OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

A. Salsbury, Dentist, Rockwood Building, Telephone No. 22.

Dr. Higgins, Office in Gerling's Drug Store, Residence Cor. Sixth and Granite, Telephone No. 42.

Dr. Withers, the Painless Dentist, Union Block, over Fricks's Drug Store, Plattsmouth.

CITY CORDIALS.

There was no meeting of the council last night as a quorum could not be secured.

The laying of the pavement was commenced this morning at the foot of Main street.

There will be a meeting of the Chatauqua club at the office of Mr. Byron Clark tonight.

The Y. L. R. R. A. will give a social tonight in their reading room and the G. A. R. hall.

There will be a meeting of the Young Men's Republican club tonight at the office of Judge Russell.

Miss Paul is making preparations to give another musical concert. The date has not yet been decided on.

No critical mind will yield to McCullough's superiority over McLean as Virginius.—Terre Haute, Ind., Gazette.

The Plattsmouth Bohemian Dramatic Company will give a grand ball at Fitzgerald's on the evening of Oct. 15th.

The Hon. J. Sterling Morton, the democratic nominee for congress, will speak in the Waterman opera house tomorrow night.

Louis Beal was arraigned before Judge Clifford yesterday morning for being drunk and disorderly. This being the second offence, he was fined $5 and costs. He was fined $2 and costs last Saturday.

A livery man tells us that he is never afraid to trust his horses in the care of a young man who hires a rig to take his young lady friend for a drive.—They are never known to be fast drivers on such occasions.

In "Pa themia and Galatea," comparison between Mary Anderson and Marie Prescott is inevitable, and it is not extreme praise to say that Miss Prescott has the greater merit of the two.—Detroit Post-Tribune.

Marie Prescott is a great actress. She reaches the highest ideal in acting in causing the audience to forget the actress and only feel with the character. She is terrible in her passion, grand in heroism and heart rending in sorrow, and her magnetism draws her so closely to her audience that they forget the play and weep and laugh with the woman.—Cincinnati Post.

Nature has been kind to Mr. McLean in fitting him for the assumption of this class of characters. Of heroic size, he possesses a voice that is full, resonant and powerful, yet capable of very delicate modulation. His stage presence is inspiring, his personal attractiveness remarkable and his method correct and artistic in the highest sense.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Mr. Tom Patterson, while running to third base, in the base ball game with Grand Island last Saturday, attempted to dodge the third base man and turned his ankle out of place. He had nicely recovered from a similar injury, and this accident will, no doubt, lay him up for a much longer time as it was more severe. Just before the accident he was doing great service for the club.

The Wills, Henshaw & Tenbroeck musical comedy company will hold forth at the Waterman Opera house next Monday evening in a play entitled "Two Old Cronies." The city has already been billed for the coming event, and the lithographs are a proof of its excellence. Mr. J. P. Young has opened up the season in good shape by so far securing only first-class companies.

Christmas is again approaching. The fancy goods stores are beginning to loom up, their show windows are being repaired and preparations made to receive holiday goods. The store of Mr. O. P. Smith & Co., has been renovated within the last few weeks and it now presents an inviting appearance. The room has been neatly papered with fancy papers, the show windows built back so that goods can be shown to better advantage and other noticeable improvements made. We notice that Mr. J. P. Young is also improving his windows in a similar style.

PERSONALS.

Mr. J. M. Patterson, sr., is in Omaha today on business.

Miss Lillie Stadelmann, of Omaha, is the guest of Miss Dora Herold.

Miss Lizzie Yeager, of New Geneva, Pa., is visiting at the home Mr. J. P. McCoy.

Mrs. W. Pottenger and Mrs. M. Shannon drove to Weeping Water to day, where they will visit friends the remainder of the week.

Mr. W. G. Keifer returned from Wehoo this morning. He has located his family at that place and there will remain.

The Y. L. R. R. A.

The Y. L. R. R. A.—The Young Ladies' Reading Room Association—has merited for itself an enviable reputation since its organization, and it has gradually worked its way into prominence and become an honor, as it can claim a share in the intellectual advancement of our city.

The society was organized on the 25th day of February, 1885, and it consisted of eighteen of our most estimable young ladies. They labored under many disadvantages and found many obstacles in their way which they were obliged to overcome in order to obtain a foothold and succeed in making their work take effect. At first it was only thought of as a social society, but after a few meetings were held, they decided on furnishing a room and procuring the material necessary for a reading room. They received little encouragement from the public, as every one they came in contact with was apparently under the impression that their efforts would soon fall through, and no donations have ever been received exceeding $5. Since they manifested perseverance in the work, they have received considerable encouragement in various ways. Concerts under the auspices of the association have been given constantly, all, with only a few exceptions, receiving good patronage from the citizens.

