—I found my coat.—WAD.

S. & C. Mayer are making great inducements to persons wanting children or boys' clothing. See prices quoted in their show windows this week.

—The Advertising social given by St. Luke's Guild, will be Wednesday Aug. 23rd 1888; admission 25 cents, children 10 cents. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

—Mr. Levi Walker says he voted for William Henry Harrison in 1840 and that he has voted the democratic ticket ever since, and if he lives he will vote for Benjamin Harrison as he is the kind of stock he wants.

—The Journal accuses the reporter of this paper of being an authority on the number of ties between Glenwood and Pacific Junction after the rally. Not when we stand in with the B. & M. as Mr. Journal editor says. When the tie is broken we may then commence to count and not before.

—The Plattsmouth orchestra under whose auspices the late concert was given at the Waterman opera house extends to all who so willingly and ably participated in rendering the programme, their sincere thanks, and also a word of thanks to the citizens who turned out in such a large body and extended to them their patronage.

—All who wish to accompany the base ball team to Council Bluffs tomorrow morning are requested to be at the depot before 8 o'clock as the train is expected to leave at that time. The boys secured the reduced rate of $1.10 for the round trip and it is expected that a large number more than those who have already handed in their names will go.

—Mr. John Wicoff, of Chicago, a friend of Mr. U. V. Mathews, hardware merchant, was in the city yesterday. He is a very fine singer and afforded several of his Plattsmouth friends an hour of unlimited pleasure by the rendition of several of his favorite solos. His daughter is a prominent professional singer in eastern musical circles, and has just recently severed her connection with the Schubert quartette of Chicago to accept a position as teacher in a popular conservatory.

—The first district conference of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held in this city from the 24th to the 26th of August, inclusive. Delegates from several cities over the state will be present, and the society will depend upon their sympathizers to afford them board and lodging. A consecration meeting will be held Sunday morning, a large young men's meeting Sunday afternoon; also a ladies' meeting at the same hour. The conference will close with a grand mass meeting Sunday night for everybody. Do not fail to go.

—A marked change has come over the base ball circles in this vicinity within the last two days and considerable dissatisfaction has been the result. A most prominent base ball tosser who is a recognized champion in his line—batting—has, owing to an injury he received at the last game and various other afflictions, severed his connection with the team he had signed with for the present season and retired from the field. The club in which he has played since the base ball season opened, has lost all vigor and ambition now that this gentleman, the one in whom they placed their trust, has resigned. The gentleman we have reference to has caused the whole trouble since he has refused to again enter the diamond is well known in this city. He is one of the battery for the lean team and while attempting to reach an out-shoot during the game the other day, broke his thumb. We are sorry to see him retire from the field and by so doing cause a hesitation in base ball circles of this vicinity. His name is Campbell.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. C. S. Twiss went up to Omaha today to have her eyes treated.

Mrs. E. T. Duke of Omaha, sister-in-law of Capt. L. D. Bennett, is visiting in the city.

Lou Pennington left this morning for Omaha, where he has a position running the switch engine in the B. & M. yards.

Mrs. F. A. Steimke and daughter, Miss Lelia, left last evening for Burlington where they will visit relatives for awhile.

Mrs. M. A. Fegan, mother-in-law of Mr. H. C. Ritchie, who has been visiting relatives at York for the past few weeks, returned home last evening.

Mr. J. Robinson, a young man who is widely and favorably known in this vicinity, but who now resides at Chadron, Neb., arrived in the city last night.

The Misses Barnes, of Graham, Mo., who were visiting Mr. D. Campbell and family yesterday, left last evening for York where they go to visit their uncle, Mr. J. W. Barnes.

—If a proposition can be accepted by the music loving people of this city, allow us to present one urging some ambitious musician who is capable of instructing a choral society, request the members of the different church choirs and as many outsiders as is possible to secure, to meet in a body in some favorable locality and discuss the expediency of organizing a choral or philharmonic society. The talent can be found in this city if some one will only take the trouble upon themselves to find it. There are several good singers and musicians in our midst, and if they would only agree to such a thing as was just mentioned, Plattsmouth would no longer be looked down upon and spoken of as many thousands and times as it is at present as being an extremely slow city in that respect, but it would immediately come to the front, and people who are at present very indifferent, would awaken to a sense of appreciation and strongly assist such a move. When the public is made known of the fact that first-class talent can be produced here when called upon, such a difficulty will not be experienced when an amateur concert is given in the city of securing a paying audience. If a musician does not wish to take the responsibility upon his or her shoulders, let some musically interested person urge the matter and have an efficient instructor take hold of the matter.

