An Execution in Siam.

In the center of the field two short stakes had been driven into the ground, and to these when the executioners walked slowly out without any one to guard them. On arriving at the stakes they again prayed; they sat down with their backs toward the stakes, to which their arms were tied, after which an official walked out, blindfolded them with strips of linen, filled their ears with clay, and then retired with his assistants, leaving the condemned men alone in the middle of the field. About two minutes after the executioners walked out armed with Japanese swords and sat down some thirty paces beyond the prisoners. They sat thus for perhaps a minute; then rose and advanced toward the doomed men, executing fantastic dance like figures, almost as if cautiously approaching an enemy, till they came within striking distance, when they raised their swords as if to strike, but instead of doing so turned round and retired to where they started from. After a short pause they advanced again in the same manner, but, on coming close, stooped down and looked fixedly for about ten seconds into the faces of the prisoners, who sat perfectly motionless, and then again retired. The third time they advanced, and, as in the first instance, raised their swords as if to strike, but instead of doing so they turned round and again retired. Then they knelt down, and, bowing toward the commissioner, called out, in Siamese, that they awaited his order.

On receiving the word they advanced toward the prisoners more quickly than before, and when within reach, after standing for a few seconds with their swords poised in the air, proceeded to cut their heads off. The head of the man who had begged for his life was taken off at three blows, but seven or eight were struck before the head of the other—an immensely powerful looking man, with a thick, muscular neck—fell. The moment the first man's head fell his executioner ran off to a temple close by to perform certain rites, the other executioner following as soon as his victim's head was off.—Chicago Herald.

Contagiousness of Leprosy.

The contagiousness of leprosy still continues to be a mooted question. Dr. Buke, superintendent of the Trinidad Leper hospital, has made a report to the British Medical association which embodies the results of his experiments in the cultivation of the germ of leprosy, the bacillus leprose, which have been under way for the past four years. He says that (1) at a tropical temperature and on the ordinary nutrient media he has failed to grow the bacillus leprose; (2) in all animals yet examined he has failed to find any local growth or general dissemination of the bacillus after inoculation, whether beneath the skin, in the abdominal cavity, or in the anterior chamber; feeding with leprosy tissues has also given negative results; (3) he has found no growth of the bacillus leprose when placed in putrid fluids or buried in the earth. He further says that an inquiry of this kind is practically endless, so varied are the conditions of temperature, time, nutrient media, living animal tissues, or putrescent substance, and so many are the observations necessary to avoid or lessen the risk of errors of experiment.—Science.

In the Presence of a Spore.

The scourge which makes readers of telegraphic dispatches from Florida tremble appeals to a vague sense of horror and dread. It tells how helpless are we in the presence of a plague which is only a despicable little living thing, so infinitesimally little that we can neither see, nor touch, nor paint, nor kill it. If a Marks or Shepherd could only photograph it; if we could go netting for its coveys; if we could discover its habits and ring bells and catch its swarms in beehives; if we could build great fires in the streets and make streets and houses perfectly dry and force air currents burdened with these flying spores into flames; if we could see the shape and how these little creatures move, we could perhaps destroy them. But art and learning and genius and the truest heroism, ever illustrated in self sacrifice, are all impotent and uncrowned and humiliated in the presence of a spore.—Dupre in Birmingham (Ala.) News.

Where He Got It.

Magistrate—You say your name is Napoleon Bonaparte Pancho? Witness—Yes, sah, Magistrate—Where did you get that name? Witness—I wuz named arter my poo' ole fadder. His name was de same as mine. Napoleon Bonaparte, I specs, sah, am a family name.—Ulca Observer.

With Their Shoes On.

Five Kansas young ladies were recently caught in the middle of a long railroad bridge by a passenger train and forced to jump twenty feet into the water to save themselves. It would also be correct to state that it was a jump of ten feet.

Nature Is Kind.

People who eat garlic and smoke cigarettes, it is said, will never be attacked by yellow fever. Nature doesn't believe in piling on the agony.

WHAT ON EARTH

Is the reason people will not, can not, or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and ever bottle that does not do its work will cost you nothing. For sale by O. P. Smith & Co., druggists.

COUGH! and COUGH! and COUGH!

What in the world is the reason you will cough and keep coughing and still keep trying inferior medicines when BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP will positively relieve your cough at once? This is no advertising scheme, but an actual fact, and we guarantee it. Sold by O. P. Smith & Co., druggists.

HOW CAN PARENTS

allow their children to cough and strain and cough and cough and say "Oh! it is only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap and dangerous medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior, and few equals. For sale by O. P. Smith & Co., druggists.

A Word to Republicans.

The importance of the results of the present political campaign can not be overestimated by those who desire the success of the Republican party. The Democrats, besides the "Solid South," are in the North entrenched behind breastworks of public patronage. It will take steady, earnest, and united work to dislodge them. Nothing will so surely bring about that steady, earnest, and united work as the circulation of sound political literature, and OF THIS CLASS NO OTHER IS AS EFFICIENT AS THE DAILY AND WEEKLY NEWSPAPER. Speeches and documents are read by the few, and when read are laid aside; the newspaper is the fireside friend, the trusted family companion. Its influence is continuous, constant. The Republicans can not aid their party better than by circulating

The Daily Inter Ocean

It is a live Republican Newspaper, and has been faithful among the faithless in Chicago. No man has ever questioned its soundness on the platform, because the principles of the platform have been advocated by THE INTER OCEAN many years. PROTECTION TO AMERICAN INDUSTRIES AND AMERICAN MARKETS FOR AMERICAN PRODUCERS have been its battle cries from the beginning. It did not take it six weeks to ascertain whether it could stand on the platform or not.

Republicans have done much to aid in the inculcation of false political doctrines by patronizing papers that advocate them. Why should they do so when they can avoid it by subscribing for THE INTER OCEAN, which is acknowledged to be

The Best and Most Reliable Newspaper

Published in Chicago? In enterprise, news, editorial ability, and everything that goes to make a COMPLETE NEWSPAPER it is unexcelled by any of its contemporaries.

Every Republican ought to subscribe for it.

Every workingman ought to subscribe for it.

It is the paper for all classes of patriotic people who believe in protecting the homes of America.

You can subscribe through your newsdealer or postmaster. If you are unable to do that send direct to the office of publication. Sample copies are always sent on application.
