-We acknowledge the receipt of a book from S. H. Calhoun, jr., of Nebraska City. The book is gotten up in first class style by that gentleman and gives a complete history of that burg, its importance as a commercial and manufacturing centre, with several illustrations and cuts of the prominent business men. The proposition that a solid growth beats a boom is fully shown in his work.

Mr. Daniel Burris, an old veteran who is well known in the city, has gone into the book business rather enthustically of which we trust will recompense him for his labors with a rich harvest. He is selling "The Volunteer Soldier" by John A. Logan, which is recognized as a firstclass work: "Life and Services of Harrison and Morton," and "Social Dynamite," by Rev. Talmage.

-Sam MacFlinn's celebrated ten cent show, which is claimed by all who have seen their performances, to be as high a class as any 25 cent show now on the road. They have erected their tents in the vicinity of the B. & M. depot and will remain in the city for three days. They are greeted with large crowds at each performance wherever they go and the admission fee is small enough to be conveniently secured by all.

-The management of the musical concert, at the Opera house tomorrow night, wishes to inform the citizens that the en tertainment will be just as represented, a rare treat of home talent. They have been rehearsing every night for a month and the croakers that never have a good word to say for home talent, the man agement extends a special invitation to come and see the performance and if not satisfactory they can call at the box office and get their money back.

-Mr. John Euric, a young man who is well known in the city, left for Mal vern last Saturday night. He has been called thither quite frequently for some time past and would leave the city as though he was going some place on short notice. We cannot believe he goes so regularly to see a sick friend, as bad attacks do not come upon a sick person only once each week and then Saturday night or Sunday. Since it cannot be sickness that invariably calls him to that place, we have the privilege of guessing, and when we find him trying to dodge the reporter as he did last Saturday night that his name might not appear for his Plattemouth friends to feast their eyes upon, the certain guess we make we guess is about correct and a short time may prove it.

ing Water and in the second ward of said city. This may be an oversight and might be corrected at once and save trouble, not only at the convention, but perhaps dissatisfaction and bolting the ticket at the election in November, If no change is made, Weeping Water precinct will be on hand with her 20 delegates. A REPUBLICAN of W. W. precinct.

A Lift to Home Finances. The MacFlinn celebrated ten cent show swelled the finances of our city admirably within the last twenty-four hours. The company arrived yesterday morning and first put up $30 as license, and today upon request of Judge Clifford swelled late and is now agent for three books the pile by adding a $20 fine and costs for one of the performers who choked and abused one of the younger members of the show on Main street yesterday afternoon. He was promptly arrested by Chief of Police Poisail, Republican Meeting.

All members of the young men's republican club and especially those who wish to attend the Glenwood rally Wednesday night, are requested to meet at the office of Judge Russell tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock sharp. By order of the president,

JOHN A. DAVIES.

-They stood together by the gate, the summer moon was gleaming, the night was mild, the hour was late, her silken hair was streaming; "Oh Algeron," the maiden cried, "why are you plunged in sorrow?" "Perchance" my love. "per hance," he sighed, "I'll tell you all tomorrow; oh, I am burdened with my woe, my soul for mercy's pleading, my weary head is bending low, my shattered heart is bleeding." She took his tremb-ling hand in hers, the fingers gently pressing; anon the murmur of the firs seemed all the world caressing; the hemlocks, darkly bending o'er, in sympathy seemed throbbing; upon its white and pebbled shore, the restless sea was sobbing. "Tell, tell me all," the maiden aid, "methought the future shining; weep you for some one who's dead, or why this sad repining? Your promised bride am, my dear, won by your ways beguiling; then why this woe and weeping here. when you should now be smiling." With iron hand, from off the fence, he pulled in rage a picket; "I'll tell," he said, "and then go hence-I've lost, love, my meal ticket.

-The Y. M. C. A. has received considerable encouragement from the young men of this city of late. The increase has been quite noticeable and they now have an average attendance Sunday afternoons of about thirty. All members interested in the singing are requested to meet at the Presbyterian church at 8 o'clock, tomorrow evening, for practice.

-Miss Tillie Weckbach, who lingered for some time at death's door, is report-ed this morning to be much better and on the road to recovery.

Mr. Chas. Weckbach who, was called home a few days ago on account of the sickness of his aster, Migs Tillie, returned to Lincoln to resume his work in one of the banks there as she is now gradually recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Royse, of western Nebraska, are visiting their peice Miss May Cranmer. They are on their way to Pennsylvania; they came to Nebraska in an early day and have not been back east Merrick Co., Neb., 160 acres and on for twenty years.

Mr. B. Elson leaves tomorrow morning for Chicago and New York where he goes to make a selection from some of the hest houses of those cities. He intends to eniarge hig stock considerable and secure the latest sivies.

Mr. W. H. Worden left this morning for Chariton, Ia. where he goes to attend a grand re-union of the 18th Iowa Volunteers which is to be held at that city on the 14th, 15th and 12th. He has two comrades of the same regiment in this city, but they could not attend on account of business.
