kicking of the shepherds there will be a very large flock of democratic lambs left out in the cold next November.

Grover—Well Dan! It does begin to look woolly. I guess we had better get up a civil service letter to the mugwumps.

The inexcusable cowardice of the northwestern democratic press is what brings and always has brought, the charge of doughface against that disloyal branch of the democratic party.

dition is.—(Mr. Hemphill, Dem., South Carolina, house debate, April 27.

It would be a glorious consummation of this debate could we only have gentlemen on the other side join in this invocation to paper and to type and to the hearts of honest men to clear the way for British Cobden free trade.—(Mr. Cox, Dem., New York, house debate.

These are the utterances of representative democrats in congress on the Mills bill debate. How do the laboring men like the sentiment anyway.

WHERE THEY KEEP COOL.

In the cellar of a Cincinnati Brewery—A Reporter's Experience. The place that is nearest the north pole in summer time is the beer cellar of a brewery.

A cold chill struck him that froze the perspiration right where it stood. His breath floated in two long streams, like a cloud of smoke, from his nostrils to the ground.

In one of the rooms a man was turning a large wheel, while over at a kind of table on the other side beer was flowing out of a brass faucet, probably as the result of his labor, and was being put into a keg.

This scene of underground labor in the midst of cold was lighted by electric lights, which shone dimly through the glass bulbs, coated with frozen moisture.

The caske of beer that must lie there for eight months before they are allowed must have numbered several hundred, while the air of beer soon to be sold was piled about by the thousand.

We will pay the above reward for any case of liver complaint, dyspepsia, sick headache, indigestion, constipation or costiveness we cannot cure with West's Vegetable Liver Pills.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The republicans of the United States, assembled by their delegates in national convention, pause on the threshold of their proceedings to honor the memory of their first and greatest leader and immortal champion of liberty and the rights of the people, Abraham Lincoln.

the shipping interests of the Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific seas as well as for the payment of the maturing public debt.

FOREIGN RELATIONS. The conduct of foreign affairs by the present administration has been distinguished by inefficiency and cowardice.

FISHERIES QUESTION. We arraign the present democratic administration for its weak and unpatriotic treatment of the fisheries question.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM. The men who abandoned the republican party in 1884 and continue to adhere to the democratic party have deserted the cause of honest government.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION. The republican electors of the state of Nebraska are requested to send delegates from their several counties to meet in convention at the city of Lincoln.

PUBLIC LAND QUESTION. We reaffirm the policy of appropriating the public lands of the United States to be homesteads for American citizens.

ADMISSION OF TERRITORIES. The government by congress of the territories is based upon necessity only to the end that they may become states in the union.

THE MORMON QUESTION. The political power of the Mormon church in the territories is a menace to the maintenance of free institutions.

OUR MERCHANT MARINE. We earnestly recommend that prompt action be taken in congress in the enactment of such legislation as will best secure the rehabilitation of our American merchant marine.
