CITY CORDIALS.

Children's Shirt Waists 20 cents at S. & C. Mayer's.

Mr. W. D. Jones is in Lincoln today on business.

Mrs. John Campbell, of Custer Co., who has been visiting friends near the city, returned home this morning.

The Y. L. R. R. A. will give a social at the G. A. R. Hall, Wednesday evening, Oct. 10. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The Y. L. R. R. A. will meet at the reading room tomorrow, (Saturday) at 7:30 p. m. Each member is requested to be present. By order of the president.

The young ladies of the Catholic church are making preparations already for the grand supper which they intend giving on Friday evening next, the 12th, at Fitzgerald's hall.

Four eight-wheel, new locomotives have been received at this point by the B. & M. within the last few days, from Manchester, N. H. They are numbered 203; 204; 205 and 206. Six more of the same style have been ordered and they are expected soon.

The heating apparatus at the high school has been repaired so that steam can now be furnished and every room kept comfortably warm. School children who have been remaining at home on account of the school rooms being uncomfortable because of the cold, are requested to put in an appearance next Monday, as everything now is in a first-class condition.

Latest Novelties in Neckwear at S. & C. Mayer's.

Mr. C. M. Wead, of the supply department of the B. & M., is erecting two handsome cottages in South Park. That addition to the city is fast gaining prominence and becoming one of the most attractive localities. It is already well settled by a class of our most respectable citizens, and property which is now held at moderate prices is gradually improving in value.

Mr. Richard Patterson, one of the first settlers of Plattsmouth, is now visiting the city for the first time in twenty years. His father built the old reliable Patterson row, Fifth street, which has served as a great convenience in years gone by to the first settlers of this burg. Invariably strangers coming to the city, would be obliged to serve a term in the Patterson row and await for some one to either build a house or vacate one. Mr. Patterson now resides near Greely, Col.

By request of Mr. S. Atwood, Mr. Latham, ticket agent for the B. & M. here, telegraphed to headquarters for information concerning accommodation for passengers to the republican county convention which will be held at Louisville tomorrow. He asked for transportation without as many stoppages as usual in the trip and he was answered that a coach should be attached to No. 29, which will leave here at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning and return at 6 p. m. It is estimated that from seventy-five to one hundred will take advantage of the trip.

Previous to removal to Carruth's building November 1st, and in order to reduce our stock we will sell everything in our line at a low figure. Satin Scarfs 15c, formerly 25; Satin Scarfs 25c., formerly 35; Satin Scarfs 50, formerly 75 at S. & C. Mayer's.

Mr. John G. Roberts, a so-called scab, who accompanied the host of scabs from the Reading road to the great scab by Q. route, is once more free and in our midst. Roberts, it will be remembered, was arrested by the brotherhood soon after his arrival here and sent to Chicago for trial. The charge he was arrested on appears to be an old case which had been brought up against him while employed on the Reading road. He had been acquitted of the old charge and has also been acquitted on the second case. He is at present in the city, and we have learned that he will take charge of one of the new locomotives. On his return trip he brought over $100 worth of trimmings for the locomotive. Among other attractions is a chime whistle which he will attach.

"We need not go to Omaha any more to buy our clothing, we can buy it cheaper at home," were the general remarks made last night at the grand opening of Joe, the One Price Clothier.

Young Ladies Republican Club. All members of the Young Ladies Republican Club are earnestly requested to be present at a meeting tomorrow night, at the office of Judge Russell, as business of importance is in view. Meeting called at 8 o'clock, sharp.

A few Autograph, Photograph, and Scrap Albums at greatly reduced prices to make room for new goods at WILSON'S.

A REPUBLICAN RALLY.

The Thirteenth Will be a Grand Day in the History of Our City.

A LARGE CROWD EXPECTED.

The Most Prominent Speakers of the State Will Participate.

The Young Ladies Will Assist.

The agitators of the grand rally which will be held on the 13th inst., are working to make it the event in the history of our city, and second to none ever held in the state. Each committee is at work and each one has already made extensive preparations for the coming event.

The committee on invitation has already invited clubs from the following places: Greenwood, Malvern, Red Oak, Greenwood, Ashland, Wahoo, Omaha, Council Bluffs, Wabash, Weeping Water, Louisville, Cedar Creek and Lincoln. The young ladies club, of this city, which has already manifested considerable interest in the success of the occasion, will also invite young lady clubs of the above places where they have organized.

The "Flambeau Club" of Lincoln will also be present in their uniforms, and it is expected that a first class band will accompany them.

Over $250 have already been raised to assist defraying the expense and many citizens are willing to contribute liberally if necessary.

Special trains will be run from all points to the city and tickets sold at reduced rates.

The prominent speakers of the state and Iowa will be present, among whom are Hon. John Y. Stone, Council Bluffs; Gov. Thayer, Lincoln; W. J. Connell, Omaha and Judge M. L. Hayward.

The Waterman opera house has been engaged for the occasion. An invitation is extended by the club to all who are desirous of attending, and those who have an interest in the success of the rally, to participate.

There will be speaking at the opera house during the afternoon and in the evening a grand torch light procession will march through the city, after which there will be speaking in the opera house by some of the above named visitors and others.

