CITY CORDIALS.

Rags.—Cotton rags wanted at this office.
Remember the social given to-night by the W. R. C. at the residence of H. C. McMakin.
Everybody is cordially invited to attend the melon social this evening at the residence of H. C. McMakin.
The B. & M. band, which has had an engagement at Lincoln for the past two days, returned home this morning.
The ladies of the M. E. church are requested to meet at the church Saturday afternoon at three o'clock. Business of importance to attend to.
Don't forget the grand concert given by the Y. P. S. C. E. next Monday night. Program will be in tomorrow's paper. Admission only 10 cents.
The family of Mr. John Glenn took their departure for Lincoln last evening. They will reside in that city permanently as Mr. Glenn is stationed at that place by the B. & M. company, which has afforded him a lucrative situation.

Rapid progress is now being made on the sewer work and if everything will be as favorable as it now looks, its completion is nearer at hand than it was at first anticipated, and, as Mr. Shelton remarked yesterday, "they will be in clover."

Two more victims were secured last night who paid fines of $2 and trimmings each to Judge Clifford this morning. The assessment on the bums of late has increased the city finances considerably. The names of the tax payers are George Olden and J. F. King.

The Lincoln state fair has been well patronized by Iowans. Trains filled, so that seating accommodation could not be secured for all passengers, have passed through the city each morning en route for Lincoln. All who have attended from here speak in favorable terms of the exposition this season and say that it has improved on previous exhibitions. Today is the last day.

The horse which was drowned in the sewer yesterday was owned by Mr. Frank Hitt. It could have been saved had the men started to work in time, but the thinking the crowd was obliged to do before a move could be made occupied the time which should have been put to good advantage in helping the unfortunate animal. One of the team was pulled out in time to escape serious injury.

Miss Birdie Irish entertained a number of her young lady friends last evening at her home. A very pleasant time was had, and they succeeded in stitching a beautiful crazy quilt before taking their departure. Refreshments of the most inviting styles were served, and all partook of a hearty repast. The following young ladies were present: Misses Birdie Irish, May and Annie Russell, Annie Murphy, Maggie Streight, Lelia Thomas, Lou Richey, Ollie Mathews, Irene Patterson, Kate Robbins, Ollie Jones, Maggie O'Rourke and Mate Safford.

An ad. appears on this page informing the citizens that the sewer contractors are now prepared to put in all private sewer connections with the main sewer. While this opportunity is now open, and while the work can be done with little expense, all should take advantage of it as soon as possible. The sewer men are anxious to rush their work through, as the paving on the street will be commenced shortly. It is necessary that this work should be attended to at once. Private sewers can be put in at a moderate price, and it is an accommodation that every house should have.

Already more than the required number of tickets have been signed for at J. P. Young's bookstore by those wishing to attend the Siege of Sebastopol at Omaha tonight to secure the special train. The excursionists will leave by the regular K. C. train at 6:17, and return by a special after the performance is concluded. The fare for the round trip has been reduced to the sum of $1.25 including the admission ticket to the Siege. As this is the last week of the performance in Omaha, and perhaps the last time as favorable an opportunity will be offered to witness anything of the kind, the citizens here should take advantage of it. It is reported by those who have seen the illustration that it far surpasses anything they had ever seen of the kind before, and the fireworks used in the display were simply immense. Tonight the fireworks which are to be used will cost over $1000, and it is expected that this will be the most extensive production yet. As the trip, including all expenses, can be made for the small sum of $1.25, it is expected that many more than those who have already handed in their names will go when the time comes.

PERSONALS.

J. V. Eigenberger is in Omaha today on business.
Miss Mabel Pottenger was an Omaha passenger this morning.
Mr. Chas. Campbell and wife are spending the day at Omaha.
Mr. Philip Kraus, a prominent fruit dealer of this city, left for St. Joe this morning on business.
Mr. John Waterman and wife are in Omaha today. They will remain over for the special this evening.
Miss Ollie Gass went over to Glenwood last evening to visit her friend, Miss Ida Goodell, and see the rally.
Mr. L. Moore was a passenger to Omaha this morning. He will remain over and take in the Siege of Sebastopol this evening.
Misses Erana and Ella Wright are spending the day in Omaha. They will remain there to attend the Siege of Sebastopol this evening and return on the special.
Mr. J. S. Buck, of Colfax, Washington Territory, who has been attending the National G. A. R. Encampment at Columbus, Ohio stopped off at this city on his return trip to visit his relatives living near the city. The G. A. R. vote in favor of Harrison stands about two to five.