A large number of the young ladies who composed the association in its organization are still members, only seven of the eighteen having withdrawn. The following ladies who originated the idea of opening a public reading room are worthy of the praise of every citizen: Misses Kate Dorrington, Sue Sampson, Josephine Morrissey, Olive Jones, Hattie Fulmer, May Cranmer, Maggie O'Rourke, Lillian Pollock, Anna Murphy, Lelia Thomas, Hattie Sheffer, Kate Hempie, Addie Searl, Mrs. Wilkinson, nee Laura Overlander, Anna Weckbach, Hallie Parmele, Hattie Pronger, and Clara Babington. Since its organization the following names have been added to the list:

Misses Maggie Campbell, Birdie Irish, Laura Shipman, Ametha Tucker, Amelia Vallery, Lydia Patterson, Dora Herold, Alice Wilson, Gertie Kearney, Mamie Styles, Julia Oliver, Kate Oliver, Hattie Chapman, Kate Robbins, Mary Hawksworth, Anna Russell, Mary Buzzell, Maggie Straight, Emma Johnson, Bertie Houseworth, Agatha Tucker, Alma Waterman, Bertha Wise, Irene Patterson, Lessie Hunt. Honorary members.—Mrs. J. M. Patterson, jr., and Mrs. C. W. Bellville. Officers.—Misses Lillian Pollock, president; Anna Murphy, Vice-Pres.; Lelia Thomas, 2nd Vice-Pres.; Olive Jones, Sec'y; Maggie O'Rourke, Treas.

Since a Y. M. C. A. has been organized in the city, these young ladies have offered to assist the young men in their good work by paying for one of the three rooms to be occupied by them in the Anheuser-Busch building, for five months. They have also offered to furnish the room and have donated about three hundred and fifty volumes of books which they had in their possession.

Since the young ladies have organized, they have succeeded in raising on an average each year about $900, and for the last two years, about $1,000 each year. They are now closing up their business with over $150 in the treasury. The following resolutions were passed by the Y. M. C. A. accepting their proposition:

Resolved, That this association accepts the proposition of the Y. L. R. R. A. for the transfer of their books, furniture, &c., and agrees to continue the library as a circulating library for all members of the association, active and associate, all tickets issued by the Y. L. R. R. A. to be good until the time expires for which they were given, also that upon payment of one-half the membership fee of this association, ladies shall have the privilege of the library; one afternoon of each week to be set apart for them to exchange books, and one evening of each week for exchange by members of this association and further that the present members of the Y. L. R. R. A. shall have the use of the library as above, for the coming year, without any fee.

Resolved, That this arrangement shall continue until March 1, 1890, and that if for any reason the library should be closed for an indefinite time, or if at the end of the time named, the arrangement shall not work satisfactorily, then this association agrees to return to the Y. L. R. R. A. all the books, furniture, &c., received from them, or an equivalent therefor, an inventory to be taken of the property fixing the value of the same before the transfer is made.

Plattsmouth Clubs Invited.

The president of the Young Men's Republican club received the following invitation to attend a grand republican parade and rally to be held in Omaha on Thursday evening next, the 11th inst. After the meeting of the club tonight definite information can be had, but it is supposed the invitation will be accepted and a large crowd will go from here:

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 8, 1888. Chairman Republican Club, Plattsmouth.—Dear Sir:—The Republicans of Omaha cordially invite all your clubs to join us in our great parade and rally of Thursday evening 11th inst. Advise me of your acceptance that prominent position may be assigned you. Yours Truly, T. S. CLARKSON, Chairman H. and M. Club, Chief Marshal.

Watson For Float Senator.

The republican delegates of Cass and Otoe counties met in float convention at Weeping Water last night. A. N. Sullivan, of this city, nominated General John C. Watson, of Nebraska City, for float representative. Watson was elected by acclamation without a dissenting voice. Mr. Watson said he would gladly meet his democratic opponent, Higgins, or any proxy that he (Higgins) might name, on the stump to discuss the issues of the campaign, this meeting to be in any town in either of the counties. It is generally felt here that Mr. Watson's nomination will add strength to the republican tickets of both counties.

Critical to the Last.

Judge (concluding a sentence): "And you will then be hanged by the neck until you are dead, dead, dead."

Condemned man: "Your honor, I should think that a man in your position would avoid superfluity of language."

"What do you mean?" "There is no necessity for the repetition of the word dead; in fact, there is no necessity for the use of the word at all, for it follows that if I am hanged by the neck death must ensue; therefore—" "Sheriff, remove the prisoner."

Tea of a Special Picking.

The daily life of the tea importer and his representatives would appear well calculated to give them "old maidish" characteristics, as they are obliged to spend the greater part of their time in sipping tea; but, on the contrary, they are an exceedingly lively and active lot of people. When the wind is southerly they know a poor flush from a Young Hyson. There are several of the leading experts in the Chicago tea houses who endeavor themselves to a large circle of friends every year by sending with the regular orders of their houses a number of personal orders for a few small packages of a special picking.

At the tea plantations these personal orders are carefully filled with the choicest tea and shipped here with the bulk orders. As they usually pack 1 1/2 lbs. in five pound boxes the salesman ordering it can allow his chosen friends to have it in convenient packages, and he disposes of it at the importation price—sometimes less. It is the nearest approach to the fabled nectar of the gods imaginable, and the drinker can almost feel a pigtail growing out of the back of his head as he sips it. It is too fine an article to be sold to the trade, as it must be retailed at $1.50 per pound to secure the retailer's