A Happy Event.

Plattsmouth, of late, is certainly becoming a headquarters for the performance of marriage ceremonies. Within the last few weeks we are frequently called upon to chronicle a happy event in the style of a marriage. Among the many we refer to the marriage of Mr. Edward Dickenson, of Chicago, to Miss Jessie French, of the same city. The ceremony was performed by the grandfather of the bride, Chaplain Wright, at his home on Eighth street, about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The wedding was strictly private, no one but members of the family being witnesses. Miss French is a daughter of Mrs. R. D. Gallagher, who resided in this city a few years ago. All who have the pleasure of her acquaintance know her to be an accomplished and charming young lady. She has many friends in the city, (having spent a good part of her school days here) who will be pleased to learn of the happy event. Mr. Dickenson was born in Chicago and has resided in that city his whole lifetime. He has a lucrative situation as paying teller in the Metropolitan National Bank at Chicago, and is known to be a trustworthy, straightforward and genial young man.

The happy couple have the best wishes of the HERALD for a prosperous future. They took their departure on the evening train for Omaha, where they will remain a few days before returning to Chicago. They will be at home after the 11th inst.

Another Wedding.

Among the many events to which our attention has been attracted, is the marriage of Mr. Jas. Fetzer, to Miss Mary Goos. The ceremony was performed by Judge Russell, at the home of the bride, about 9 o'clock last night. Miss Katie Goos acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. Hans Goos assisted as groomsmen.

After the ceremony was performed, an inviting supper was served, and after all had heartily partaken of the good things provided, the couple took their departure for their new home on Day street, between Eighth and Ninth. The Liederkranz society surprised them by a pleasant serenade shortly after their arrival. The singers were invited in and a pleasant time followed. The groom is a Fetzer but no goose.

The following presents were given to the bride: plush rocking chair, H Boeck; silver butter dish, Hans Goos; silver tea set, Annie Nachtmann, Selma Schneider, Dora Peterson, Carrie Weber; silver castor, S. L. Goss; silver table spoon, Henry Goos; silver tea spoons, Melvine Goos; elegant complete parlor set, bride's parents; silver knives and forks, table and tea spoons, Wm. Cook, Omaha; plush cloak, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Weber; parlor lamp, Henry Weckbach; silver sugar spoon, J. M. Schlatter; china chamber set, Katie Goss; Silver castor, Christ Wohl-

Resolutions of Respect.

WHEREAS, At a meeting of the citizens of Plattsmouth city called for the purpose of taking appropriate steps for the observance of the funeral obsequies of our late distinguished fellow citizen Gen. Robert R. Livingston, the undersigned were directed to report appropriate resolutions expressive of the high esteem with which the citizens of Plattsmouth held the deceased. Therefore, be it resolved, that,

WHEREAS, It has pleased on all wise Providence to call from our midst a useful and worthy fellow citizen, that it is with heads bowed to the divine will, yet with sorrowing hearts that we meet to express our sorrow at the death of a fellow citizen and friend in the midst of a useful and honorable career and, in tribute to his memory we desire, as far as words can convey our meaning, to express the universal and profound sorrow of the whole people of Plattsmouth city on account of the great loss sustained by this community by his untimely death, as well as our sympathy with his family in their bereavement. His death is a loss to our state and more especially to our city and its people with whom he has walked and counseled, and labored for more than a quarter of a century. He was a public spirited man possessing great courage and generosity; full of hope; a lover of his fellow men. He was a patriot who had proved his devotion to his country on many well fought battle fields and it was on account of his worth and sterling qualities as a man and citizen that he early won a place in the hearts of our people never to be effaced.

Resolved, That in the death of Gen. Livingston this community has suffered a loss almost irreparable and his family a kind indulgent father and husband and that the heartfelt sympathies of this meeting be extended to his widow and children in this their sad affliction.

S. M. CHAPMAN, } Com. F. E. WHITE, } S. WAUGH.

Resolutions of Respect.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Sept. 13, '88.

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Grand Master of the universe to call our good brother, Charles R. Simmons, from his labors on earth to the eternal refreshment of heaven; therefore be it

Resolved, That the brethren of this lodge while deeply lamenting our brother's untimely death, bow with solemn reverence to the will of our Supreme Grand Master who doeth all things well.

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Simmons this lodge has lost a good and true brother, one ever faithful to his trust and always ready to go forward in any good work.

Resolved, That our lodge furniture be draped and the brethren wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days; that these resolutions be spread upon our minutes, a copy sent to the relatives of the deceased and a copy be furnished the city papers for publication.

A. SHIPMAN, } Comm. J. M. SCHNEELBACHER, } R. S. DE BOIS,

Grand Island vs. Plattsmouth.