—Two strikers named Gavin and Dill were arrested last night on a charge filed against them by A. W. Bucher, assistant yard-master, for calling him indecent and insulting names. The trial came off before Judge Clifford last night and lasted from 8 o'clock until about 11. Dill was fined $5 and costs and Gavin was acquitted, as the complaint against him was not strong enough to hold him. Another complaint will be filed Monday.

—A man by the name of Richard Kenney was arrested late last night for being drunk and creating a disturbance on the streets. He was called up before Judge Clifford this morning who assessed a fine which the poor unfortunate man could not put up, whereupon he was lodged in jail long enough to board it out. He can rest contented now for about ten days.

—Mr. M. B. Murphy, who ordered a large cask of China dinner sets direct from Dresden, Germany, last February, received the stock a few days ago and has it on exhibition in his store. They are all hand painted and of the finest designs. The manufacturers of Dresden have the reputation of being the best in the world.

—Thos. L. Kimball, general manager of the U. P., who has been quite seriously ill for some time at Omaha, is reported to be at present convalescent. Dr. Livingston, Sr., of this city, medical director for the B. & M., was called to his aid during his sickness.

I agree to forfeit $10 to any cigar dealer of Plattsmouth who will produce a foreign 5 cent cigar that will equal in fineness and quality that of Pepperberg's "Buds". Don't all speak at once.

A CARD.

Having this day sold my stock of Hardware, Stoves, Tinware, etc., to Messrs. Brekenfeld & Weidman, I would respectfully and earnestly ask that all those in my debt come forward promptly and settle their accounts; as it will be necessary for me to close up my business as speedily as possible before engaging in other pursuits. I also take this occasion to thank the public, both in the city and county, for the very liberal patronage given me during the time I have been engaged in business here, and hope the same will be extended to my successors.

A Word From Glenwood.

The following commendations appeared in the Glenwood Opinion in their report of the proceedings of the grand rally which took place at that burg last Wednesday night:

The celebrated B. & M. cornet band, of Plattsmouth, was here and it is a dandy.

John A. Davies, of Plattsmouth, a young man in whom all Glenwoodites feel a just pride, was next introduced and made a rattling ten-minute speech that convinced everyone that he was acquainted with the history of both parties, and knew why he stood for republicanism.

Take Notice, I. O. O. F.

WM. HAYES, Sec. Bd. Ed.

—Mr. John Frederick, a bachelor living about six miles west of town, has been annoyed within the last few days by a burglar who has infested that vicinity for some time. Mr. Frederick is a brick mason and has been employed at Cedar Creek for some time, being away a week at a time. He left the house without a watch about a week ago and went to his work at Cedar Creek. He did not return until Thursday last, when, to his surprise he found several of his valuables had disappeared and discovered that an attempt had been made to fire it. A large box had been filled with rubbish and placed at one corner of the house and set fire to. The fire had made considerable headway on the building by all appearances, but no great damage was done in that way. It is supposed that the rain extinguished the fire. By the amount of stuff which had disappeared, the burglar had made more than one trip. Sheriff Eikenbary was posted on the matter immediately and at once took a trip to the scene. He succeeded in finding a track from the house which he followed for a considerable distance to a corn field where he was obliged to abandon the search that night on account of darkness. He started out again Friday morning and again took up the trail and followed it to a house about a mile distant. When he reached the place he asked permission to search it which privilege the occupants were apparently agreeable to allow. After the house had been searched without any recompense, he started for the barn which he also searched and found a trunk. He raised the lid immediately and found a revolver which Mr. Frederick swore was his. A farm hand who was present at the time and who was owner of the trunk, was arrested and brought to the city where he was lodged in jail. His name is Vene Pearson, a boy about 17 years of age. Further steps are now being taken to ascertain the whereabouts of the remainder of the missing articles.

—Don't go to Omaha when you want to get your beautiful parlor and bed room sets but go to Henry Boeck's furniture emporium where you can get every thing in the furniture line that will go to make your home beautiful and comfortable; and above all you can get it cheap. Remember that he who sells most can sell cheapest.

—The Turner society of this city will give another picnic tomorrow afternoon at Degendorfer's Park, about three miles north-west of the city.

TORNADO POLICIES.

The present year bids fair to be a disastrous one from tornadoes and wind storms. This is fore-shadowed by the number of storms we have already had—the most destructive one so far this year having occurred at Mt. Vernon, Ill., where a large number of buildings were destroyed or damaged. The exemption from tornadoes last year renders their occurrence more probable in 1888.
