OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

CITY CORDIALS

—Rev. T. Alton and Miss Flora E. Bird (sister) were joined in marriage yesterday afternoon by Judge Russell.

—Nothing is more liable to destroy a man's appetite than the sight of a lot of French words on a bill of fare.—Walt Mason.

—Mr. J. V. Weckbach has purchased the elevator formerly used in the store of Mr. Frank Carruth. He intends to locate it at the rear of his store.

—"Nothing," remarks a society paper, "is more beautiful than a pretty hand." This statement will receive the cordial endorsement of poker players.—Lincoln Journal.

—Mr. J. F. Callen, traveling correspondent of the Omaha World was in the city yesterday. He has mapped out a plan of the city and will furnish the Journal cuts to be printed in a boom edition, soon.

—Plattsmouth was only barely represented at the Omaha rally last night. If a special had been secured, there is no doubt that as many as 200 would have gone from here. Only two or three took in the rally as it was.

—A piece of sugar-cane was received by mail yesterday by a clerk in one of our stores. A few lines accompanied it, informing the young man that it was from an old friend now living somewhere in the south. The friend is well known in this city.

—Mr. Frank Foster, who had been confined to his room for several weeks with typhoid fever and came out last Saturday and Sunday before he had fully recovered, has taken a relapse, and he now lies in a critical condition and much worse than before. His friends have doubts as to his recovery.

—Hon. T. B. Reed, the Maine representative and leader in the house, will speak in Council Bluffs on the 25th. He will be en route to California, and remain over in Council Bluffs for the day. Great preparations are being made for his coming and a grand rally the same day. The Plattsmouth club is invited to participate.

—As the "Judge's" bone structures were located on the depot platform last night a freight train pulled by. One car contained oats, and as it passed, one poor creature, gazing in amazement, was so strongly influenced that it turned around as far as its strength would allow, nearly upsetting the vehicle it was attached to. The judge secured the lines and exclaimed, "Wha sister! Wha sister!"

"The bills for the republican rally Saturday announce 'transportation furnished' to visiting clubs. Do the boys stand in with the railroads so well that they let people ride free to their rallies; or are they so well heeled as to be able to pay their fare?" The above few lines appeared in our local contemporary yesterday and apparently its editor is very desirous of gaining some information at that point. In reply we would say that an answer to either question could not afford him a pointer which would be of any service to him or his party.

—The Prescott and McLean company was not deservedly patronized at the Waterman opera house last night. Although the house was little more than half filled and little encouragement afforded the company, each character was filled out to perfection. McLean was much appreciated in the character to which he was so well adapted. His commanding voice frequently would startle the audience and his strong influence at times held them spell bound. Marie Prescott won the admiration of all as "Virginia," and as an actress she far surpassed the anticipations of many. These two stars have appeared in this city the second time, and should they ever come again there will certainly be a better greeting. So far this season, the managers of the opera house have secured none but first-class companies.

Previous to removal to Carruth's building November 1st, and in order to reduce our stock we will sell everything in our line at a low figure. Satin Scarfs 15c, formerly 25c; Satin Scarfs 25c, formerly 35c; Satin Scarfs 50, formerly 75 at S. C. Mayer's.

The Y. P. S. C. E. Convention.

Echoes from the state convention of the Y. P. S. C. E. held at York, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week: There were over 159 delegates in attendance, and several societies belonging to this union were not represented.

To say that the York people were very hospitable does not express their welcome to us. We were made to feel perfectly at home wherever we went, and the delegate's badge was as a pass-word into everyone's good will.

Arriving in York a short time after noon, we were first conducted to the Congregational church, and from there to different hotels and restaurants for dinner; then returning to the church the delegates were assigned their stopping places by the committee on entertainment. At 6 p. m. tea was served in the parlors of the M. E. church, and the services of the evening were held in the audience room of the same church; the rest of the meetings were held in the Congregational church, which was handsomely decorated for the occasion. In the front, back of the pulpit, hung the "Ironclad Pledge" in a handsome gilt frame, and just above it in large evergreen letters the word "Welcome;" across the body of the church was hung the motto of the society—"Not to be ministered unto but to minister,"—which was condensed for us into the German motto, "Ich Diem I Sere," by Rev. D. H. Curtis, of Lincoln, in his talk Wednesday morning. At the back of the church was the national watch word "God be with you till we meet again." On either side of the church were banners with appropriate mottoes, and right here let us say it is a grand thing for a place like York to have the churches she has; you know "comparisons are odious" but one can't help it sometimes, and we say speed the day when our places of worship will be something to be proud of.

