

Evening Herald.
PAPER OF THE CITY.

By Harry Dentist, Rockwood Building, No. 25.
Office in Gerling's Drug Store, West 5th and Granite, Telephone No. 42.
Carr & Smith, the Painless Dentists, Union Block, over Fricke's Drug Store, Plattsmouth.

CITY CORDIALS.
—The boys say that Joe Coolidge say a "scab."
—The train from the east passed through here this morning with a double-header.
—There were ten of Plattsmouth's citizens took advantage of the cheap rates to Columbus, Ohio.
—All members of Y. L. R. R. A. are requested to meet at the Reading Room, Tuesday evening, Sept. 11th, at 8 o'clock. By order of the president.
—The ladies aid society of the M. E. church will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the church. All the members are requested to be present.
—Mr. George Ballance, one of the striking engineers, passed through the city this morning pulling No. 5. He has secured a regular passenger run on one and two.

—Mr. E. H. Lambson, the old sexton who has attended the Oak Hill Cemetery for more than seven years, died this morning about 3 o'clock of Etyemia. He was over sixty years of age.
—A new threshing machine engine arrived in the city last Saturday night for Mr. Jake Vallery, jr. Many of the people who were on the street when it passed on its way to Mr. Vallery's farm, were surprised to see it climb the high school hill as rapidly as it did.
—Everybody is invited to come to the sociable at the M. E. church, Tuesday evening, as this is the last sociable of the year. Everybody is expected to come and have a good time. There will be a short program, after which ice cream and cake will be served. An admission fee of 10 cents will be charged.

—The Glee Club, consisting of Messrs. C. F. Whitney, H. C. Ritchie, Frank Dickson, Val Burkel and W. A. Derriek, will assist in the memorial service of Mr. John Shannon at the Episcopal church tomorrow afternoon. They have selected the beautiful anthems "He's Gone," and "Come Holy Spirit," for the occasion.
—Mrs. M. A. Fegan, mother of Mrs. H. C. Ritchie, has one of the far famed plants, the "night blooming series." The plant is at her home on Gold and Seventh street, and has two buds on it. It will bloom some time during this week. Lovers of flowers are invited to see it. Notice will be given of the time through this paper.

—Mr. Frank Carruth and family who have been recruiting at Denver and the many favorable resorts of that vicinity, returned home, feeling much refreshed after the pleasant trip. That city has become so fascinating to him that he has already purchased a residence there, and we believe that it is his intention to reside there permanently in the course of a year. He gives many favorable accounts of the city and its surroundings. We believe the place has also attracted the attention of a few more of our prominent citizens.

—As our space was crowded last Saturday, the obituary notice we were desirous of giving Mr. C. R. Simmons, who was accidentally shot last Wednesday, was omitted. The deceased was removed to Cedar Rapids on Friday, night after memorial services were held in the Odd Fellows hall. Mr. Simmons was well known in this city, having resided here for more than ten years. He proved himself to be a faithful mechanic in the harness shop of Mr. O. M. Streight for that length of time, and had been a brother of his employer, he could not have gained his confidence more, and the news of his death seemed to be a heavy blow to him. Mr. Simmons had just returned from an extensive western trip which he had taken for the purpose of recreation, and had opened up a shooting gallery in this city, in which he met his death. He had the good will of all who knew him, and was always favorably spoken of on account of his genial and generous disposition. The news of the accident created much excitement, and when the news of his death was spread over the city, his many friends experienced as sad a feeling as was ever known to any of them before. His brother, Mr. R. O. Simmons, of Cedar Rapids, was immediately sent for when it was learned that the accident was fatal, but he was unable to arrive here before his brother's death, making the shock still more severe to him. The deceased was born in Illinois and was about 48 years of age. He had two brothers and two sisters, his brothers living in Cedar Rapids and his sisters in Pennsylvania. Many friends in this city lent a helping hand to the unfortunate man before his death, but all of no avail. We extend to the bereaved relatives the sympathies of the entire community. The Odd Fellows order, of which he was a prominent member, took charge of the ceremonies here.

