OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

A. Salisbury, Dentist, Rockwood Building, Telephone No. 35.
Dr. Higgins, Office in Gering's Drug Store, Residence Cor. Sixth and Granite, Telephone No. 12.
Dr. Withers, the Painless Dentist, Union Block, over Fricke's Drug Store, Plattsmouth.

CITY CORDIALS.

—Election day will be just one week from today.
—Wm. Smith was arrested last night for being drunk and disorderly on the streets.
—The artificial stone makers are laying a foundation for a stone walk in front of Blake's saloon.
—If you have not been there before, go and guess how many beans "Joe" has in his jar. It will cost you nothing.
—The ladies of the Presbyterian Aid society are requested to meet at the home of Mrs. W. D. Jones, Wednesday, Oct. 31, at 3 p. m.
—The Omaha Bee comes out today in sixteen pages. The cause is attributed to the opening of the new bridge between Omaha and Council Bluffs.
—The newspapers of this city are laboring under many difficulties today. Their evils have struck. They have not yet become naturalized.
—One week from today will certainly be an eventful one. The democracy which has broke forth in our midst, will after that day, remain subdued.
—It is reported that Collins, who lately returned to this city from his extended pleasure trip over the country, started to work at the shops here yesterday morning.
—Handsome lithographs advertising the "Cold day company," are quite prominent on all available locations this morning. Their play is a genuine comedy and will surely catch a house.
—Notice. I. O. O. F. members of the degree staff are requested to be present at meeting of Cass Lodge 146 tonight, as business of importance will come before the lodge. By order of captain of the team.
—The working hours for the shops have been changed within the past few days. The men now commence work a quarter of an hour earlier in the morning and only take three quarters of an hour at noon, allowing them half an hour at night—half past five.
—Mr. Robt. Geinger, who has been employed in the office of Mr. Fred Latham as ticket agent, left last night for Everett, Pa., where he was called by a dispatch announcing that his sister was sick. He says he will remain in that state to swell the republican majority.
—The B. of L. F. are entertaining great anticipations for their third annual ball which will be held on Thanksgiving evening, Wednesday, November 28th, 1888, at the Waterman opera house. Their balls have all been the most successful on previous occasions, and we bespeak for them success in the coming event.
—The young ladies of the Presbyterian church will give a social at Rockwood hall, Friday evening, Nov. 2nd. A short program has been prepared, after which, refreshments will be served. Everybody is cordially invited to be present. The proceeds are for the benefit of the Sunday School Library.
—"Joe" the popular one price clothier has made an offer to the public worth special notice. He offers a $20 suit of clothes to the person guessing the correct number, or the nearest to it, of beans contained in a jar. No expense is connected with the guess, and if this is not a splendid good chance for some man to secure a suit of clothes as a present, we lose our guess.
—Sometimes when an editor endeavors to be impressively serious, he develops quite a talent in the humorous line. Thus, when he solemnly assures his readers that McShane will be elected governor of Nebraska, he develops a fund of wit quite charming. The election of McShane and Belya Lockwood will mark a new era in the American history, and mark it in red.—Lincoln Journal.
—Mr. Mart Cushing, who was obliged to protect his home last Sunday afternoon against insults from Mr. Rogan, with whom he had a tussle, wishes the public to know that Rogan is not in the fault so much as was at first supposed. He informs us that it was a job put up by the strikers to be revenged on him, and that they knew he was at home at the time. Their desire was to get him thumped, but the scheme did not work.
—Miss Clara Paul and Mand Barnes will give another concert, at York, on Friday evening next. The programme will be something similar to the one given here last week with the exception of the performers. They have engaged the following Plattsmouth talent for the occasion: Mrs. Carpenter, Miss Emma Johnson, Mrs. Campbell, and Mr. W. A. Derrick. We wish them success and hope they will represent Plattsmouth in a praiseworthy manner.

PERSONALS.

