CITY CORDIALS.

—The siege of Sebastopol could be produced at this place when the sewer men have completed their work in throwing up breast-works, at a much less cost.

—Mr. A. Boswell, the colored divine of this city, occupied the pulpit at the Methodist church last evening. His sermon gave good satisfaction to the large congregation.

—Omaha's fourth annual fair and exposition opens today and continues until Saturday the 8th. Round trip tickets will be sold here at half fare for the round trip. During the week, the siege of Sebastopol will be produced each night. This production is claimed to be even more extensive than that given in the east last year.

—Today, the first Monday of September which has been introduced to the platform as what is known as a labor day on which all mechanics and laborers are to rest, has been recognized, before it has come into effect, by the union cigar-makers in the employ of Mr. Julius Pepperberg. They are the only cigar-makers in the city who work only eight hours per day.

—The Nebraska State Fair which opens on the 7th will continue until the 14th. The B. & M. will run a special train from this city the 11th and return the same day, at one fare for the round trip. It is expected that the state fair this season will be well attended by Plattsmouth citizens as those who have ever attended any of the expositions are ever anxious to return another year. This year it will be more extensive than ever before and those who attend can never regret their visit.

—Great preparations are being made by the democrats of this place and Glenwood for their anticipated grand rally which is to be held there. No doubt the disappointment and backsets so frequent to the party in the past will prompt them to a sense of their duty for the coming event, and we trust, if for no other reason than the sake of opposition, that their efforts will be more fruitful this time. The date set for the grand outbreak is the 13th of Sept. We would like to see a democratic procession this time.

—The laying of the corner stone of the proposed colored church which is to be located on Oak street, between 10th and 11th, was witnessed by a large gathering of Plattsmouth citizens yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. A. Boswell, the pastor of the colored people of this city, has been an agitator of the building of this church for some time and succeeded quite well in raising the required amount. Several of our prominent citizens have donated liberally to the good cause, and the building will be erected as soon as possible. The corner stone had a large hole in the center of it for the purpose of dropping cards or envelopes bearing the names of all who helped them by contributing to erect the building, so that the children of future years when the church crumbles to dust may find the names of their forefathers in their own handwriting. Three hundred and seventy-five dollars have been raised to assist them. Rev. A. Boswell preached a short sermon to the large audience who manifested considerable interest in the good move of the colored people of this city.

—Some of our readers will remember an account given in this paper some time ago of a fracas between a man by the name of Thos. Bryant and his wife who, at that time, lived in the vicinity of this city. During the quarrel the man pushed his wife against a hot stove and caused her to be burned severely. Trouble and quarrels have incessantly arisen between the couple until a short time ago when the wife, declaring that she could no longer endure the abuse she and her three children received from him, and after securing the children, left his home and came to this city to live. Since she removed here he has visited her many times and came to the room, where she now lies on a sick bed, this morning. The room is in an old building which is known as "Patterson row." At present the woman is very sick, with no means of support and three children to care for. Had it not been for the kindness of some of the neighbors, she being unable to help herself as she has for the past few days, starvation would certainly have been her fate; but some of the people of that vicinity knowing her misfortune, so far, have been kind to her and supplied her and her children with food. As often as her husband goes to see her, and that is quite often, she says it is only to tantalize her, as he will almost invariably show her money and put it in his pocket again with a sneer. The doctor claims that the excitement caused her by his unwelcome visits, renders her case, which is critical, very dangerous. The authorities should look into the matter.

ASTABBING AFFRAY.

Two Men Assaulted and Stabbed By a Crowd of Toughs.

Nine Men are Now Under Arrest for the Crime.

Sheriff Eikenbary received a dispatch from Cedar Creek last night, stating that two men had been stabbed by a gang of roughs. He left here this morning and arrived there early enough to find them all napping.

A gang of seven men, who had been spending their time and all their money at Louisville last Saturday night "bawling up," were on their way home, all badly intoxicated, with a keg of beer and other liquor in their buggy. They created considerable disturbance as they drove along, and attracted the attention of an old farmer by the name of Bauer, who lives about two miles west of Louisville. He opened his door to learn the cause of the noise and was rather roughly insulted by the hooting crowd. After passing the house a short distance, the whole gang returned and accused the old man of firing a gun at them. They could not take no for an answer and were apparently bent on fighting. When he saw that they were too crazy to listen any argument, and were about ready to seize him, he picked up a piece of iron and struck one of the roughs over the head, knocking him down. He was seized by three of the men, knocked down, stabbed in the face and back and jumped upon. His son, who had retired for the night, hearing the noise, rushed to his father's assistance in his night clothes, and being in his bare feet, could not stand much show with such a crowd. He was knocked down and while falling, stabbed through the arm by one of the gang. Their names are Bauer, the father is 56 years of age, and the son about 27.