Death of an Old Citizen.
The news has already reached the ears of the majority of citizens in this city that Mr. John W. Shannon has passed away since our last publication. He has been confined to his home for about two weeks with typhoid fever, and for about half the time has been very low.
We reported last Saturday that there was no further hope for him. He died about 6 o'clock Saturday night. He is one of the oldest settlers of Plattsmouth, having resided here for about thirty years. At one time he was proprietor of a large livery business here, and he has gained for himself many friends in his straightforward business transactions and by various marks of generosity. It is said that while he owned a horse and a livery business, that a poor family was never charged for his services in any way for funeral necessities.
The news of his death created much sympathy among the old settlers and many of the young ones, and his demise is greatly regretted. He was born at Colbourne, Ontario, on the 5th of June, 1829, making him 59 years, 3 months and 3 days old at his death. The funeral will be under the management of the masonic order of this city, of which he was a prominent member, and will take place from his late residence on Pearl street, between Fourth and Fifth, tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, and proceed to the Episcopal church where a short service will be held by Rev. H. B. Burgess, after which the funeral will proceed to the Oak Hill cemetery where interment will take place. A large attendance is expected. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend.

The World.
J. Z. Little's World company played to a full house on Saturday night at Waterman's opera house. The famous play and the fascinating company still hold their reputation here. The scenery in every particular comes as near being perfection as any we have seen and the artists, every one, carried his or her part in a manner which presented nature in the full sense of the word. The audience was very appreciative and strongly encouraged the company in their work.
An improvement could be made on the aisle floors of the opera house which would be acceptable to both audiences and companies. The people of this city have grown into the habit of tardiness and when the aisle floors are so loose as they are at present, those who are on time and trying to hear the stage performers, find great annoyance on account of the noise. If a stationary or solid platform was placed under the seats, no doubt a number who now stay away on account of inconvenience, would attend.

PERSONALS.
Mr. Frank Dickson spent Sunday at Elmwood.
Mr. J. Burg, of the Council Bluffs steam laundry, was in the city today on business.
Mr. Jas. Pollock, who is now a resident of Lincoln, spent Sunday at his home here.
Capt. Palmer left for Columbus, Ohio, last Saturday night to attend the national G. A. R. encampment being held there.
Mrs. Milo Drew, who has been the guest of her nephew, Mr. Byron Drew, of this city, returned to her home at Oxford, Saturday.
J. P. Falter and wife, from near Culham, left for Lincoln this morning to attend the state fair. They will also visit a few days at Fairmont before returning home.
Mr. J. E. Robins, who formerly resided in this city for a short time, giving instructions in all kinds of fine painting, but who now lives at Nebraska City, spent Sunday here with his friends.
—Mr. Latham, ticket agent at the B. & M. depot, is endeavoring to secure a special for the accommodation of the democrats of this burg who wish to attend their anticipated great rally at Glenwood on Thursday evening next. Mr. Francis, it is reported, wants a guarantee, and it is not known whether one will be given. Twenty tickets falling to the lot of one man under similar circumstances a shot time ago, has rather depreciated the value of guarantees in the democratic market.
—All who wish to "take in" the Siege of Sebastopol at Omaha and return home the same night, are requested to hand in their names to Mr. J. P. Young. A special will be run and tickets will be sold at $1.25 for the round trip including the admission to the Siege. Already a large number have handed in their names.

—The republican rally held at Cedar Creek last Saturday night was well attended. Sales hall was crowded to its utmost capacity. A procession with more than sixty tarches was headed by a band.
—C. K. King, general traveling passenger agent for the Denver & Rio Grande R. R., passed through the city this morning en route to Columbus, Ohio, to attend the national encampment of the G. A. R., being held there.

Rock Bluffs.
Our fall term of school began last week on Monday, and is taught by Mr. D. W. Curtis.
A festival was held at the Methodist church last Friday night for the benefit of the Sunday school. The receipts were about sixteen dollars.
Mrs. J. B. Holmes and Mrs. F. Young jr., returned on Saturday Sept. 1st, from their visit to New York state. They think the Blue Ridge mountains in old Delaware county look tougher than ever.
The Carroll's threshing machine has been in the neighborhood the past week threshing out the small grain. Nearly everyone is much disappointed in the yield of their grain. Four different pieces of wheat were threshed out and one of them yielded over five bushels to the acre. The oats yielded from fourteen to nineteen bushels to the acre. This confirms the old adage that a farmer is only sure of one thing, and that is disappointment.

