CITY CORDIALS.

The Recital will be in part a benefit to the Y. M. C. A.

The best talent in town has been secured to assist Miss Paul and Miss Barnes in their Recital.

The Y. M. C. A. will hold their regular Sunday afternoon meeting at their new rooms in the Anheuser-Busch building.

The ladies' quartette to be sung by Miss Barnes, Mrs. Carpenter, Miss Paul, and Mrs. Campbell, is a serenade by Goldberg, one of his choicest compositions.

Tickets are now on sale at J. P. Young's for the Recital, next Tuesday evening. Admission twenty-five cents to any part of the house. Reserved seats free.

There will be a meeting of the Cass County Fair Association next Tuesday evening, Oct. 23 in the Secretary's office to which all members are requested to be present, by order of the President.

The two-year old daughter of Mr. C. S. Forbes died last night about 9 o'clock from whooping cough. The funeral will occur tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock at the residence of Mr. Forbes, corner of Rock and 11th.

Miss Annie Beins, who arrived here from St. Paul, Minn., a short time ago and is visiting at the home of Mr. Fred Gorder, is confined to her room by a severe attack of fever. Miss Beins parents live about two miles south of the city.

Rev. P. Gorden, pastor of the Congregational church, of Kellogg, Ia., is in the city. He will be remembered by some of the oldest settlers of this place as being the first Methodist Episcopal minister stationed here, about twenty-eight years ago. He will remain in the city over Sunday and will probably occupy a pulpit in one of the churches.

The city water company are obliged to lower their main pipes on Main street on account of the grading which is now going on. The pipes will be dropped down considerable. The job is very disagreeable as a trench has to be dug close to the side of the pipe where it will be dropped. Some experienced men are of the opinion that this work will not be successful and that much more trouble than is now expected will be experienced.

The Board of Directors of the Young Men's Christian Association met at their rooms Thursday evening and decided to have a formal opening on next Thursday evening, 23rd. The rooms are now open to the men of the city, and Mr. Bothwell tells us that railroad and traveling men will always find a welcome there. Mr. A. C. Clark, leader of the B. & M. band, is organizing an orchestra which will play at all the Sunday 4 p. m. meetings. They will be at the meeting tomorrow.

Mr. Henry McMaken received tomb stones today for the following veterans of the late war who have passed away: Wm. Amick, Co. H, 2nd Nebraska cavalry, buried at Eight Mile Grove; P. J. Becker, Co. F, 2nd Nebraska cavalry, buried at Kenosha; Corp. Jacob Coffman Co. L, 2nd Nebraska cavalry, buried at Eikenberry cemetery; Howard Allen, Co. A, 1st Nebraska infantry, buried at Rock Bluffs; Lieut. Republican Club Meeting

There will be a meeting of the young men's republican club next Monday night at the Court House. Business of importance will be transacted and arrangements made to attend the rally at Ashland, which will occur on the 26th. A full attendance is earnestly requested.

THE GRANDEST EVENT.

The Prominent Young Ladies of this City Again act as Escorts.

THEY DO THEMSELVES PROUD.

Their Ability as Entertainers Cannot be Exceeded in any Other Year.

The Gentlemen as Wall-Flowers.

Last night the second leap year ball was held at Fitzgerald's hall. It was certainly one of the grandest events of the season and much appreciated by all who participated. The ball was given in honor of the visiting ladies in the city: Misses Lou Engel and Anna Breed, of Hastings; Ida Martin, of Canton, Ohio; Mrs. Gerrans, of Lincoln; and Miss Lehman, of Omaha.

The following named young ladies officiated as reception committee and door managers: Katie Hemple, Cora Wayman, Irene Patterson, May Weckbach, Hattie Latham, Maggie Campbell, Georgia Oliver, Dora Herold.

The young men apparently enjoyed the situation and realized how pleasant it was to act as decorations to the wall. The affair was conducted by the young ladies in a manner which influenced the young men to believe that they were still capable of undertaking a greater task—recognizing all their leap year privileges. No young man present would attempt to rival his escort as an entertainer, and all were of the opinion that many did remarkably well, considering a limited experience. Since the first party given by the young ladies on this, their eventful year, they have improved, and with that improvement and encouragement of success, they will undoubtedly run their leap year boats ashore before they sink. Should any of them cast anchor for another term of four years, they may drift away and lose their course, with no available means of rescue. We trust that such will not prove true, but that the young ladies will pilot their barque through on time. The party did not break up until the "we sma' hours of the morn," each lady filling her program of twenty-four dances.

About twelve o'clock the ladies invited friends to partake of a repast, to which they did justice. About fifty couples were present, and the floor was only large enough to accommodate the crowd, the entire company joining in the grand march, which was one of the grandest ever seen in the city.