South Bend.

It is astonishing how much grain is marketed here. We notice teams from near Louisville, Manley, Wabash, and from quite a distance over the river.

Our efficient democratic P. M., Mr. S. C. Patterson, has about decided that he will become a "permanent fixture" here for the next four years, but says he won't match dollars for the watermelons with any more republicans until after election.

W. A. Fowler is becoming quite an orator arguing the case of McShane, Cleveland & Co. with an eloquence born of despair.

J. G. Romine's fish pond is the all-absorbing topic of conversation these days—with Jennie R. He says if he can sell fish enough he will take in the State Fair.

Thirty-two tickets for Lincoln were sold here Tuesday.

Mr. E. E. Day has at last "jined" the procession and built his share of the sidewalk, and Dr. Kirk has become so enthusiastic that he is building a sidewalk for one of his neighbors.

Some of our folks are Spoons, and some are spoony.

Charles Barbee has taken advantage of the reduced fare and gone to the Buckeye State to enjoy himself awhile.

Prof. and Mrs. J. W. Berge left for Greenwood Wednesday evening where the Professor will superintend the wedding of the birch for the ensuing year.

Mr. G. Shives left for the east Tuesday evening, called home by a telegram announcing the serious illness of his father.

George McCain has his residence in Lincoln nearly completed and will move soon.

The name of Miss Riddle, of Wahoo, was omitted in last evening's issue in speaking of the applicants who were examined yesterday by Prof. Drummond. We have not learned yet what satisfaction has been given in the examination of the new teachers, and particulars will be given later. We believe the board has made a good selection and trust they may all prove themselves eligible.

Private Sewerage.

All parties desiring private sewerage connection with the main sewer, can be accommodated at any time, by addressing Haulins & Shelton, Sewer Contractors, P. O. box 1130, or by calling at the office, Murphy's store. 1m

A DEMOCRATIC DISPLAY.

Democracy Feasts at Glenwood—Francis Cleveland Clubs And Curious

Republicans in the Make-up.

The democrats held their rally at Glenwood last night and a large crowd attended from this city. A short march was made on Main street before the arrival of the 7:15 train. The B. & M. band was not present in the city, and consequently its services were greatly missed, not a sound of music being heard. After the procession marched to the depot, the boys' drum corps, of the G. A. R., furnished the crowd with two or three of their selections. The Francis Cleveland Club, a club of young ladies, which has recently been organized in the city, proved to be the main attraction, and apparently won the admiration of all. Their uniforms consisted of white dresses, a bandana sash and a white plug hat trimmed with bandana bands. There were about thirty in number, and as they marched on the depot platform, two abreast, they presented a very striking appearance. The organizers of the club deserve great credit for their good taste, as exhibited in various ways.

Col. Sherman, of the Journal, acted as captain for the company, but a mistake which he made by giving a false order, caused the young ladies much embarrassment for a time. He gave his command for them to march from the depot to where two cars (which he supposed awaited them) were standing, and was about to take possession of the train when he learned that it would soon pull out in the direction of Schuyler. Several smothered snickers were distinctly heard in the vicinity when C. W. learned that he had made quite a noticeable blunder which could not have been much appreciated by about thirty young ladies. The train did not arrive until about half an hour later than the usual time, necessitating a tiresome delay. Several republicans accompanied the democratic crowd, and they report that the rally was a grand success. It is thought by many, although no accurate estimate could easily be made of two as large crowds, that there was about the same number who attended the rally last night as was present during the republican blow out a short time ago. It is reported that the Glenwood people entertained the whole crowd with refreshments at the opera house. The tables extended around the room, the guests were seated on the outside of the tables, while the waiters performed their duty on the inside. The whole crowd was accommodated, they say, and still some of them say the crowd was about one third larger. The Glenwood people would be washing dishes yet, and still dishing up refreshments, if that were the case. There were three Francis Cleveland clubs present at the rally, and it is reported that they all were very much admired. In the march it is said that as good order was not kept, and also that the illuminations last night could not be compared with those during the republican rally.

