CITY CORDIALS.

A defeat by 28,000 majority and everything republican is now the main trouble of the democrats.

Sheriff Eikenbary brought a man to the city this morning from Cedar Creek, charged with assault and battery by a Mr. D. S. Draper, of that place.

Rev. W. B. Alexander united Mr. Hugh Boyd and Mrs. Ella Boyd in the holy bonds of matrimony, at the parsonage this morning, at 11 o'clock. They are both residents of Iowa.

A human skull and several bones were unearthed this morning by some of the men who are engaged in digging the sewer in the vicinity of the B. & M. depot. They were found at a depth of about six feet.

It is reported that the railroad company will build a new sewer to connect with the main sewer now being built by the city. It will pass south of the depot to the river and connect with the city sewer immediately west of their track.

The funeral of the late John W. Shannon takes place this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The ceremonies will be conducted under the direction of the Masonic fraternity of this city, of which he was a prominent member. A full report tomorrow.

Another valuable addition to the population of our growing town is in the person S. P. Newcomb of Humeston, Ia. Mr. Newcomb has rented the first floor of the Anheuser-Busch building and by Oct. 1st, will open up a fine stock of clothing and boots and shoes. We tender him the welcome of our people.

Mr. Joe Klein, of Corning, Ia., arrived in the city this morning and has found the prosperous little city of Plattsmouth attractive enough to permanently locate here. We believe it is his intention to open up a first-class clothing house and gents furnishing establishment. He has rented the store recently vacated by Solomon & Nathan, and will thoroughly renovate the building, both upstairs and below. He intends to carry the most extensive stock in the city, and keep everything in a first-class style. He leaves this afternoon for Chicago to make purchases, and he will have his store opened up and ready for business by the 1st of October. If opposition can be the life of trade, surely Plattsmouth will soon "loom up."

NEHAWKA.

The Infant Town on The M. P. R. R. TRIMMER.

Nestled in the beautiful valley of the Weeping Water twenty-two miles south-west of Plattsmouth on the Main line of the M. P. R. R. is the little burg of Nehawka, in the center of a country noted for corn, fine blooded stock, well improved farms, and as hospitable and highly cultured a class of people as any country is blessed with. Nehawka is a business place of no little importance, her receipts show up with many of her sister towns and would do credit to some that are much larger than herself. One has only to visit this thriving little town to see the habit of industry.

The beautiful sloping hills decked with fine residences adds greatly to the appearance of the country, so much so that the people seem to be inspired with a love of their country and take pride in arranging their homes in the best possible manner. The business men of Nehawka are fully abreast with the times and have mettle that counts in the affairs of life.

There was no reception committee prepared to receive us, for they had no warning of our coming, but we stole silently into the little village and began our labor. We found that the news of Tim Trimmer's arrival had spread and it was soon heralded from house to house.

Owing to the busy day the crowd could not come forth to welcome us. On every hand was visible the fact that Nehawka was a live place, as every man seemed to be too busy to talk a great length of time.

Not long after arriving in the city we called on Mr. Frank Sheldon, the pioneer merchant and one of the leading business men of Nehawka. Mr. Sheldon erected the first business building there last March, since then he has occupied it as a general store, and enjoys a good trade.

Marshall Bros., hardware merchants, have just recently opened their store and the prospect is very flattering.

A. F. Sturn, lumber dealer, carries a full line of the very best grades and is fast gaining patronage.

O. P. Smith & Co., of Plattsmouth, have just opened a drug store in the new brick building of C. H. Parmele & Co. The main part of the above building is to be occupied by the Nehawka bank and will be in charge of Charlie Parmele. The people of Nehawka and surrounding country may well be proud of this new enterprise.

J. C. Williams is the efficient blacksmith and has erected a fine store building which is a credit to any town. Mr. Williams is said to be equal to any man in the state in his line of work, and has invented several contrivances that will doubtless prove a fortune to him. He recently disposed of one patent for $2,500.

L. C. Pollard is the accommodating postmaster, having acted in this capacity since the office was first established in 1875.

