CITY CORDIALS.

—Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Joel Smith, this morning, a daughter.

—Mr. D. Campbell is tenderly nursing a thumb which fell a victim to a fly which he attempted to catch yesterday.

S. & C. Mayer are making great inducements to persons wanting children or boys' clothing. See prices quoted in their show windows this week.

—Mr. Hullenbach, express agent on the K. C., was detained at home in Elmwood last night on account of the death of his child. The funeral will take place there today.

—Deputy Sheriff E. M. Abogast, of Stanton, Va., arrived here yesterday to secure Mr. R. L. Wabright on a charge of seduction. They returned to Richmond, Va., today.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Edwards desire us to say that the kindness of their friends and neighbors during the sickness, death and burial of their little boy Harry, is highly appreciated and cannot be forgotten.

—The Y. P. C. E. gave a sociable at the residence of Mr. R. Donnelly last evening. Quite a large crowd was present and a very enjoyable evening was spent. The large lawn answered the purpose of promenading and different amusements.

—Several of the boys of this city of about the age of 16 years are about to organize a juvenile T. A. M. society. The first of a series of dances will be given about the first of September. The managing committee consists of Charley Murphy, R. W. Clement and Will Stadelmann. The society will conduct their dances in a strictly private order and invitations will be sent out for each assembly.

—Where boys are allowed to jump on and off of cars while in motion as they are at the B. & M. depot, we feel it a duty to make mention of the wrong and if possible be the means of having it prevented in some way. No accidents have occurred in that way recently, but if boys are allowed that privilege much longer, there surely will be sooner or later an accident which will cause some one thoughts of regret on account of negligence.

—A young man who attended the rock rally at Glenwood Wednesday evening expressed considerable dissatisfaction to some young lady friends with whom he was holding a conversation because of the difficulty experienced in getting a drink. One of the young ladies replied, "Well, why didn't you drink water." The young man did not answer as rapidly nor with as much fluency as is usual for him. "That's w-wh-wh-what I m-m-mean, water."

—A lady by the name of Mrs. Greenly who recently moved here from Sydney, Ia., and who now lives in a house on Washington Ave., informed the authorities yesterday that some one had attempted to chloroform her. The house was watched last night but no one put in an appearance. She has two children and she supposed some one was trying to steal. She complained of being frightened the same way several times and it is supposed she only imagines so much.

—Already a large crowd have handed their names into the base ball club, expressing their intention of accompanying the team to Council Bluffs on Sunday next. The required number to secure a special rate has been secured and the fare for the round trip will only amount to $1.10. The train will leave the B. & M. depot at 8:30 and go by way of Pacific Junction. It is expected that about 100 will go from here. Lake Manawa is gaining a wide reputation as a favorite resort and in their efforts to have a good time we hope they may be successful.

—Last evening about the time the crowd left the depot after the trains had pulled out, a little trouble took place between T. Callicut, a striking engineer and J. N. Shott, a scab switchman. The latter carried a lantern in his hand and had just stepped out from some cars which he had coupled when Callicut greeted him with various flowery names which Shott would not accept. As soon as the striker concluded his speech, Shott swung his lantern with considerable velocity against his cranium inflicting an ugly wound. This morning Shott was arrested and fined $5 and costs, amounting to over $10 in all. Shott paid his fine and reciprocated by procuring a warrant for Callicut charging him with using insulting language and calling several disagreeable names. He was also fined to the same extent.

From Veterans of 1840.

AVOCA, Neb., Aug. 14, 1888.
Mr. Critchfield—Dear Sir:—Seeing a notice in the Weeping Water paper soliciting the names of those who voted for Wm. H. Harrison in 1840. I am now in my 73rd year. I was then living in Oxford, Butler Co., Ohio, and I am proud to say I voted for old Tippacano and such a demonstration in that campaign was never before or since been known in the United States. Coon skin, hard cider and log cabins were plentiful.

Yours truly,
ALBERT MARION.

WEeping WATER, Neb., Aug. 14, 1888.
Mr. Bird Critchfield, Co. Clerk—Dear Sir:—Mr. S. Torrence, of Weeping Water, voted for Wm. Henry Harrison, in 1840, at Hornellsville, Stuben Co., N. Y., at which election they had a Johnny cake weighing over a hundred pounds and a cheese as large as a cart wheel.

Yours truly,
MR. O. M. TORRENCE.

WEeping WATER, Neb., Aug. 15, 1888.
Mr. Bird Critchfield, County Clerk.—Dear Sir:—I am one among the survivors who voted for William Henry Harrison in the year 1840. He was the first president I voted for. I have always voted the republican ticket, and if my life is spared until next November I shall vote for his grandson, Benjamin Harrison. I have experienced some of the democratic administration, and I do not want any more of them in mine. I am a Johnnie Bull by birth but do not want any of their free trade.

Yours truly,
JOHN PHILPOT, SR.
Louisville.

Mrs. M. A. Timble and her mother, Mrs. Bringham were at Weeping Water Monday visiting relatives and friends.