The gang is employed in a stone quarry near Cedar Creek, and are noted toughs in that locality. One of them is supposed to be a murderer who has escaped from the east.

Sheriff Eikenbary arrived this morning with the whole party and lodged them in jail here. Following are the names: Andrew Raub, John Hagel, Rodolph Long, Harman Horning, Frank Nereded, Theodore Stolk, George Stoller and Joe Broadback, who were brought with the gang, were arrested there for assault and battery on C. M. Dietzel.

—A young lady known as "Cady," who has worked as a domestic for several Plattsmouth ladies for a short time at each place, surprised one with whom she has made her home for the last few days, by her sudden disappearance and without leaving any notice or information regarding her intentions. The lady she left so unceremoniously, discovered that she had carried away some of her clothing and she, rightly suspecting that she was about to leave the city, immediately went to the depot in quest of the girl. She found her there making preparations for a trip to Burlington. When the lady inquired for her clothes, the girl denied having them and said that she had left them at a house in the city. When she insisted on her accompanying her to the place, she was told that she had them on. The irate woman immediately demanded her to relieve herself of the burden, which she did after seeking a secluded quarter, and went on her way rejoicing although a little disappointed at being obliged to continue her journey minus a couple of skirts and some other clothing.

—The B. of L. F., who have notified us that they are still "on top," are now making preparations for another grand ball. If stationary seats are not put in the opera house, it will be used for their dance. They have selected for their date, Thanksgiving evening, and we trust that success may attend their efforts. It will be remembered by the many lovers of the dance here that all balls given under the auspices of the B. of L. F. in the past have been the most successful every time.

—The Beatrice base ball club, now claims the championship of the state, has agreed to play the team of this city for a purse of $200, next Friday. Our club will then be in a better condition than it has for some time past, as Mr. Tom Patterson, their pitcher, who sprained his ankle in a game a short time ago, will be able to hold down his box that day. As there will be a purse of $200 to play for, it will still make the game more interesting.

—Mr. H. A. Waterman & Son have erected substantial bill boards at the foot of Main street, near the B. & M. depot, which are to be rented in the future to the theatrical companies and shows.

—Ed Cinnamon, a boy about eleven years of age, accidentally shot himself while out hunting. The ball entered his shoulder under the left arm.

—Carruth's canning factory has received a car load of cans today which are to be used for corn and tomatoes.

Itch, Prairie Mange, and Scratches of every kind cured in 30 minutes by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. A sure cure and perfectly harmless. Warranted by F. G. Fricke & Co. druggist, Plattsmouth

C. B. Wilson of the HERALD's office made us a very pleasant call last Saturday as he was traveling through here in the interests of the HERALD. We are pleased with the acquaintance and his pleasant genial manners are sure to win success wherever he goes.

Mr. William Minford, the eldest son of R. J. Minford one of our oldest citizens, and Miss Allie J. Hall, a highly accomplished and most estimable daughter of Hon. Jas. Hall who is well known throughout this county, were married at the home of the bride on Wednesday evening. The event was a very quiet affair, only immediate relatives were present. Mr. Minford has secured by his frugal industry a good farm with a neat little cottage upon it where he took his bride to begin life anew at once.

Colonel Jenkins and employee were engaged threshing out some grass seed with flail which seemed to be quite a curiosity to all who came along. The first who drove up was Samuel Barker, he walked up to show the boys how to work, he pounded away for a while, the preparation rolled down his face and he remarked "Pooh, this is to hard work for me," and walked off. Several others came along and gave the boys considerable lip. Finally Frank Carruth's sewing machine agent drove up and asked "Hello, boys, what are you doing there?" and the Colonel answered him, "Oh, we are pounding out a ticket for Grover Cleveland this fall. ONE OF MANY.

A good many of our people are going to the Omaha fair this week. And some are going to Columbus, Ohio, the last of the week.

The republican club met Saturday night for a business meeting, and will meet next Saturday night when we expect some Nebraska City speakers with us.

Saturday the 1st, the Union boys went to Murray to play the Murray base ball boys a game. When they got there the Murray boys were in Plattsmouth playing, so our boys were saved being beat; by chance our boys think they are players though. Ask M. U. Thomas how he likes to go Murray to umpire a ball game.

The day of the democratic state convention, there was a special train backed down here after the democratic delegation and waited here about half an hour for democrats and not one showed up, so you see, this is a poor place to come to hunt democrats; but at 3:30 p. m., the Dr. mustered up a crowd of four by taking Joshua Lynn in the crowd, to go to Lincoln. So what chance is there for Cleveland, if such a place as this can only muster three democrats.

Enough this time. 'Rah for Harrison and Morton.
