

THE CITY.

CITY CORDIALS.

Miss May Kennedy is confined to her bed by sickness. Mrs. Geo. Dovey will open her Kindergarten school next Monday. A wedding which has been talked of for some time will occur within a few days and due notice will be given. There will be preaching at the new colored church tomorrow at 11 a. m. and also at 3 p. m. Everybody is cordially invited. The wife of Mr. T. T. Whalen presented him with a boy which weighed eleven pounds this morning. A vote was taken last Thursday night, on a train from Lincoln before its arrival here, for Harrison and Cleveland. The vote stood 187 to 98, in favor of Harrison. Mr. George A. Williams, representing the Andrews Dramatic Company, is in the city. The company will play here five nights next week and put some of the most popular plays on the boards. A road inspector's steam trolley is now being finished up in fine style at the B. & M. Paint shops. It is built something after the style of a street motor, and is furnished up as neatly as a palace car inside. It is the idea of Mr. Calvert, who had it made to order, and the car will be used by the inspector of the road. It is a complete arrangement and presents a very handsome appearance. Complaints are heard almost daily from subscribers who do not receive their paper regularly. We are sorry that this dissatisfaction should occur, and every possible scheme we could think of has been tried to prevent it. If the subscribers would tack a small box to the fence or in some convenient place, the carrier boys could have no excuse to offer. When the disagreeable weather comes on the papers will easily be destroyed, unless some box or covering can be made for them. In the future we will do our best to see that the paper reaches every subscriber regularly. A much larger crowd than was expected, turned out last night and took in the excursion to Omaha to witness the Siege of Sebastopol. Two hundred and twenty passengers were counted on the return trip. The performance was very much enjoyed by the majority of the crowd and it apparently did not fully reach the anticipations of many, some objecting to as much of a circus performance as they gave, such as tight wire walking, tumbling, etc., which did not correspond with the surroundings. A more complete display of fireworks could not be seen at any place and the scenery could not be excelled. Mr. M. Archer, of this city, was about the only man from here who attended the republican rally at Malvern, last night. We received a very favorable report of the proceedings from him, and he stated that it turned out to be a success in every particular. There were about seven bands in the procession which was headed by about four hundred equestrians. The Malvern citizens were disappointed when they learned that the republican club of this city had abandoned the trip, as they had a warm welcome awaiting them. A club of 100 of Glenwood's belles attracted much attention by their beautiful costumes of dark dresses which were ornamented by stars, while a club of the same number of Malvern young ladies won the admiration of all, by their uniforms, which were made of our flags. Mr. Archer says he found many pleasant people in the city and feels well repaid for his visit.

PERSONALS.

Mr. Charles Forbes and wife returned from Lincoln yesterday on the flyer after a few days visit. Mr. John Giser left for his old home in New York state, where he will reside permanently. Mr. Mike Grassman, of the post office book store, took his departure this morning for St. Joe where he will spend a few days. Messrs. Brad White and Val Burkel, accompanied by Misses May Fellows and Nannie Sampson go to Omaha tonight to attend "Keep it Dark," which will be played at Boyd's. Mr. George Chatburn, principal of the high school here, who has been spending his vacation at his home in Harlan, Iowa, returned to the city last night to resume his duties here as teacher. Don't forget the grand concert given by the Y. P. S. C. E. next Monday night. Program is in this evening's paper. Admission only 10 cents. O. P. Smith & Co. will retail their goods at the fair, cheap.

NOTES FROM THE EAST.

Seen and Heard on the Way.

HOLMESVILLE, O., Sept. 11, '88.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—I promised to send you some items. I left Ashland at 2 o'clock Friday, and arrived at Chicago at 11 the next day. The cars were coming in from all directions loaded with men, women and children, consequently there was a tremendous rush at that point. Started from Chicago at 3 o'clock; there were not cars enough to accommodate one-fourth of the people, the balance were compelled to wait for another train, but when the time came the crowd was larger than before.