The two elevators are doing a heavy business; their shipments run high. One is controlled by Kirkpatrick & Banning, the other by J. E. Parkins.

Peter Opp runs a meat market and is doing a good business.

A. D. Barden handles a good stock of pumps and wind mills.

H. C. Williams is a young man of push and determination who has erected a new building and launched out as a barber. Mr. Williams also wields the paint brush and when not engaged at the shop will be found working in that line.

J. D. McBride, dealer in stock; E. E. Baldwin, station agent; B. F. Marve, contractor and builder; Dr. Pollard is a young physician of excellent ability and is fast gaining a splendid practice.

Miss Lottie Pollard, an experienced teacher, will have charge of the Nehawka schools the coming year.

M. D. Pollard, painter; Miss Effie Taylor, music teacher.

Several new dwellings are in course of construction, and reflect credit on those building them. Among the larger and more substantial are those of Mrs. A. P. Weston, at a cost of $3,000; and that of Jas. Binning and others.

Adjoining town on the south is the fine home of Hon. Lawrence Sheldon, one of the oldest and wealthiest citizens in the county. Mr. Sheldon owns over 5,000 acres of land in this and Otoe counties.

To the north of town lays the fine farm of the Hon. S. M. Kirkpatrick. In fact, the town site is part of Mr. K.'s farm which was donated by that gentleman as an inducement to locate the town there.

We feel under obligations to Mr. K. for the kind assistance rendered in our behalf. We took dinner at his pleasant home, where we enjoyed a good meal and shall remember the courtesies shown us. Mr. K. has one of the most complete libraries in the county, and a fine collection of geological specimens which he kindly showed us. He has also large parlors where many evenings are spent by the young folks in social gatherings.

Miss Mary Kirkpatrick informed us that the young people of that neighborhood had a well organized Chatauqua circle with a membership of eighteen.

But we must return to our subject—Nehawka. She has fine fire clay for making brick and a yard will be opened there soon. They are also promised a new ten thousand dollar flouring mill in the spring. A United Brethren church is well under way.

When we take into consideration the fact that Nehawka is a mere infant, being yet under one year old, we were surprised to visit the town and see the strides she has taken in the way of progress.

Cass County Fair.

Our fair occurs on Sept. 18th to 21st, 1888. This is the 22nd annual fair of the Cass County Agricultural Society, and from the present indications will be the best and the largest attended fair ever held in the county.

A few men composing the Cass County Driving Park Association, with A. B. Todd, Pres., H. C. Ritchie, Sec'y., and R. B. Windham, Treas., purchased thirty-six acres of ground south of the city and fitted up one of the finest tracks to be found in the state; and leased the same to the agricultural society for ten years at the nominal sum of $1.00 per year.

These men have done this as citizens of Plattsmouth and vicinity, simply for the benefit of the agricultural society, and for the purpose of increasing the interest of all lovers of horses and display of products raised in our country. But our citizens who have not contributed to this most commendable enterprise should take an active part in the coming fair, make a display of their merchandise on the grounds; and by word, act and deed, do all in their power to help. Every citizen of Plattsmouth is deeply interested, and the word should go all along the line. "Whoop her up."

Let our business men close up their stores on Thursday and Friday afternoon, Sept. 20th and 21st, the big days of the fair week and give the fair managers two of the best days held at a Cass county fair.

SCHOOL CHILDREN'S DAY.

Wednesday Sept. 19th, will be school children's day, and all school children of Cass county will be admitted free. This is one of the annual picnics always offered by the society to the little folks, and one that they always appreciate perhaps better than the older members of the family. Arrangements will be made with the school board to let the children attend on that day.

The new art hall, built jointly by the society and some of our business men, is a handsome structure and is an ornament to our grounds and city; it is now being finished up and will be immediately painted by O. P. Smith & Co. The lumber was furnished by Johnson Bros.; the hardware by Johnson Bros.; and the work has been done under the supervision of contractor W. H. Pickens.

