CITY CORDIALS.

There is a new arrival at the home of Mr. R. B. Windham. It is a girl. Mr. T. W. Warrant and wife, of Ashland, parents of Mrs. W. H. Pool, are in the city.

Misses Amy O'Neill, Florence Smith, Anna and Mary Wright, of Bellevue, are visiting friends in the city today.

Regular meeting of W. O. T. U. Thursday afternoon at 8 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. S. A. Davis, on Pearl street.

The Plattsmouth Turner society will give a dance next Tuesday, October 23, in Fitzgerald's hall, to which all friends of the society are cordially invited.

There will be a meeting of the T's tomorrow at 4 p. m., in Miss Cramer's rooms. All members are earnestly requested to be present. By order of Pres.

Mr. Geo. Pronger, one of the striking engineers who again secured a run on the B & M near Denver, is in the city and he intends to move his family out west in a few days.

Westlake and Ellis, the two repro-bates who way-laid a man last Sunday night near Third street, and relieved him of his watch and money, are being tried today before Judge Stiles.

Mr. John A. Davies, president of the young men's republican club of this city, has been honored by an invitation to speak at the republican rally to be held at Council Bluffs on the 25th inst.

The funeral of "Buddie" Drummond, son of Prof. Drummond, who died yesterday, will leave his father's residence tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Six of the little fellows playmates will act as pall-bearers.

Mr. C. L. Spencer, who was so severely injured by a railway accident at Omaha last Saturday, is improving as rapidly as possible. He is now at the St. Joe hospital there under treatment of Dr. Lee, the company's physician.

The creditors of the old Cook estate are being settled with today by the administrator, Mr. C. H. Parmele. The courts have been restless for the last five years on account of numerous claims to a share in the estate. Over $752 taxes have accumulated during the unsettled term.

Mr. Will Kuhney, brother of Mr. John Kuhney, is in the city. The unfortunate man is afflicted with consumption, and has just returned from Denver where he has been for several months in pursuit of better health, but as he realized little benefit from the western climate, he has returned to Plattsmouth.

Mr. S. C. Herbert, is a salesman for a wholesale house of Des Moines. He apparently is a genial fellow and also very eccentric as will be seen when a few following facts are made known. Our friend, C. Whopper Sherman of the Journal and the above named gentleman have been the most intimate friends for many years, even from boyhood to the present, and during the war they both shouldered their muskets in the same company and wended their way to the fray as brothers. They stood the struggle bravely and came out as friendly as when they started in. Mr. Sherman's friend was in the city only a few days ago, and as an illustration of his eccentricity we give the following proposition made by him to Mr. C. W. Mr. Herbert has for years voted the democratic ticket, but this year, he informs us, it is his intention to go solid for Harrison, and more than that he is a strong supporter of the republican candidate in every particular even in betting. While in an argument with his friend, Mr. Sherman, the other day, he expressed his desire of betting him any amount he wished to cover on the election. Mr. Sherman meekly informed him that he was not a betting character, but still he was willing to accept most any other proposition which might be laid before him. "Well, Sherman, I'll tell you what I'll agree to do with you," he said with a smile while Mr. Sherman awaited patiently for the proposition. "If Cleveland is elected, I'll agree to secure a wassel-barrow and wheel the heaviest and homeliest nigger-wench that you can find for me in the state of Nebraska, for the distance of one block on Main street—from 5th to 6th streets, if you'll agree to do the same providing Harrison is elected." We learned that Mr. C. W. Sherman, editor and proprietor of our local contemporary, the Journal, accepted the above proposition, but not without considerable hesitancy. We believe he will cry before he completes his contract. "A horse, a horse, my paper for a horse," but we believe he will cry himself "horse" and nothing will be left for him but the con and the wheel barrow, and the great president will say "C. Whopper, C. Whopper, why persecutest thou me?"

THE POLITICAL "WHAT IS IT?"

Graphically Described and "Laid Out" by a Wide-Awake Irish Voter.

Who is he coming from the south and wants the Irish to vote for him on the 6th of November next? He is a democrat whose former occupation of lashing the negro is gone, and whose present business is leading the southern convicts in chain-gangs and selling their services to the highest bidder.

Who is he bellowing in the south for free trade and wants the Irish to vote for his pet theory? He is a democrat mad with rage because he has to pay for labor now, instead of the slave labor of by-gone days, and who wishes that England should manufacture all our goods and sell them again to us at a large profit, as she did in former days in unfortunate Ireland, and left her as she is today a pauper among the nations of the earth.