Call for Republican Primaries.
The republican elections of Cass Co., Neb., are requested to meet in their respective wards and precincts on Saturday Sept. 22nd, 1885, to elect delegates to a convention to be held in Louisville, on the 6th day of October, 1888, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the following offices:

M. D. POLK, Chairman.
R. S. WILKINSON, Secretary.

Neat Laundry Work.
All parties desiring to have cheap and neat laundry work done can do so by leaving it at this office. The work will be sent from here Wednesday mornings to the Council Bluffs Steam Laundry and return by Saturday evening. All work is guaranteed to be first class and at the lowest price. Those desiring to send any clothes should have them at the office Tuesday evening.
Card of Thanks.
Mr. R. O. Simmons desires us to thank the members of the encampment No. 3 and Platte Lodge, No. 7 of this city, for the kindness extended by them during the sickness of his brother, and also all other friends of his deceased brother who manifested their willingness to assist, in whatever way they could be of any service, to the deceased during his short sickness.

Republican Meeting Tonight.
A special meeting of the Young Men's Republican Club will be held at the county court house this evening at 8 o'clock. All members of the club are earnestly requested to be present, as business of importance will be transacted. By order of the president,
JOHN A. DAVIES.

Charles Dickens' Reporterial Methods.
It was my good fortune when a resident of England to form the acquaintance of the great master of novelists, Charles Dickens. I picked him up from the street just as he had been knocked down by a cab and was in danger of being run over by another. He was at the time, as he always was, a reporter. That night I tramped with him through the worst slums of London. He told me his business, and in some way we became friends, and often after that I accompanied him on his night walks. Many characters that I saw on these excursions have peered at me since then from the pages of his novels. One thing that impressed me about Dickens was that he never took notes. I never saw him with a pencil in his hand, nor did he seem to be paying any attention whatever to what was going on around him; yet in the newspaper articles that make up the complete volumes of "Sketches by Boz" I recognized that every scene, sound or incident of the trip had been indelibly impressed upon his wonderful mind.
—Henry Manistie in Globe-Democrat.

The Patrol Wagon's Exhibition.
The "hurry up" wagon, as the boys call it, might be improved. One day last week a great crowd cheered and ran after it as it clattered along Fifth avenue. There was a drunken woman in the wagon, and she presented a sickening spectacle. It was this that attracted the immense crowd. It is horrible to witness two or three policemen dragging a drunken woman to the station house. The wagon shortens the exhibition. But why make an exhibition? A cover could be provided, with leather curtains which could be pulled down. The moral effect would be worth the price of a thousand curtains. Does any sensible man think it improves the chances of a boy to haul him up into the wagon and place him where all eyes can see him? A plainer, more palpable error was never made. We need not sneer at the generation that nurtured the pillory as long as we use patrol wagons without covers.—Pittsburg Bulletin.

The Tongues of Castle Garden.
A polyglot scholar from Yale college who visited Castle Garden one day when several ship loads of immigrants had just been landed there managed to converse with the speakers of ten different languages—German, Bohemian, Gaelic, Swedish, French, Italian, English, Spanish, Polish and mongrel Greek—but he could not master a half dozen other tongues in the months of several small groups that stood or huddled in the depot, including Russian Jews of the Rabbi Joseph type, Armenians from Stamboul, and Finns. When he left Castle Garden he said he felt as if he had been in the Tower of Babel, where the speech of the human race had been confounded so that men understood not each other, as recorded in the Book of Genesis.—New York Sun.

Thousands of Peculiar Cats.
Queensland, in the South seas, is being overrun by thousands of peculiar cats. It is supposed they are following the plague of rats which recently passed through there. The noteworthy fact is that the cats, which are of ordinary size and of the domestic species, are all pretty near of the same color, namely, sandy, which proves that they have reverted to the original stock. They are in very poor condition, showing that their migration is due to the scarcity of their habitual food.—Chicago Herald.

Stepped on His Nose.
The other day a couple of newboys were standing on a Boston street when the nose of one of them stepped on the tip of the nose of the other, with the result of a severe encounter with an ambulance of his guild. A sympathetic old gentleman, noticing the deplorable condition of the game's prominent nasal protuberance, timely inquired the name of its carrier, whereupon the victim's companion explained: "Bully stepped on his nose." "Yes," added the sufferer, "with both feet."—Boston Edgemoor.
