CITY CORDIALS.

—Today the republicans hold their state convention at Lincoln.

—Mr. Jas. Baker who lives south-west of the city, buried an infant yesterday.

—Miss Ettie Searle has resigned her position as teacher in the high school.

—Another switch engine was brought into the yards here today—No. 23. No. 69 will be used in the upper yards and 23 in the lower.

—The democrats in their return from the convention which was held at Weeping Water last night, made better time than they were known to make on a trip from there a short time ago.

—Messrs. Frank Fitzgerald and Oscar Engle were arrested last night for disturbing the peace and fighting. They were arraigned before Judge Clifford this morning and each fined $5 and costs.

—The doctors of this burg state that cases of typhoid and malarial fever in their worst stages are becoming quite prevalent, and it is thought that this summer will be accompanied with as much sickness of this kind as was witnessed here last season.

—The school board held a meeting last Monday night to consider the applications from several teachers for the ensuing term. A good number of applications have been received and those inquiring will be examined before any are selected to fill the two vacancies now open.

—The management of the young T. A. M. dancing society has issued invitations for the first of a series of assemblies which is to be given tomorrow evening at Fitzgerald's hall. They have spared no pains to make the coming event a very pleasant one for all who participate, and we trust success may attend their efforts.

—A HERALD containing the cut which appeared in the paper the day following the banquet given by the republican club, can still be seen in some of the business houses and also in the treasure boxes of some of the young ladies. It is reported that Mr. John A. Davies, president of the Young Men's Republican club, now offers about $5 for each copy which is still in circulation.

—The public generally are under the impression that the conference of some of the representatives of the Y. M. C. A. over the state, which is to be held here tomorrow and the two following days will be open to men only. Such will not be the case. A special invitation is extended to the ladies who are interested in the good work, to be present Friday evening at their meeting, and they are also urgently requested to attend next Sunday evening.

—Hon John Y. Stone of Council Bluffs, who favored the Young Men's Republican Club of Plattsmouth with one of the most eloquent and entertaining addresses upon the occasion of their recent annual banquet, has been nominated by the republicans of Iowa for attorney general. The HERALD extends its congratulations not only to Mr. Stone, who is recognized as one of the ablest lawyers in the western slope, but also to the republicans of progressive Iowa upon the wisdom of their selection.

—The school board has decided to open the schools again sooner than was at first anticipated. The rooms will be opened on the 10th of next month if all present arrangements are carried out, when there will be a grand reunion of the school children. The ambitious scholars, who have been promoted, will return to the school with tightened hearts and start out on their new studies, while the more careless ones are less jubilant and return to tread the same road for another term.

—Handsome bills are being posted up advertising the fair which is to be held here from the 18th to the 21st of September, inclusive. The new fair grounds for that occasion will be in first class condition in every particular, and the greatest event of the kind ever known in the history of Plattsmouth is anticipated. On the grounds can be found one of the finest driving courses in the state and it is expected that several of the most noted trotters in this part of the country will put in an appearance.

—Messrs. Sam and Jas. Patterson, Geo. Oliver, Dal Jones, Morris O'Rourke, Harry Reese and Charley Miller have accepted an invitation from the Malyers, Ia., base ball club and went thither this morning to help them out today in a game against Macedonia. We think the proper thing to have done would have been for the club to adopt the Plattsmouth uniform and advertise it as the Plattsmouth club assisted by three of the Malyers nine. We hope the boys will not do as much miffing for them as they have done for themselves of late.

A Pleasant Time.

A more successful event both socially and financially than that of last night has not been realized for many a day. The entertainment was given under the auspices of the young ladies of St. Luke's Guild and was managed in every particular to perfection. Each young lady exhibited her good taste in selecting a dress for the occasion, and each dress was manufactured in such a style as to represent a certain business house, and there were about sixty in all represented.

The whole party in their merry-making efforts and the lively stir, presented to the minds of the spectators an enthusiastic spectacle. After the young gentlemen had waited upon their lady friends by treating them to an inviting repast, all joined in the merry dance to the music rendered by the Bohemian band until a late hour.

The ladies were financially successful, having cleared between $80 and $90.

Appended we give the style of the different business houses and the names of the young ladies representing them:

Having this day sold my stock of Hardware, Stoves, Tinware, etc., to Messrs. Brekenfeld & Weidman, I would respectfully and earnestly ask that all those in my debt come forward promptly and settle their accounts; as it will be necessary for me to close up my business as speedily as possible before engaging in other pursuits. I also take this occasion to thank the public, both in the city and county, for the very liberal patronage given me during the time I have been engaged in business here, and hope the same will be extended to my successors. OBITUARIES.

EIGHT MILE GROVE, Aug. 21, 1888.
DIED.—The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Barker, Aug. 19. The remains were buried in the Eight Mile Grove cemetery, Aug. 20th, at 2 o'clock p. m. Funeral services are deferred for the present.

DIED.—The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rev. James Mullen, at his home at Elmwood, this county, with typhoid fever.
The deceased is aged fourteen years, and was brought down and buried in the Eight Mile Grove cemetery, Aug. 21st, at 2 o'clock p. m. The funeral services will be conducted at their place of worship at some future date.

ONE OF MANY.

—A young man who has been in the employ of Mr. C. M. Holmes, at his livery stables for some time, secured a watch from Mr. Wat Holmes, Tuesday, which he agreed to pay for in monthly payments. The fellow skipped out and was gone some time before anyone mistrusted his dishonesty. Mr. Holmes, sr., learned that he had left for Pacific Junction. He took the train for that place and shortly after his arrival there he met the fellow who received such a scare upon coming in contact with him that he immediately handed over the stolen treasure.

—The great bandana king in his speech at Port Huron yesterday, opened his address by an expression of fear for the grave, as usual. For fear that an occasional breeze might strike his brow and cause him a death blow before the campaign should come on, he asked his large audience for the privilege of keeping his cap on while addressing them. When such a mild breeze as was then blowing will so materially affect his constitution, we cannot imagine what will become of the old man when the gale of November next strikes him.

—Guest at Delmonico's, New York.
—See here. When that waiter brought in this soup I happened to look up and I noticed that his mustache was wet, wet sir.

Head waiter—Very sorry, sir, and I'll have the soup changed. It's against the rules for waiters to wear mustaches here, but that one is a new man, and hasn't had time to get shaved yet.—Omaha World.

—Don't go to Omaha when you want to get your beautiful parlor and bedroom sets but go to Henry Boeck's furniture emporium where you can get every thing in the furniture line that will go to make your home beautiful and comfortable; and above all you can get it cheap. Remember that he who sells most can sell cheapest.

I agree to forfeit $10 to any cigar dealer of Plattsmouth who will produce a foreign 5 cent cigar that will equal in fineness and quality that of Pepperberg's "Buds". Don't all speak at once.

TORNADO POLICIES.
The present year bids fair to be a disastrous one from tornadoes and wind storms. This is fore-shadowed by the number of storms we have already had—the most destructive one so far this year having occurred at Mt. Vernon, Ill., where a large number of buildings were destroyed or damaged. The exemption from tornadoes last year renders their occurrence more probable in 1888.