Tomorrow the Grand Island and Plattsmouth teams will play for the championship of the state. The game will be played on the grounds west of the city. Moffit, ex-pitcher of the Indianapolis league club will pitch for Grand Island, while Pond and Heller the Fremont battery, will work for Plattsmouth. Huff, of Omaha, has also been engaged for the occasion. With that assistance we have great confidence in the home team and victory seems almost certain. Grand Island has about as good an amateur club as there is in the state, and the match will surely be a close one. This will undoubtedly be the last game of the season, and all should take advantage of this opportunity to see the best game played this year. The following players will fill the following positions for Plattsmouth: Heller, c.; Pond, p; S. Patterson, 1b; J. Patterson, 2b; Miller, 3b; T. Patterson, ss; Huff, lf; Reese, m; O'Rourke, rf.

Prescott-McLean.

Marie Prescott and R. D. McLean, the two great southern legitimate stars, are billed to appear at Waterman's opera house on Thursday evening, 11th inst., in Sheridan Knowles great tragedy "Virginians," supported by a new and powerful company. It would be a waste of space to praise in these columns artists locally so well known and universally so highly appreciated. In their engagement of three nights here last season they demonstrated themselves to be the best among the best and that Manager Young has secured a date with them this season will, we are sure, meet with the highest popular approval. Reserved seat sale opens on Monday morning; price 75 cents.

Grand opening tomorrow of the American Tea Syndicate's branch store in the Sherwood block. One thousand plates, "Real China" will be distributed to customers. There will be a great crowd. They sell all grades of coffees as well as teas.

MARCHING ON TO VICTORY.

TUNE—MARCHING THROUGH GEORGIA.

Hurrah! for Ben and Levi, boys, They are the very men To keep our ship or state afloat And guide her through the storm. For Cleveland, and old Thurman, too, They're going to make it warm, While we are marching on to victory.

CHORUS: Hurrah! Hurrah! the starry flag shall wave, Hurrah! Hurrah! the democrats will rave, When we vote for Harrison, for Harrison the brave, While we are marching on to victory.

The soldier and the statesman true, They are the nation's pride; They're marching on to Washington. While Cleveland takes a ride; For up Salt river he will go, With Thurman by his side, While we are marching on to victory.

CHORUS: Protection is the song we sing, While free trade is the cry Of all the Cleveland democrats, And that's the reason why That Cleveland will, with Thurman, too, Give up the ghost and pie, While we are marching on to victory.

CHORUS: Veto Cleveland is bound to sink Beneath the mighty wave; Protection is our battle cry, And will the nation save, While free trade will be buried in The democratic grave, While we are marching on to victory.

CHORUS: We'll keep protection marching on; We'll fill the air with cheers, The democrats are shaking, while It's ringing in their ears, Free trade must go with Pig Tail John, To stay a thousand years, While we are marching on to victory.

CHORUS: Hurrah! Hurrah! we'll shout the jubilee, Hurrah! Hurrah! Protection makes you free, And free trade will come out behind, So will democracy, While we are marching on to victory.

A Mistake Parents Make.

This habit of excessive outlay upon young girls runs through every grade of our society. The daughter of the blacksmith is as likely to be dressed extravagantly in proportion to his means as that of the millionaire for whom he works. The income which the successful professional man earns by his brains is equal to the interest on a large bulk of capital; it gives him the feeling of affluence. But in rearing his daughters he is apt wholly to forget that his brains do not win him. For how many of the pretty innocent butterflies who brighten our streets today is any provision made to insure them, five years hence, one tithe of the luxuries which they now enjoy? How many of them are qualified to earn their own living?

The effect of this cruel neglect in parents strikes deeper than mere poverty. Luxuries are made necessities for the girl. She knows that on the death of her father she will lose them; she cannot earn them. There is but one way to secure them, marriage with a rich man. There is the secret of the vulgar idea of marriage which is debasing our social life; of the market for women which fashionable society has become; of the voluntary sale of themselves of the prettiest girls of each season to rich old men; of the wretched homes, and of the innumerable divorces that and this lamentable history. What is the remedy?—Rebecca Harding Davis in The Congressionalist.

Happiness of Married Life.

I have been married for more than twenty years, and can truly say that it has been the happiest part of my life. My husband, like many other Americans, does not outgrow the little thoughtful attentions that he paid me in our marriage. There are so many little things which go a long way toward making a woman's life happy; they cost nothing, and yet they make such a difference. For example, the morning and evening kiss; the word of praise, of sympathy, or of appreciation; the tap at the chamber door before entering; the helping hand in getting in or out of carriage, omnibus or train—these things are accepted as a matter of course by thousands of American wives; and it is only when they go abroad that they are struck with the contrast, especially on the continent, where they hear on all sides: "How the Americans do spoil their wives!"—Cor. London Telegraph.

Hint for Anxious Mothers.

Mothers will find that a band of flannel worn around the stomach and hips of children who are troubled with bowel complaints during the summer, and whose vitality is low at all times, will be greatly benefited by this simple remedy. It may be used to fit and hooked in the back. Three of these bandages of graded thickness should be kept on hand, and if changed with the weather, they will lessen the danger of cold, neuritis and inflammation of the bowels.—Boston Budget.

How to Take MILK.

Milk is becoming more and more used as a food for invalids and semi-invalids, so that it becomes important to know how to take it to get the best results. It is best taken with good bread. If swallowed in considerable quantities alone, it forms a somewhat indigestible mass of considerable bulk, and if taken slowly with bread this curd is broken
