A DARK SECRET.

Suspicious Actions Connected With Bothol's Case.

There is an undercurrent of dark rumors about the case of one Rotholz, who was arrested late Sunday night as a suspicious character. Rotholz was a meanly clad fellow but on his person was found $511, and this with his sneaking air and evasive answers have made the police believe that they have captured a most dangerous crook. He is suspected of connection with the disappearance of Charles Collins on Sunday night, and the fact that the amount of money on his person was about the same as that carried by Collins only makes the suspicions stronger. The police could get no positive proof of his connection with the affair, but they still believe that Collins has been murdered by some one for his money and they apprehend that Rotholz carries the secret of the crime in his breast. On putting up $475 as security, Rotholz was released Monday to appear for trial at 2 p. m. yesterday. At that hour Bennett, his attorney, appeared in court, but Rotholz had disappeared. Bennett, however, had a note signed by Rotholz asking the court to turn the $475 over to his attorney. This, of course, the judge refused to do as there was a strong suspicion of something wrong about the transaction. Before this, Bennett had approached Will Gurley, the assistant district attorney, and offered to spend $100 in helping Gurley politically if that gentleman would assist him in getting the $475 from the judge. Gurley most flatly refused the bribe. The police believe that Rotholz made a full confession of his crime to Bennett and that the attorney managed to get out of him the order for the money by threats of exposure.—Omaha Bee.

Mrs. Collins and father returned from Omaha last night. The anxiety which the disappearance of her husband caused her, has been a severe blow. Detectives are at work in the matter.

PERSONALS.

Mr. Byron Clark is in Omaha today on business.
Mrs. A. C. Clark is in Omaha today visiting friends.
Mr. G. B. Kempster was a passenger to Lincoln this morning.
Mr. M. Beckman and family were passengers to Lincoln. They will visit the state fair.
Mr. Geo. O. Wright, of Pacific Junction, was in the city today shaking hands with his friends.
Mr. George Pease, formerly in the employ of C. E. Wescott here, was in the city yesterday visiting his friends.
Mrs. N. E. Sage took her departure for Lincoln this morning. She will visit her niece at that city for a few days.
Mr. W. J. Warrick took his departure for Denver this morning that he may regain his health by a little recreation.
J. G. Hayes, better known as Father Hayes, an old time resident of this city, has gone east on a few weeks' visit with friends in Ohio.
Mr. C. P. Smith and wife accompanied their daughter, who has been visiting them for a few days, to Lincoln this morning. Miss Smith is a teacher in the schools there, and her father and mother will reside in that city permanently.
—There will be a meeting of the W. C. T. U. Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. S. A. Davis. Important business to be transacted. All members requested to be present.
—The largest turnout of Masons seen in this city was witnessed yesterday afternoon at the funeral of their brother, John W. Shannon. There were about thirty knights and over eighty members of the blue lodge in the cortege. Promptly at 3 o'clock the corpse was removed from his late residence to the church, followed by the B. & M. band, Masons and a large number of friends. The church was filled to its utmost capacity. Rev. H. B. Burgess conducted the services and the glee club assisted in the service by rendering two anthems in a very affective style.
—A challenge was received from the manager of the Beatrice base ball club by Mr. James Patterson for a game, to be played on Tuesday next, the 18th, for $100 a side, the same as the previous game. They allowed our team their choice of ground, and we learned that the boys have accepted the challenge, and the game will be played on the Plattsmouth grounds. This game, it is expected, will be for blood, as the Beatrice men are all sore headed over the loss of the championship, and the boys here will be obliged to play ball as they will surely be loaded and come prepared in every way. The attendance will, beyond a doubt, be the largest ever seen on the grounds this season, as the last match has created much interest in the coming game. The boys think if the visitors bring the same team with them, that they will hold them as level as they did before. Let there be a full turnout to witness the game of this season.

Union.