A slight rain falling that evening cooled the air, and added much to the next day's enjoyment by settling the dust. Among many other good things on the program were addresses by the different pastors of York, Lincoln and Omaha; and it seems to us one of the best things concerning the C. E. movement is to hear the pastors' testimonies of their thankful ness that the society has been organized to help them in their work, and they realize it is very much to their interest to aid the society in every way. In the question box of Wednesday afternoon, one of the questions read: "What shall the societies do where the pastors are not interested in the work?" and the answer came strong from our conductor, "Pray for them that they may become interested." The most earnest meetings of all were the 6:30 a. m. prayer meetings. There was a full attendance both mornings.

One of the most interesting features of the program was a paper by H. E. Gregory, of Neligh, showing the growth of the Y. P. S. C. E. in Nebraska. The first society was organized at Neligh in 1883, since that time we have organized a station, with a present membership of 52 societies. At the first convention held at Weeping Water three years ago there were thirteen delegates present, and the increase this year surely shows that the S. of C. E. is here to stay.

Augustus Nash, of Omaha, gave us one of his excellent talks on bible study Wednesday afternoon. We might mention many more important subjects but cannot do them justice.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: S. R. Boyd, Omaha, president; Miss Fannie Roseman, Lincoln, vice-president; A. W. Lane, Lincoln, secretary and treasurer; executive committee: Miss S. C. Phelps, Omaha; Miss C. C. Coney, St. Paul, and F. A. Hannis, York. The next convention will be held at Fremont PLATTSMOUTH DEL.

Wahoo vs. Plattsmouth.

The Wahoo ball team will play the last game of the season tomorrow in the hall grounds west of the city. The clubs will be purely amateur and a good game will be played. The game will be called at the regular time. The following are the names of the Plattsmouth players and their positions: J. Patterson, catcher; S. Patterson, pitcher; Carnahan, first base; Lewis, second base; O'Rourke, third base; Miller, short stop; Pollock, right field; Reese, center field; Dillen, left field.

Charter members of the new Rebekah Lodge and as many others as wish to become members are requested to meet at the hall of Cass Lodge 146, Monday Oct. 15th, at 8 p. m., as the Rebekah lodge will be instituted at that time. By order of Cass Lodge 146.

A Jail Break at Seward.

SEWARD, Neb., Oct. 11.—The prisoners, Cobb, aged twenty-three, charged with home stealing, and Brickford, seventeen accused of rape, broke jail about 7 o'clock to-night, rushing past the jailer while he was serving their meals and escaping in the darkness, one going west and the other east.

THE GRAND RALLY.

Clubs in Large Numbers From a Distance.

A Grand Time Expected.

The opera house is being decorated inside today and extensive preparations made generally for the coming rally tomorrow night. Young men's and ladies' clubs, with but few exceptions, have accepted the invitations extended them. For the accommodation of visitors, a special train will leave Lincoln tomorrow afternoon about 4:30. The trains will run so that connections will be made at Louisville with the Missouri Pacific, and clubs from all intermediate points between Lincoln and Plattsmouth are expected. Large crowds are also expected from Glenwood and Wahoo. The Flambeau club of Lincoln, over one hundred strong, accompanied by a band, will be present. The fare has been reduced to one fare for the round trip. Several bands are also expected to accompany the visitors.

As no special trains will arrive during the afternoon, there will be no speaking until evening, but preparations will be made for the reception of the visitors.

Although Main street is in a bad condition, that difficulty will not interfere in any way with the procession. The following line of march will be taken: The procession will form on Vine street, right on 6th, headed by B. & M. band, will march north on 6th to Locust, west on Locust to 9th, south on 9th to Washington avenue, east on avenue to 7th, south on 7th to Main, west on Main to 10th, south on 10th to Pearl, east on Pearl to 9th, south on 9th to Chicago avenue, thence east on avenue to Granite, thence on Granite to 6th, thence north on 6th to Main east on Main to the opera house. J. C. EKENBARY, Chief Marshal.