The speed ring will be full to overflowing and the coming fair will witness some of the best races ever seen in Cass county.

Disappeared.

The relatives of Charles Collins, of Plattsmouth, are very much concerned over his disappearance. He has been visiting his brother-in-law, L. C. Iryin, 2710 Seward street, and Sunday evening about 6 o'clock he started to call on the family of George Tutbury, living at 1309 Webster. Mr. Tutbury's family were absent at the time, but the neighbors saw a man answering the description of Collins, knock on the front door and then leave. Since then he has not been seen. He had $300 on his person and foul play is feared.—Omaha Herald.

Charles Collins, to whom the above piece makes reference, is well known in this city, having resided here for some time and worked in the B. & M. shops as a machinist. He is a son-in-law of Mr. Nelson Jean, a prominent farmer living near the city. He has always been a very steady young man and much respected by all who know him. He accompanied by his wife left for Omaha a few days ago to visit with relatives. The news of his disappearance has created considerable excitement here. Mr. Jean, his father-in-law, left for Omaha this morning to investigate the matter thoroughly.

Republican Club Meeting.

The meeting of the Young Men's Republic held at the county clerk's office last night was well attended. A committee was appointed to ascertain whether the required number of names could be obtained to secure a special train and reduced rates to Malvern on the evening of the 14th, so that those wishing to attend the rally held there could return home the same evening.

They have decided on holding a grand rally in this city on the 13th of October, and a committee was appointed to make arrangements for it.

The club unanimously objected to the action taken by the county central committee a short time ago, in the appointment of delegates to the float convention without authority, and considerable dissatisfaction was manifested by the club.

The democrats have lost their Maine strength and they only have their awkwardness to fall back on now.

A large stock of Gents furnishings of the latest styles can now be seen at Elson's, the One Price Clothier.

COUNCIL MEETING.

Report of city clerk was read and referred to finance committee. Report of police judge was read and referred to committee on police. Bill of W. H. Mallick referred to committee on police.

Councilman Shipman reporting for judiciary committee on ordinance 83 said he found the original ordinance had been signed by the mayor and evidently passed at a meeting on March 26, but no mention was made of it in the clerk's record. The matter was referred to the city attorney to decide if the ordinance would need repealing.

Board of public works made application to the council for authority to order work begun immediately on the paving. Authority was granted.

A resolution was introduced and adopted authorizing the appointment of two more regular police and the discharge of the specials.

Mr. Dutton moved that the board of public works be authorized to have a sewer laid in the alley north of Main St. between Second and Third streets. Motion passed.

A resolution transferring the balance on several funds, the debts for which they were created being paid, to the Doye fund, was presented and passed.

Mr. McCallen moved the committee on streets alleys and bridges be instructed to watch the creeks and order the marshal to remove any bulky material that could be washed by the water for the protection of the sewer. Adjourned.

Methodist Social.

The ladies of the M. E. church extend a cordial invitation to the public to attend their social entertainment at the church this evening. As this is the last social for the present conference year they are hopeful of a large attendance. Refreshments will be served at the close. The following is the program:

Song—Quartette, Messrs. Gentle Stream.
Misses Martin and Strick; Messrs. Mutz and Rankin.
Recitation, Miss Jessie Niles.
Duet, Messrs. Harp of the Windes.

Duet, Where are the Palms of Zion?
Mrs. Loverin and Mr. Dixon.

BLAINE'S VOICE.

Oh democrats again,
Do you hear the refrain
Echoed from way off Maine?
It comes again and again,
Like the refreshing rain,
Over mountain, valley and plain,
'Tis the assuring voice of Blaine,
The nation hears it quite plain.
Old England pleads in vain
Our industries and pockets to drain
At the expense of the working men.
All hail! to Blaine and Maine.

The special train which was pulled from here this morning enroute for Lincoln did not secure the crowd many expected to see. As it was the only special which will be run to Lincoln for the accommodation of the public who wish to attend the state fair and return the same night it was thought that Plattsmouth would turn out in a large number.