The following young ladies composed the Francis Cleveland Club and attended the rally last night:

- Louise Engel, Mary Weckbach, Tressie Hempel, Annie Weckbach, Kate Hempel, Lee Riddle, Bertha Wise, Carrie Guth man, Maggie Oliver, Lena Weckbach, George Oliver, Ella Gabler, Crissie Gabler, Lizzie Kurtz, Natie Schlater, Selia Tartsch, Nora Gopen, Miss Murphy, Tillie Gopen, Estella Leach, Katie Siedenstricker, Mollie Cass, Mary Egan, May Matasch, Ella Murphy, Maud Vivian.

What is it?

The question is often asked, and the query propounded, that in 1884, the republicans who left the party and voted for Cleveland were named and have properly been called ever since, mugwumps; and now what name will be applied to the thousands of democrats that are joining in the glorious work of electing Harrison and Morton. Our answer is they are republicans; any other name we will leave to the democratic party to apply to the boys who are leaving the sinking craft of democracy.

Special Meeting.

The officers of the Agricultural Society, namely: Fred Gorder, A. B. Todd, R. B. Windham, Wm. Wettencamp and the Directors of same.

J. V. Weckbach, W. J. Hesser, Levi Churchill, J. Vallery, Jr., J. H. Becker, M. B. Murphy and W. D. Jones are requested to meet at the office of the Secretary, Saturday evening, September 15, at 7:30 o'clock, to consider matters of importance. H. C. RITCHIE, Sec'y. F. GORDER, Pres.

—Mr. Isaac McBrown, of Denver, telegraphed Mrs. Louis Young, who lives near the city, that their brother who is now at Denver, is lying at the point of death. The dispatch was sent to Mr. H. Boeck, who forwarded it immediately.

—The W. R. C. will give a melon sociable, Friday evening Sept. 14th, at the residence of Mr. H. C. McMakin. Everybody is cordially invited.

The Last Call.

All persons knowing their indebtedness to the late firm of Smith & Black, druggists, are requested for the last time to call at the store of O. P. Smith & Co. and settle with Mr. Chas. Black, assignee.

A CARD.

Having this day sold my stock of Hardware, Stoves, Tinware, etc., to Messrs. Brekenfeld & Weidmann, I would respectfully and earnestly ask that all those in my debt come forward promptly and settle their accounts; as it will be necessary for me to close up my business as speedily as possible before engaging in other pursuits. I also take this occasion to thank the public, both in the city and county, for the very liberal patronage given me during the time I have been engaged in business here, and hope the same will be extended to my successors. BAD BLOOD.

There is not one thing that puts a man or woman at such a disadvantage before the world as a vitiated state of the blood. Your ambition is gone. Your courage has failed. Your vitality has left you. Your languid step and listless actions show that you need a powerful invigorator, one bottle of Beggs' Blood Purifier and Blood Maker will put new life in a worn out system, and if it does not it will cost you nothing. O. P. Smith & Co., Druggists.

Our Suit Department is complete in all lines, Men's, Youth's Boy's and Children's suits. You miss it if you don't buy your clothing of Elson, The One-Price clothier.

When your skin is yellow. When your skin is dark and greasy. When your skin is rough and coarse. When your skin is inflamed and red. When your skin is full of blotches. When your skin is full of pimples you need a good blood medicine that can be relied upon. Beggs' Blood Purifier and Blood Maker is warranted as a positive cure for all of the above, so you cannot possibly run any risk when you get a bottle of this wonderful medicine. For sale by O. P. Smith & Co.

—Don't go to Omaha when you want to get your beautiful parlor and bed room sets but go to Henry Boeck's furniture emporium where you can get everything in the furniture line that will go to make your home beautiful and comfortable; and above all you can get it cheap. Remember that he who sells most can sell cheapest.