The Pontoon Bridge Question.

The pontoon bridge question which was taken up in this city some time ago and dropped again because sufficient support could not be secured, will, without doubt, come up a second time for consideration when other cities along the line have eclipsed this city in advancement. The citizens of Nebraska City now boast of their pontoon bridge among their most extensive and valuable improvements. Now it is apparently a necessity they can not do without. Plattsmouth was made the first offer to secure a pontoon bridge, but little interest could be aroused in the matter. The boards of trade in cities all along the river are now considering this question, and committees have been appointed at several places to investigate the pontoon bridge and its many advantages at Nebraska City. Last Thursday the Leavenworth board of trade met and heard a report from a committee which had been delegated to investigate the work at Nebraska City. They reported very encouragingly to the meeting, and the following resolution was offered:

"RESOLVED, That this meeting of the board of trade recommends to the mayor and city council the building of a pontoon bridge across the Missouri river, and we request them to submit to the tax payers of the city a proposition for the city to give $10,000 towards the building of such a bridge which shall be located not further north than the Delaware street and not further south than the Riverdale coal mine. The money to be paid by five installments of $2,000 per year to a responsible party who will build the bridge and give a guarantee with a good and sufficient bond to successfully operate the same for five years; the contractor during that time to be allowed the privilege of charging the following toll: Teams, return tickets 15 cents, or ten tickets for $1; single horse, with rider or buggy, 5 cents; foot passengers, 1 cent; herds of horses, cattle, hogs, sheep and goats 1 cent each."

If a bridge is built at this point and the farmers of Iowa offered an opportunity to cross, the business men of this city must certainly reap a benefit. Although many contend that as the farming country for five miles into Iowa is not much value, yet better land cannot be found than that beyond that distance. Farmers will come fifteen miles or more to sell their grain for a few cents extra, and that is the place they will leave their money. Although the country for some distance on the other side would not afford the best support, yet there would be some, and back of that, would be support enough to pay for the investment.

Attacked By a Lynx.

SEKILTON, Neb., Oct. 12.—While a young man was passing through the grove just north of town this morning he was attacked by a Lynx, which tore nearly all his clothing off, but the youth succeeded in frightening the animal away before it did him any bodily injury. The people turned out en masse to hunt down the animal, but as yet have not succeeded in capturing it.

Cause for Being Jubilant.

"William Weesback, you are charged with having beaten your wife." "The charge is correct, your honor." "What are you smiling about, then?" "I have reason to smile. We've been married five years, and in all the scrapes we've had, this is the first time I haven't come out second best. Have a cigar, judge."—Lincoln Journal.

As Funny as the Best of Hoyt's Productions

The "Two Old Cronies" appeared at Havlin's Theatre yesterday afternoon and evening, and made a hit with the public and gave a very popular and artistic presentation of the comedy of that name. The piece is all that it has been recommended, and is as full of fun and humor as an egg is of meat. The situations are natural, but so excruciatingly funny and comical that they would make a stone man smile. The house was packed at both performances, and the audience were in a roar of laughter from the time the curtain rose until it fell on the last laughing scene. Yes, it can be honestly said that the "Two Old Cronies" is a laughing success.

As has been intimated in these columns it is fashioned somewhat on the order of the plays that Hoyt has been convulsing the country with for the past five years and that it is quite as funny as the best of his productions the applause of the people yesterday testified. The music is all good and new, and in fact it is one of the features of the play. The company is good, very good, and will pass muster before the most critical audience. All are popular entertainers, and the two comedians whose names head the list, and who are the princes of funny men, are Wills and Henshaw. They have the faculty of giving the public an interpretation of that kind of humor that is the most pleasing, and that is of the kind that is the most easily understood. They are ably assisted by Miss Ten Brock, who has dramatic and musical talent in her favor. Lizzie Hight, Normi Wills the other members of the company are entirely satisfactory.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

This company will appear at the Waterman opera house next Monday night.
