NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT, BENJAMIN HARRISON, of Indiana.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR, JOHN M. THAYER. FOR SECRETARY OF STATE, GILBERT L. LAWS.

THE HERALD is for Frank E. White for congress, on the democratic side.

HENRI WATTERSON and his 200,000 with moss on their backs and the sweet fragrance of the blue grass pastures on their breath did it.

GROVER CLEVELAND'S retailing message falls as flat as a wet dish rag on a curb stone.

THE democratic convention in session, last night, at Lincoln came near having the scarified warrior from Kentucky with his 200,000 unarmed militia to aid in the nomination of a governor for Nebraska.

THE bulletin boards for the 29th show Grover Cleveland $10,000 for the boodle fund to elect himself president of these United States.

HON. J. M. PATTERSON for state treasurer is a democratic nomination no good democrat can find fault with.

RATS!

To read yesterday's Omaha dispatches about the democratic gubernatorial nomination one would think the entire party was one on a spree.

One night I got my desk in order—pen, paper, clippings, letters, everything. The next morning, two hours before the usual time of rising, I thought of my "spindle and my distaff" waiting, and I hurried up, and out into the fresh spring morning.

Afterward, when I took up editorial work, or became, as Horace Greeley once called himself, "an editorial hack," my copy was not always a day or two behind time because I had to wait until I felt like writing.

I early found that I needed some place for special information about men of note, anecdotes, reflections, etc.

Thus, suppose in a personal letter to a friend, in the free expression of friendly conversation, I have chatted about the present administration, or given him some sage advice against flirting.

Now then men and brethren just stand aside and see how old Governor Thayer will warm up this Omaha candidate.

As there anything in this world so vile as the pestilent presence of potent bile? We have it, we hate it, we all revile it.

"Oh, papa," she said, with a blush, "young Mr. Chestnut, who owns so many coal mines in Pennsylvania, is coming again this evening, and he says he wants to see you on some important business."

Habits of a Literary Man.

"Timothy Tite nib" had just come out with his "Gold Bull," and I, too, began to hammer at the old proverb: "Get thy spindle and thy distaff ready, and God will send thee flax."

Going fasting to my desk, or taking even a short walk as soon as I was up, always retarded my work, and a headache or early exhaustion was the consequence.

The history of this morning the history of every morning for a year. The old habit was hard to break, but I was determined to get rid of it, and every morning I compelled myself to write something original; to write it with care and painstaking, endeavoring to concentrate my thought upon it.

Memory will be treasured in the history both of republicans and of the republic.

The nation is the noble soldier and favored child of victory, Philip H. Sheridan.

In the spirit of those great leaders and of our devotion to human liberty, and with that hostility to all forms of despotism and oppression which is the fundamental idea of the republic...

We denounce the Mills' bill as destructive to general business, labor, and the farming interests of the country, and we heartily endorse the consistent and patriotic action of the republican representatives in congress in opposing its passage.

Thus, suppose in a personal letter to a friend, in the free expression of friendly conversation, I have chatted about the present administration, or given him some sage advice against flirting.

THE MORMON QUESTION.

The political power of the Mormon church in the territories as exercised in the past is a menace to free institutions too dangerous to be tolerated.
