CITY CORDIALS.

—Where was Mat Gering at Weeping Water when the lights went out?
DIED—In Plattsouth, Neb., Monday evening, Aug. 6th, 1888, Paul, infant son of Stephen D. and Anna S. Smith, age one month.
—The players of the fat and lean nines are contemplating another game for Thursday. It seems that one side will be obliged to pay for a supper.
—Mr. C. S. Sherman, who umpired for the Murray-Clipper game last Sunday is said to have filled the position admirably, no disputes arising over a single decision.
—The strikers of this city have removed their headquarters from the K. P. hall to the K. of L. hall, where they will hold meetings and pass away the time in future.
—Four carloads of paving stones and two carloads of curbing stone was received in the city yesterday and it is expected the work on the streets will soon be commenced.
—Mr. B. Elson is refitting his clothing house, which is located about one block west of the depot, in grand style. It is being thoroughly renovated and will present a stylish appearance when finished.
—Judge Russell issued a marriage license today to Fred Stock and Miss Hanna Dettman and also issued a license and married Mr. Martin Kinney and Miss Mary Anderson at the Goos House this afternoon.
—Mr. E. P. Gardner, a veteran deaf and dumb soldier, arrived in this city this morning and was attacked by a stroke of apoplexy soon after his arrival. The grand army fraternity have taken charge of the unfortunate man.
—Prof. Freer, of Connell college, Mt. Vernon, who is taking a trip through some of the western states in the interests of the college, is in the city and is the guest of John A. Davies, who took a course under his instruction at that college.
—The ladies of St. Luke's Guild are making extensive preparations for a social to be given by them on the 23rd at the Opera House. It will be known as an advertising social and will possess many novel features, being the first of the kind ever given in Plattsouth.
—The sewer and paving bonds for this city were sold to a Boston capitalist by Spitzer & Co., of Toledo, Ohio, and $10,000 of the money was received last night. Under the present administration the work has been carried out to a successful issue and the money secured for the bonds.
—Mr. Wm. L. Brown has secured the establishment of what is known as the National Loan and Protective Union. This association does not in any way effect our home association, it only benefits our city by bringing more money into our midst. Mr. Brown has already secured two loans, one of $4,000 and one of $5,000, making $9,000 brought into our midst within a month.
—At a meeting of the state board of education, held at the capitol, on the 3rd Monday of July, 1888, the following rate of tax was agreed upon for the year 1888, on the total valuation. Total valuation, $4,741,819. General fund, 5 mills on the dollar; sinking fund, 1/2 mill; school fund 1 mill; university, 3/4 mill; capitol, 1/2 mill; reform school fund, 1/4 mill; inst. for feeble minded, 1/2 mill; live stock indemnity fund, 1/4 mill.
—Mr. Jerry Farthing who is frequently seen driving a spirited horse before a sulky through several of the principal streets, met with what was termed a close call to a serious accident, a couple of days ago. He occupied the same rig we speak of and was moving along the road running south from Chicago avenue at rather a rapid pace, when the horse suddenly became frightened at an object in the road and shied off of the road into the ditch, pulling Jerry and the sulky after it. Jerry succeeded in regaining his feet before the horse could move and got full control of the animal before any great damage was done.
—Tommy Hart, a boy about fourteen or fifteen years of age had his hand badly smashed this morning while assisting on the sewer work. A truck had been loaded with dirt from the sewer and was run to the end of the track to dump the dirt out, and when the truck reached the desired spot, the boy placed a stick against one of the hind wheels to keep it from running back. When the stick was placed he did not pull his hand away soon enough and it was caught under the stick, holding it there until the whole weight of the truck and its contents came onto it. His knuckles and fingers were badly smashed, and it is expected the hand will be badly deformed.

Republican Club's Invitation.
The following letter of invitation has been received by the Young Men's Republican Club from the clubs at Glenwood, Ia., to attend a grand rally at that place on August 15. The matter came up before a meeting of our club last evening, and it was decided to accept the invitation. The president, John A. Davies, was made a committee of one to ascertain how many would go over. Quite a number of names were placed last evening, and anyone wishing to attend will please notify the President, Mr. Davies, so that the proper transportation can be secured in time to go and come the same evening. The fare will only be forty or fifty cents for the round trip. Let the club turn out in a body, at least fifty strong.
GLENWOOD, IOWA, Aug. 6, 1888.
To the Officers and Members Republican Club, Plattsouth, Neb.—You are cordially invited to join with us in a grand republican rally and ratification meeting on the evening of August 15. This being the day of our county convention, we hope to make it a big day for republicans. We expect clubs from Red Oak and Council Bluffs, and with the nine clubs of Mills county we think it will be a grand meeting. We have arrangements under way for special trains to return to Plattsouth, Council Bluffs and Red Oak after the evening meeting.
Please give us an estimate of the number that will probably come as soon as possible.
Yours truly,
W. H. BYERS,
JAMES GREGG,
J. L. WATERMAN, } Chairman
A Soldier Among Soldiers Dead.
What's the matter with the old soldiers of Plattsouth? Gallant Phil Sheridan is dead. He will be buried tomorrow. Has the love and admiration of his old comrades cooled? Turn out tonight and let us honor one of the "Soldier Trinity" who did so much for his nation. Let us "push things" and join the procession of mourners who venerate a great soldier. Let us all meet in G. A. R. post tonight. Turn out boys and let us be heard from.
—The Young Men's Republican Club held a meeting last evening and among other business transacted by the club there came up the fact that there was a deficiency in funds to the amount of about $50. An assessment of 50 cents was made on each member and the secretary of the finance committee authorized to collect the amount, and it is to be hoped everyone will respond to the call. The membership of the club is now about 160, a large club for any town.
—Messrs. W. Carruth and Lincoln Brown were pursued by three striking engineers last night on Third street for about a block. They say the strikers threatened them with violence and they made their escape. Carruth is employed in the shops and they hold a grudge against him for pulling a train out of the city two or three times. Brown is a switchman.