Who is he coming from the south and proclaiming justice and freedom to all men, and who never believed in the constitution of the United States—that all men were created equal? He is a democrat who never respected an Irish laborer, and who never condescended to allow him to eat at the same table with him, or ever tolerated him to sleep beneath his roof, but graciously permitted him to sleep in his barn or out-house.

Who is he coming from the south and wants the Irish to vote for Grover Cleveland and his democratic cabinet? He is one who wants Cleveland to put the Extradition Treaty in force by which England can take any Irishman from this country and have him tried and hung at "New Gate."

Irishmen, will you do it?

AN IRISHMAN.

Cass County Biographical Project.

It is always instructive and a pleasure to trace the origin of families and follow their history through the migrations of time. With the people of this country, however, the preservation of family history has been too much neglected. For the benefit of future generations we should commence and give this subject more consideration.

Some years ago there was established in Chicago the firm of Chambers Bros. who, realizing the importance of biographical works, and securing the encouragement of the best citizens of that section, commenced their publication. They now propose to issue for the people of Cass and Otoe counties an elegant edition of their portrait and biographical album. It will contain lengthy biographies of the pioneer and leading citizens.

It will tell how some commenced life in poverty and by industry and economy accumulated wealth, how others with limited advantages for securing an education, have become learned men and women, with an influence extending throughout the length and breadth of the land. It will tell of those in every walk in life who have striven to succeed and will record how that success has awarded their efforts. A work of this kind cannot but be interesting and valuable to coming generations and will be preserved by them as sacred treasures. The work has been in progress in Otoe county some weeks and is an assured success there and we hope may secure the hearty support of the citizens of this county.

Resolution of Gratitude.

Headquarters Young Ladies Republican Club, Ashland, Neb., Oct. 16.

Resolved, By the members of this club that we extend to the Ladies' Republican Club of Plattsmouth our highest appreciation for the royal welcome and splendid entertainment accorded us upon our late visit to their city. Signed, VICTORIA BOYD, Pres. by Sam B. Hall, Capt and A. R. G.

Tickets for the Leap year supper and dance which will be held at Fitzgerald hall next Friday night can be secured of either Miss Estie Hemple or Miss Cora Wayman. The young ladies intend to leave a favorable impression that they still recognize their privileges, for some of the girls are monopolizing from two to six of their gentlemen friends. We will never again criticize the young ladies in their efforts, but on the contrary extend them our best wishes for future prosperity and success in every undertaking. We believe they will still keep their heads above water and land on the other shore—the shore of married life—but we trust that none of them may strike quicksand when they reach it. Only a little more than two months still remains and now that many are at work, they will be obliged to do good work to come to the front in such a short time, but as we stated before we wish them all success and we hope their efforts may be crowned in time.

Several young ladies and gentlemen of Lincoln will visit Plattsmouth next Friday to attend the leap year ball. The young men of this city will present a blue appearance when they learn that the young ladies are importing their company from Lincoln, but never mind, "there's a better time coming on" and four years off it.

Union.

J. Sterling has his match when he faces W. J. Connell.

The Methodist parsonage near here is to be moved to Union this fall.

Our hardware man, M. N. Thomas, has sold out to a firm in Nebraska city.

R. B. Wallace, M. D., was at the county convention, Saturday the 12th inst.

Our jeweler, C. H. Jaquet, has left town, but improvements go on just the same.

The Baptist and Presbyterian churches under construction at this point are going on nicely.

We have been blessed by a shower of rain lately, which everybody has been wishing for.

Harrison and protection, and Cleveland and the bandana. Voters take your choice.

BOYS—At the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Becker a boy, weight 107 pounds. Cigars A. L.

Corn husking has begun on some farms in this vicinity; the yield ranges from 30 to 45 bushels per acre.

A rumor is afloat that Union will have another new hotel, which will give us three. How's that? That's all right.

WANTED—A box of cigars or $16.00 worth of whiskey to electioneer for a candidate on any side. Formerly electioneered for county treasurer, but now for any thing. I was at the convention Saturday and have a great deal of influence with certain people—till they get acquainted with me.

Tours, etc.

Quite a number from here attended the rally at Plattsmouth and say it was the grandest and most enthusiastic they have attended during the campaign. The young men especially wish to congratulate the young ladies of Plattsmouth and abroad upon the way they achieved themselves trying to make the rally what it was—a success.

Some of our democratic friends were at Plattsmouth and heard the so-called J. Sterling man speak, but can't tell any thing they heard, only that there were several empty beer kegs sitting out on the street next morning.

O, the demic-rats like to take their beer, and I will do the same. But Grover's fishing, don't you hear, to get some political game.

Very truly, JOSEPH CANNONIAN.