As near as possible the reporter secured the names of the young men and their escorts, and if any are omitted, it is only in oversight and we trust that none may feel slighted: Kate Hemple, Bert Pollock, Katie Goos, Bert Sage, Mary Haworth, Dr. Cook, Irene Patterson, Fred Murphy, Anna Breed, Cliff Shepherd, Georgia Oliver, Wm Schmidmann, Maggie Campbell, Maurice O'Rourke, Minnie Lehman, Omaha; Kate Steadleman, J. Cole, Ella Clark, Sam Pettersson, Maggie Oliver, Will Clements, Ida Boeck, Charley Morrison, Hattie Latham, Will Reinhardt, Laura Reinhardt, P. Keeler, May Beverage, Dave McEntee, Anna Beaumaster, Hans Goos, Mia Gering, Henry Herold, Lou Engel, Will Straight, Nettie Ballance, August Reinhardt, Aggie Hill, Geo Lenhoff, Mrs. Ed Gerrans, E. Schlegel, Mamie McCoy, Mr. Kellog, Maud McCoy, Wat Holmes, Cora Wayman, Frank Clark, Lou Simpson, Will Stadleman, May Patterson, Tom Parmale, Otto Eikenberry, Charley Murray, Frank Wiles, Mamie Stiles, Frank Dillon, Bellevue, Tressie Hemple, J. W. Maxwell, and Mr. Myers Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coursey, Mr. and Mrs. Will Miller, Birdie Irish, Ed Barker, Libbie Mitchell, John Langton, Anna Heisel, Charley Richey, Emma Wright, Ed Dutton, Dora Herold, Mr. Edwards, of Lincoln, Miss Main, Robt Duggdale, Miss Graves, Frank Dunlevy, Edith Hanna, D. R. Draymen, Miss Wilson, C. J. Kearney, Fred Carruth, Mary Skiles, Ida Martin, L. Moore, Lizzie Yenzer, Will Dayen port.

Among the visiting gentlemen, we noticed the following: Messrs. Fred Murphy, of Cedar Creek; T. W. Marshall, assistant cashier Capital National bank, Lincoln; E. E. Edwards, head of the Baum hardware Co., Lincoln; and Cliff Shepherd, Lincoln.

BALL NOTES.

The crowd was immense. The Plattsmouth girls are all right. The ball was kept rolling last night. Oh, Leap Year, wilt thou come again? What's more fun than a leap year ball?

The young men were daisies as wall flowers. The Plattsmouth boys envied the visitors.

The young ladies justly acquitted themselves.

The visiting young ladies appreciated the entertainment.

This year will certainly be remembered among the most eventful.

Leap Year only comes once in four years, but when it does come—oh, my!

Some of the visiting young ladies are thinking seriously of remaining in the city longer.

Will the young ladies not "catch on" to the cry of the young men of Plattsmouth: "Do not pass us by, or we will leap the next four years."

All attendance is earnestly requested.

THE SPLIT IN NEW YORK.

A Plattsmouth Citizen Writes to the Proprietors of the Fairport Chemical Works,

Concerning the Democratic Party Split.—The Reply.

Mr. H. D. Jackson, of the Young Men's Republican club, of this city, to learn the facts and satisfy himself concerning the newspaper reports to the effect that the manufacturing firms of DeLand & Co., of Fairport, N. Y., and H. C. Faber, of Utica, N. Y., had turned their political support from Cleveland and were supporting Harrison and Morton, on account of their tariff views, wrote to both establishments and received prompt and earnest answers. DeLand & Co. wrote:

FAIRPORT, N. Y., Oct. 16, 1888.

Mr. H. D. Jackson, Plattsmouth, Nebraska.—Dear Sir:—I have your esteemed letter of the 10th, and in reply would say: If the newspapers of Nebraska have reported that I am supporting Governor Hill with all my strength, and at the same time that I am opposing the election of Cleveland with the same earnestness, they have it right. I am a life-long democrat, but I cannot support the Mills bill, which is a part of the platform, as I know that if it should become a law it would ruin many of our most important industries. I enclose a clipping from our paper showing that there are many like me in this part of the country. Mr. Hunt is in our senatorial district, although in another county. We have served together for a number of years on this committee.

Yours Truly,

LEVI J. DE LAND.

ANOTHER MANUFACTURER'S VIEWS.

In reply to Mr. Jackson's letter, H. C. Faber, who is proprietor of an extensive trunk and traveling bag factory at Utica, N. Y., returned the following invincible reply:

UTICA, N. Y., Oct. 16, 1888.

Mr. H. D. Jackson—Dear Sir:—Yours of October 13th, inst., is just received, and in reply to your inquiry, would say that the enclosed clipping from the Utica Herald are my sentiments and belief.