R. P. Lucks has sold his property to Mrs. Stevens. Mr. Lucks moved into Mr. Livingston's house on Wednesday.

Mr. A. M. Scaggs went to Omaha Monday where he expected to get employment at his trade. Shorty is a printer and a good one, too.

The "Christians" have consummated arrangements whereby they will occupy the Baptist church each alternate Sabbath for the ensuing year.

The Exchange Hotel is again vacant. Mr. Chas. Spense left Wednesday. No one has rented the house yet. A good chance for an entergetic hotel man.

A. L. Timblin and his uncle Joseph Timblin who left here July 24th for the western part of the state, returned Monday without securing any land. However, Al. says he feels enough better to pay him for his time and expenses.

A CARD.

Having this day sold my stock of Hardware, Stoves, Tinware, etc., to Messrs. Brekenfeld & Weidman, I would respectfully and earnestly ask that all those in my debt come forward promptly and settle their accounts; as it will be necessary for me to close up my business as speedily as possible before engaging in other pursuits. I also take this occasion to thank the public, both in the city and county, for the very liberal patronage given me during the time I have been engaged in business here, and hope the same will be extended to my successors. The primaries will be held in Plattsmouth precinct at Taylor's school house, at 3 p. m.; and Plattsmouth city, 1st ward, at County Judge's office, 1 to 7 p. m.; 2nd ward, at second ward school house, 1 to 7 p. m.; 3rd ward, at Sullivan's office, 1 to 7 p. m.; 4th ward, at Rockwood Hall, 1 to 7 p. m.

A Plattsmouth Boy Abroad.

Judge Vanatta received a letter from his late law student, W. M. Manning, today, announcing the fact that he had received the nomination for county attorney out at Alma, Neb., by the republican party. Those who know Mr. Manning think the county is to be congratulated as well as the candidate, for they can rest assured that they will have an honest, earnest, capable man to fill that office and no more industrious law student can be found. Mr. Manning's many warm friends in Plattsmouth are rejoiced to hear of his success.

A Problem Solved.

Old man: "If I give my daughter to you, young man, where will you take her?"
Young man: "well, er—I thought perhaps we might stay here with you until I can get things straightened out a bit."
Old man: "If—yes; I had quite overlooked that easy solution of the difficulty, but my house is very small!"
Young man: "Ye-es; I thought of that, too; but the idea occurred to me that possibly the house could be enlarged."—New York Sun.

—Don't go to Omaha when you want to get your beautiful parlor and bed room sets but go to Henry Boeck's furniture emporium where you can get every thing in the furniture line that will go to make your home beautiful and comfortable; and above all you can get it cheap. Remember that he who sells most can sell cheapest.

The Belgian King and Queen.

His reign will be marked by three imperishable traits: he has virtually abolished capital punishment in Belgium by consistently refusing to sign a death warrant; he has founded, out of his own private purse, a prize of $1,000 for the best "works of intelligence," and he has extended the dominion of his country and the arm of civilization to the dark continent. He has also instituted a purely military order, the "Belgian Lion," which can only be conferred on those who have served blamelessly in the Belgian army for twenty-five years.

The queen has brought up her young daughters in a pure atmosphere of home life. She used to be rarely seen abroad, save with one or two of the little princesses beside her in the pony carriage she was so fond of driving. An excellent horsewoman, she trained her own horses; a splendid musician, she had a telephone constructed in her apartments at Brussels, so that she could follow from her sofa the opera given at the Theater de la Monnaie. She was the devoted nurse of the late King Leopold. Her sincere piety conquered the rationalistic tendencies of the aged sovereign, and she alone was suffered to pray at his bedside. She has been invariably kind to her brother and sister-in-law, hiding the pang it cost her to see their son, Prince Baudoin, growing up to fill the place which should have been her dead son's. She has been absolutely and unselfishly devoted to the unfortunate Empress Charlotte in her dire misfortune; and if, owing to her retiring disposition, she has not played a more conspicuous part at court, she is loved and will be remembered for many deeds of charity and generosity.—Home Journal.

SOME DAY.

Some day! Some day! the weary cry
Of souls too sadly worn to live,
Save in the hope that time may give
Some richer blessing, by and by;
And mournful is that hopeful sigh—
Some day.

Some day! Some day! The heart once light
Has learned too well the siren song:
Let live and thrive the right and wrong—
The good upheld, the wrong set right,
The just shall see; 'twill end—the fight—
Some day.

Some day! Some day! 'Twill come, ah me,
When, written on life's title page
In final The golden age
Of dreams is something yet to be,
But voicings o'er an unknown sea—
Some day.

TORNADO POLICIES.

The present year bids fair to be a disastrous one from tornadoes and wind storms. This is fore-shadowed by the number of storms we have already had—the most destructive one so far this year having occurred at Mt. Vernon, Ill., where a large number of buildings were destroyed or damaged. The exemption from tornadoes last year renders their occurrence more probable in 1888.