We saw many curiosities on the road. Saw many towns lighted with gas from the earth, which is a curiosity to some, but not to all. We saw hundreds of acres of cabbage along the road, a good prospect for corn, in Illinois, but not so fair as in Nebraska. Apples not more than half a crop—at least we would think so. We arrived at Columbus at 7 o'clock, where we remained all day, and it did not seem much like the Sabbath day. The crowd continued to gather till nearly every available place was taken. I had intended staying two days at the reunion, but the cars came in every few minutes loaded with people. I suppose there never was such a crowd in that city before. At 12:30 o'clock the next morning we left Columbus and arrived at Holmesville at 7 o'clock in the morning. Have been here two days and find the crops fair through this part of the country; apples fair but not much more than half a crop, peaches in abundance.

While on my way from Burlington to Chicago a "political expression" was taken of the men in the cars. There were seven for Cleveland, and twenty-nine for Harrison; between Chicago and Columbus we took another expression; eighty-five being for Harrison and twenty-five for Cleveland. That would not be a fair expression, for they were mostly soldiers. Ohio will undoubtedly give its usual republican majority for Harrison.

We will start for Pennsylvania in the morning, and when I get through you may expect to hear from me again. R. M.

Y. M. C. A. Movements.

The Young Men's Christian Association met and elected the following board of directors for three years: J. H. Waterman, R. B. Windham, Thos. Pollock; for two years: D. B. Smith, Wash Smith, H. M. Gault; for one year: W. H. Pool, C. Barbour, Fred Gorder.

The board met last night at the office of R. B. Windham to arrange for extending the work in Plattsmouth. Mr. Pollock was called to the chair to preside at the meeting. Mr. J. H. Waterman was elected president, W. H. Pool, vice pres.; H. M. Gault, treas.; Thos. Pollock, rec. sec. D. B. Smith, Thos. Pollock and H. M. Gault were appointed a committee to examine and report on rooms suitable for the work in this city. Plattsmouth has more young men than any town the same size in the state, and the Young Men's Christian Association in opening parlors and reading rooms in the interest of young men, are doing the "one thing needful" and should be encouraged and helped in the work they have undertaken. The meeting last Sunday was of unusual interest, 47 were present and one young man gave his heart to the Lord. The young men hold a meeting tomorrow, Sunday, at 4 p. m. in the Presbyterian church, for men only.

Boatrice vs. Plattsmouth.

Another game has been arranged between Boatrice and Plattsmouth for Tuesday next, the 18th. It is unnecessary to say that the game will be interesting, as the two teams are determined on victory, and the Boatrice club will surely work with more energy than at the previous game, to gain the championship. The same men, as near as can be secured by both clubs, will play. If the same nine cannot be secured here, as good substitutes will be put in the field and good work will be done. The same money will be played for as before ($100 a side) and the conversations now lead us to believe that considerable money will be put up on the outside. The Boatrice people will no doubt come loaded and they will probably find some one here who will be willing to hold them down. The citizens here who have never before seen the boys play should see the coming game if possible, as many believe it will prove to be one of the most exciting matches ever played on the diamond here. Give the boys the support they deserve and turn out in large numbers. Friyato Sewerage.

All parties desiring private sewerage connection with the main sewer, can be accommodated at any time, by addressing Haujins & Shelton, Sewer Contractors, P. O. box 1180, or by calling at the office, Murphy's store. 1m Waterman Opera House.

The Andrews Dramatic Company will commence their five night's engagement next Tuesday night, and present their greatest success, a grand double Bill, A Naval Engagement, and "Uncle Josh." Two laughable comedies.

The following we clip from the Crete, Neb., Globe, where the company played last Monday night:

Last Monday evening the Andrews Dramatic Co., opened the season in Crete with two comedies, "Naval Engagements" and "Uncle Josh." Where all did so well it would not be right to single out any particular ones to receive a larger mead of praise than others, still we cannot help remarking that "Uncle Josh," as represented by Fred Andrews, came about as near the reality as it is possible for acting to get. This alone was well worth the price of admission. If the company ever returns to Crete they will be greeted with an overflowing house.