Eight Mile Grove.

Our corn is badly in need of rain.
Jimmy Root, of Murray, was visiting W. Jenkins, Friday.
Every one here has their harvesting done and nearly all have their grain in the stack.
A. S. Will has bought forty head of cattle at the rate of three cents per pound, to feed this winter.
J. T. Lloyd, of your city, threshed out the small grain raised on his farm this season, on Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thomas buried their little babe on the 2nd ult., it died of intermittent fever.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Matheny have a new daughter at their home and Joe is as happy as a lark, despite this hot weather.
Mr. and Mrs. Hurden Minford have returned from Lincoln and will locate some where in Cass county, this state, to make their future home.
Mr. and Mrs. George Mutz buried their little babe in the Grove Cemetery, on Monday. The funeral services were rendered at their home in Plattsouth.
J. A. Davis has erected and almost completed his new barn, the dimensions are twenty-eight feet wide, forty feet long and twelve foot walls. It is a very fine improvement to his farm.
Miss Hope A. Miller, our doctor's efficient young daughter, has gone to spend her school vacation with relatives living in Canada, after which she will return to Toledo, Ohio, where she will attend the Manual Training school, and graduate at the close of the coming year.
Walter Mutz, in company with his father, of Auburn, started from here, on Tuesday, for Cummins county, where they will visit a few days with Will Mutz and S. S. Hall. From there they will go to Keya Pah county, to visit Otto Mutz and view southern Nebraska and southern Dakota.
A basket meeting was held at the M. E. church on Sunday. Rev's. Alexander and T. Surface, of Plattsouth, and Rev. G. B. Crippen, of Weeping Water, were in attendance to assist Rev. W. T. Cline, of Mt. Pleasant, the pastor of this church. Rev. Alexander delivered two very able and forcible sermons, one in the forenoon and one in the afternoon. A number came out from Plattsouth and a few from Weeping Water drove over so altogether the attendance was very good and highly appreciated by the people of this place. ONE OF MANY.
An Atrocious Sentiment.
Six years ago, in a conversation with Hon. Orange Noble, Congressman William L. Scott, the noted Democratic free trader, in speaking of the labor troubles of that time, said: "We can never control the workingman until he eats up to day what he earns tomorrow." Scott carries this atrocious idea into practical effect in his coat making. He pays lower wages than anybody else, and so far as he can do so, keeps them from earning enough to lay by for a rainy day.
No wonder he is a free trader. That policy will cut wages down, girt the labor market with unemployed men, and tend to reduce our laboring population to the condition of serfs. Scott is a leader in national Democratic politics, and is devoting himself, heart and soul, to the endeavor to hoodwink the people into voting for Cleveland and his free trade ideas, in the hope that through the forcing of a free trade policy upon the country he will realize his remark of six years ago, and be able to "control the workingman" by making it a necessity for him "to eat up to-day what he earns tomorrow."—Blade.
Scott is the railroad millionaire who handled the St. Louis convention—the right bower of Cleveland—and the man who more than any other one man dictated the platform of the democratic party for 1888. Can any workingman, any wage earner, follow such leaders as this? We believe not. The man or set of men who advocate free trade and say "that they can never control the workingmen unless they have them in debt today for what they will earn tomorrow," are not fit to be trusted with the management of any of the affairs of the great wage-earning people.
The Candidates.
—In a grocery store the reporter noticed the following authentications which appear on an advertising card hung on the wall, which presents to the eye the pictures of the various candidates for the presidency and vice presidency:
Grover—I'm a fisherman.
Thurman—I use snuff.
Fisk (prohibition)—Six long weeks in the long month of August and all I want is water.
Brooks (vice pre.)—That is the hand I hold.
Harrison—American industries protected by me. John Bull don't go.
Morton—Plenty of good cheap food and homes for honest labor.
—The authorities have arrested three switchmen of the B. & M. yards here and are on the lookout for a fourth one who, it is supposed, has skipped to Iowa. Readers of the papers will remember seeing accounts of a wreck on the road occurring at Burkes about three weeks ago. Among the cars wrecked was a sleeper which was sent to the Plattsouth shops for repairs. While the car stood in the upper yards and before it was taken to the shops, the switchmen appropriated several valuables which were in the sleeper. Nothing has been done in the matter before today, when the men were surprised at being arrested. The trial will take place later after which full particulars will appear in this paper.

A CARD.

Having this day sold my stock of Hardware, Stoves, Tinware, etc., to Messrs. Brekenfeld & Weidman, I would respectfully and earnestly ask that all those in my debt come forward promptly and settle their accounts; as it will be necessary for me to close up my business as speedily as possible before engaging in other pursuits. I also take this occasion to thank the public, both in the city and county, for the very liberal patronage given me during the time I have been engaged in business here, and hope the same will be extended to my successors.