The weather is fine, business is good and the town is building up rapidly.
The hotel changed hands today, Mr. Bristol will run a first class house—one that will be an honor to our town.
Mr. McShane is having the grounds cleared off and expects to put up a large hotel. It will be handsomely located on the hill, and will be quite a resort for many who wish to retire from the many cares and enjoy the fresh breezes of the Weeping Water valley.
Quite a number of our Union people went to Omaha to the fair and to see the Siege of Sebastopol. Many more are expected to attend the state fair.
The Baptist church is going up rapidly. The Presbyterians are slower as their will be a large brick church.
Dr. Wallace's house will soon be ready for occupation. The Dr. will have a very handsome home and he and his wife will know how to enjoy it. I think they will have to have a house warming, don't you?
Mr. Christopher Gilchrist, a brother of Mrs. E. W. Bammy, came in on the morning train. Mrs. Bammy had not seen her brother for fourteen years.
I'm, Sept. 6th, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tinney. The first girl born in Union.
Mr. Henry DuBoise, from New York, has been visiting in the community.
Saturday our base ball nine went over the river to McPaul to play with their nine and beat them 20 to 7. Our Union boys play very well for not playing more than they do.
Lynn and the elevator men are buying and shipping a great amount of grain.
Tinney is shipping several car-loads of hogs.
Among the things we are in need of is a bank and a mill. We have the best water-power on the Weeping water for a mill.

A Newly Married Couple

The following conversation, as near as our memory will serve in recalling, was indulged in by a newly married couple of this city only a few days since. The man apparently assumed the part of a dutiful husband since the marriage, and for some time he showed signs of a lonely feeling when his wife would signify her intention of spending a few days with his friends at a distance:
"Dear F——, I have been thinking of taking a short vacation to visit a friend of mine at Council Bluffs. Are you willing that I should go?"
"That lonely would apparently return, and she has so far humored her husband.
The state fair which is being held at Lincoln became an attraction for Mr. F., but if he should attend it, he thought the only way for her to go would be alone. The thought struck him that his wife wanted to spend a few days at Council Bluffs and, as he thought, every difficulty could easily be removed so that he could "take in" Lincoln and have a time.
He told her by various hints that this would be the best week for her to visit, and when she would not accept the hint, a blunt request was hurled, "Why not visit your friend now, I would manage to survive in a way until your return." She was then even pleaded with to accept his advice, but there was an unwelcome answer returned to the defeated hubby each time. She did not care to go now, and the matter was not settled until he plainly explained his desire, when it was finally agreed between them that they should each go their way for a time.

A Rare Plant.

Last evening at the residence of Mrs. M. A. Fegan, on Gold and Seventh streets, we witnessed something not often seen in the horticultural line. It was the double blooming of a Night Blooming Cereus. This is the third time the plant has bloomed and the first time it has blossomed two flowers at once.
It is one of the most beautiful plants it has ever been our pleasure to see. The nature of the plant is a species of the cactus and it only blooms once a year. The flowers start from the edge of a thin leaf, and when in full bloom are ten inches in diameter, exhaling a rare fragrance. Mrs. Fegan certainly has a treasure.

—A quiet wedding occurred at the Episcopal Church last evening about 8 o'clock, the contracting parties being Mr. W. Crowther, of the office of Mr. D. Haworth, and Miss L. Gough, who, a few days ago, arrived from England. Only a few of the most intimate friends of the bride and groom were informed in the matter, but the news leaked out among some of the noisy young men this city is infested with, and a general good time was had by the crowd for about five hours until dawn was about to break. All the old pans and noisy instruments obtainable were brought in to service. They found the house containing the newly married couple after considerable trouble, and were evidently bent on procuring "the cigars" for their work, but they took their departure when they thought no recompense was in store for them. The residents of Winterstein hill were all aroused by the racket. The name "nasty western savages" was attached to the mob.

A CARD.

Having this day sold my stock of Hardware, Stoves, Tinware, etc., to Messrs. Brekendel & Weidman, I would respectfully and earnestly ask that all those in my debt come forward promptly and settle their accounts; as it will be necessary for me to close up my business as speedily as possible before engaging in other pursuits. I also take this occasion to thank the public, both in the city and county, for the very liberal patronage given me during the time I have been engaged in business here, and hope the same will be extended to my successors. They accompanied the excursionists to Lincoln where they have been engaged to participate in tomorrow's exercises. A large trades procession will be held there tomorrow, which will be the most prominent fair day. The band is gaining a wide reputation and we wish them still further success that they may do themselves and the city proud.
—THE HERALD read with curiosity and amusement the local in Monday's Journal, of this city, in which that paper publishes a purported interview with William Edgerton jr., "an employe of the Water Co.," and upon invitation called upon Mr. Edgerton this morning to know what the facts were, having learned that he had not been absent from Plattsmouth this summer and that he was not in the employement of the Water Co. Mr. Edgerton says he has not been in Indiana or Ohio since last winter and long prior to the nomination of Mr. Harrison; that he does not personally know what the sentiment, in those states, is on the presidential question and that the Journal had no authority, from him, to publish what it did, as he is not an adviser on the political outlook. Thus fades out another purported "National Cleveland" and