And on the 6th of November next, democratic Utica will give a large majority for Harrison and Morton.

Yours respectfully,

WILLIAM WILSET, Sec.

A Switchman Badly Injured.

Last night about 11 o'clock, Ellis Goolish, a switchman in the B. & M. yards, met with what will probably prove a fatal accident. He tried to make a side coupling of two box cars, and stumbled over a clump of cinders. When he fell his left foot was run over, and the right leg coming in contact with the brake beam was badly mashed. The surgeon informs us that a wheel must have passed over the right leg as the bone was badly crushed. It will be necessary to amputate one limb, and it is feared they will have great difficulty in saving the other. His mother is a widow lady and dependent on him for support. It is not known yet what chances he has for recovery.

PERSONALS.

Mr. J. A. Sutton and wife of Louisville, are in the city.

Mrs. J. A. Fairchild left for Pacific Junction where she will visit over Sunday.

Mr. Frank Clark, of McCook, came to the city yesterday to attend the leap year ball last night.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Alderman and wife of Johnson, Neb., arrived in the city yesterday. They are visiting the parents of Mrs. Alderman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morrison.

Young Ladies Republican Club.

All members of the young ladies' republican club are requested to meet at Rockwood Hall tonight, for the purpose of drilling for the Ashland rally. There should be a full attendance.

GIRL WANTED.

Good wages will be paid a girl competent to do general house work. Apply at the residence of W. C. Showalter or at the office of the clerk of the district court, Rockwood Block, Plattsmouth, Neb.—tf.

THIS IS YOUR LAST AND ONLY OPPORTUNITY.

To consult Prof. Strassman who has done more for the advancement of science and the skillful application of glasses than any known person in the United States. He has saved thousands from partial and total blindness by the equalization of all inequalities of the eyes—and cases which have heretofore been pronounced as impossibilities by others are now the happiest mortals, possessing vigorous eyesight. The most skeptical must admit he is a master of his profession, or such person will die in ignorance. We have many such who rather tear down than build up and such persons are poisoned with venom of prejudice illiteracy and self conceit rather than to own up their mistake and selfishness. Such have no charity in their souls to see their neighbors or friends saved from the doom of blindness.

Silk Hankerchiefs, 35, 50, and 75c. each; Men's Underwear, 15, 25, and 50c. each; Fur Caps, 75c. and $1.00 each at Mayers' the Leading Clothiers.

It will pay you to walk blocks to see the display of plush goods, books, fancy goods &c., in J. P. Young's show window. Having just received a large line for his holiday trade, he invites the public to call and see them and get prices.

Don't forget to secure your reserved seat tickets, which go on sale Monday morning, at J. P. Young's, for "Jane Coombs," in the beautiful and realistic drama by Chas Dickens' "Blask House."

Regular prices 75, 50 and 35cts.

Mrs. Johnson has just received one of the finest displays of trimmed hats and bonnets ever brought to the city.

All work warranted. Prices reasonable.

Opening of the Opera House.

Last Wednesday was a red letter day in the history of Weeping Water. The grand opening of the Chase Opera House took place on that evening in the rendition of the fine military drama, "The Spy of Atlanta," by Prof. C. H. Colson and his assistants from Chicago, assisted by about 50 of our best home talent. The play met with such favor that after the "Dutch Recruits" had been played for two nights, the "Spy of Atlanta" was repeated on Saturday night to a large audience. These plays are both as fine military dramas as are on the boards to day, and with Prof. Colson in the leading roles, with his excellent support, they were last week acted to perfection.

The opera house is owned by Messrs. Chase and Upton. It has a seating capacity of about 400 and is furnished with the best seats to be had. The scenery is elegant. The entire building is heated with a large furnace located in the basement. Everything about the house is of the most modern design and no money was spared to complete it in the best manner possible, at a cost of between five and six thousand dollars. Everybody says it is the finest house of its size they ever saw. The proprietors are to be congratulated for their energy and enterprise. The city is to be congratulated on the possession of such a model of beauty and workmanship in the opera house. The people appreciate this enterprise on the part of Messrs. Chase & Upton, and will, we hope, lend them every support. First-class theater companies can now be secured, and the people can be comfortable, while they are at the same time benefited by listening to first-class entertainments. —Weeping Water Republican.

He tried to make a side coupling of two box cars, and stumbled over a clump of cinders. When he fell his left foot was run over, and the right leg coming in contact with the brake beam was badly mashed. The train was running at a high rate of speed and was almost completely wrecked. Engineer James Noonan and a passenger named Newell, of Wheeling, were instantly killed and about twenty people injured, a number of them seriously.

Among those injured seriously and who will probably die are Harry Brown, fireman and James W
