TABLE TALK for September—another

seasonable and entertaining number. Summer is dead—and Mr. Whitton treats her demise with becoming solemnity in his opening poem; then follows a variety of household information the housewife cannot afford to lose.

MR. BLAINE ON THE PRESIDENT'S ERROR.

In his article on "The President's Error," in the American Magazine for September, Mr. Blaine says: Strangely enough the president neglects, either from design or oversight, to notice what effect the serious reduction of the tariff would have on the 1,810,256 men employed in transportation, viz., on the railroads, coast-wise vessels, river steamers and barges, canal, wagon and stage lines. These varied ways of transportation represent an investment of thousands of millions of dollars of American money and give employment to nearly two millions of men, whose earnings support nine millions of people.

Whatever impairs American manufacturing, strikes at the great transportation interests. Iron ore, admitted free from Spain, coal admitted free from Nova Scotia, wool admitted free from Australia, all favor British ships at the expense of American railroads. The further the president goes in the direction of the doctrine laid down in his message, the more direct and the more deadly is the assault upon the whole organization of American industries.

AND HE FLOPPED.

In his message to the senate of February 20, 1888, transmitting the Bayard-Chamberlain treaty, the president said: "The treatment meets my approval because I believe that it supplies a satisfactory, practical and final adjustment, upon a basis honorable and just to both parties of the difficult and vexed question to which it relates."

This is a concession that the position of Canada was correct as to that province's dispute with the United States. That Canada was justified in seizing American fishing vessels and that the United States had no commercial rights in the Canadian harbors which it should pay for. Now, then, in his retaliatory flop the president assumes exactly the opposite position. Can the chief executive of this nation, after committing himself and his administration unreservedly to the rejected treaty which conceded the Canadian demand, be now permitted to say to the advocates of the American claim in the fishery dispute that the American fishermen were right and Mr. Bayard and his treaty wrong? Will he be permitted to turn this somersault without incurring the contempt of all honest advocates of either side of the question? We rather guess not. It is no wonder his henchmen in the south stand dumb in the presence of the ridicule heaped upon him by Mr. Edmunds and his colleagues.

Asleep on the Railroad Track.

A little child, tired of play, had pilowed his head on a rail and fallen asleep. The train was almost upon him when a passing stranger rushed forward and saved him from a horrible death. Perhaps you are asleep on the track, too. You are, if you are neglecting the biliousness and constipation which trouble you, in the hope that you will "come all right." Wake up, or the train will be upon you! Constipation is too often the forerunner of a general "breaking up."

LOVE'S LITANY.

Behold your suppliant! Give me your heart! All that is in it is that is very pure. Your woman's sanctity, the counter part of gifts the angels gave you that endure! Give me your heart! That I may set it round With pearls of prayer, and roses recite Of deep thanksgiving! Let me feel I've found A way to peace out of life's dark night! Give me your heart! —Clement Scott in America.

The republicans of the United States, assembled by their delegates in national convention, pause on the threshold of their proceedings to honor the memory of their first free leader and illustrious champion of liberty and the rights of the people, Abraham Lincoln, and to cover as with a mantle of glory his noble and unblemished and gratefully heroic name. We also recall with our greetings and prayer for his recovery the name of one of our living heroes whose

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The republicans of the United States, assembled by their delegates in national convention, pause on the threshold of their proceedings to honor the memory of their first free leader and illustrious champion of liberty and the rights of the people, Abraham Lincoln, and to cover as with a mantle of glory his noble and unblemished and gratefully heroic name.

In the spirit of those great leaders and of our devotion to the principles of liberty and with hostility to all forms of despotism and oppression which is the fundamental idea of the republican party, we send fraternal congratulations to our fellow Americans of Brazil upon their great act of emancipation which completed the abolition of slavery throughout the two American continents. We earnestly hope we may soon congratulate our fellow citizens of Irish birth upon the peaceful recovery of home rule for IRELAND.

WE WILL SUPPORT INTERESTS OF AMERICA. We support the issue, and confidently appeal to the people for their judgment. The protection of our interests is the paramount duty of the government and demand effective legislation to secure the integrity and purity of elections which are the foundation of public authority. We charge that the present administration and the democratic majority in congress owe their existence to the suppression of the constitution and laws of the United States.

We denounce the Mills' bill as destructive to general business, labor, and the farming interests of the country. It is a measure of the consistent and patriotic action of the republican representatives in congress in opposing the free list and the foundation of our republic.

The political power of the nation is in the territories as exercised in the past is a menace to free institutions too dangerous to be long suffered. Therefore it is the duty of the republican party to appropriate legislation, asserting the sovereignty of the nation in all the territories where the same is questioned, upon the statute book legislation stringent enough to divorce political from ecclesiastical power and thus stamp out the attendant wickedness of polygamy.

A Warning. The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from disease of the throat and lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives vast numbers of Tubercle Germs into the system and where these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the lungs producing Consumption and to the head, causing Catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to continue will in time cause death.

SOUTH PARK STILL THE FRONT!

Twenty-One Reasons For

PURCHASING LOTS IN SOUTH PARK

- 1. As a whole they are the finest lying lots in the city. 2. They are shaded with beautiful forest trees. 3. They are located between Chicago and Lincoln Avenues, the two finest drives about the city. 4. They are only a ten minutes' walk from the business portion of the town. 5. Ten minutes' walk from the new Driving Park and Fair Grounds. 6. By reason of their location between the two main thoroughfares into the city, they are more accessible than lots in other additions. 7. The only addition in the city reached by two established avenues. 8. The only new addition to the city reached by water mains and with a prospect of being supplied in the near future with complete water privileges. 9. New sidewalks recently constructed to within a few feet of the addition and will shortly be extended. 10. New brick school house now being constructed. 11. Will certainly have street car privileges at no distant date. 12. If you wish a fine view of the river, locate on a lot in South Park. 13. If you wish a slightly and picturesque view of Plattsmouth, it can be had from a South Park lot. 14. To persons in the railroad employ, the eastern portion of South Park is the most desirable residence locality in the city. 15. To persons desiring a residence on Chicago Avenue, the western portion of South Park is available for that purpose. 16. The B. & M. railroad track runs near the east line of the addition, furnishing good facilities for manufacturing industries. 17. If you locate in South Park you will have good neighbors: Mayor Simpson, John R. Cox, John A. Davies, John L. Minor, J. V. Weckbach, Chas. Harris, John H. Young, Henry Waterman, W. C. Ingraham, Jerry Farthing, Thos. E. Reynolds, S. A. Davis, L. A. Miner, C. M. Weed, Frank Irish, J. N. Glenn, C. L. Colemone, S. A. Speakman, A. Beeson, Chas. A. Rankin, Sarah E. Alexander, John Moore, M. A. Shipman, Lillie Kalisky, T. W. Fanght, Clayton Barber, W. J. Hesser, Harry Kneller, J. E. Barwick, J. G. Royal, W. N. McLennan, P. C. Minor, F. McCourt, J. C. Fought, W. J. Warrick, Judge A. N. Sullivan, and other prominent citizens are owners of South Park property. 18. Over $14,000 worth of this desirable property has been disposed of within a short period and no part has been sold to outside speculators, which is solid proof of the substantial growth of this part of the city. 19. More substantial houses have been built in South Park during the year past than in any one locality, and still the building boom continues. 20. Terms, one third cash, balance in one and two years, or lots may be purchased on monthly payments. 21. Purchase a lot and we will loan you money with which to build.