Hon. J. W. Barnes, of York, passed through the city to-day.
Mr. D. A. Campbell and family are spending the day in the country.
Messrs Mike Cavey and Will Delles, of Elmwood, are in the city to-day.
Mr. Geo. Krug of the popular St. Louis brewing firm, was in the city yesterday on business.
Messrs. Davies and Polk addressed a large audience of voters at the Gilmore school house last night.
Mr. Edwin Jewry, of Greenwood, nominee for representative on the republican ticket, is in the city today.
Mrs. S. S. Dillenback, of Ida Grove, Ohio, arrived in the city last night. She will visit at the home of Mr. Lovorn for a short time.
Mrs. Dr. Emmons took her departure for Denver this morning where she will visit her sister for a short time and re-cruit her health.
Mr. Fred Hebert, a former resident of this city, at one time employed on the Journal staff here but now following up his trade at Sioux City, is in the city to-day calling on his numerous friends.
Miss Clara Paul will give a musical recital to her pupils and their friends to-night at her rooms in the Herold block. She has been very successful in securing pupils since starting in here, and all speak favorably of their advancement under her instructions.
Dr. D. T. Smith, of the firm of Cave & Smith who had a dental office here for some time, is in the city today. He is on his way from his home in Indiana where he has been visiting for some time, to Grand Island, to make arrangements for opening up an office in D. s. Moines.
Men's Heavy working boots worth $3, $3.50 and $4.00 selling at half price to close before our removal. S. & C. Mayer the Popular Clothier.
Louisville.
Miss Mary DeWitt closed a fall term of school in district No. 86 last Friday.
Mrs. Wm. Carr, of Greenwood, was the guest of her sister Mrs. Barker, Saturday and Sunday.
Remember the rally here to-night. (Tuesday) Let every republican turn out and help to make it a success.
Let every teacher remember the Local to be held here next Saturday at the High school building beginning at 10:30 a. m., following is the programme:
School management, J. W. Berge, opening discussion Emma Duncan; Orthography J. L. Burwell, opening discussion Maggie Free; Civil government A. H. Waterhouse, opening discussion A. M. Bushnell; Relation of teacher and parent, M. Spink, opening discussion LaVerta Morse; Physiology, J. C. Current, opening discussion J. E. Leyda; Arithmetic, May Coner, opening discussion Minnie Angel; History, Wm. Latta, opening discussion Marcia Wood; Morals in schools, D. E. Reese; opening discussion Mary E. Barker.
Overcoats for men with fur collars and cuffs for $12.50 at Mayer's Popular Clothing Store.
Card of Thanks.
We desire to express our sincere thanks for the many kindnesses shown to us by our many friends during our great misfortune and bereavement, in the sickness and death of our little son, Richard. We feel deeply grateful for the kind sympathy and interest shown to us by our many friends and also to the choir for assisting in the services at the funeral.
MR. AND MRS. E. M. GOODWIN.
Elson the One Price is selling Chinchilla Overcoats, Beaver Collars and Cuffs, at $15.00.
—The funeral of the late John R. Valery takes place at his late residence, about six miles west of the city, tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. It is expected that there will be a large attendance, as he was well known in this vicinity.
Gold and silver spectacles at H. M. Gault's.
—Mr. W. H. Baker, proprietor of the postoffice book store, is making preparations at present to remove his stock. He will occupy the corner store room in the Anheuser-Busch building, which will be ready for occupancy the latter part of the week.
Children's overcoats $1.25, Boy's overcoats $1.50, Men's overcoats $1.75 at Mayer's Popular Clothing store.
—"Love and Law" was played at the Waterman opera house last night by the Milton Nobles company to as satisfactory a house as we have seen there yet this season. The performance was purely first-class, and many favorable comments have been passed today on its merit. The play was full of wit of the highest order, and those who did not appreciate it, can rest assured that the company and the play were all right, and that their taste has not been cultivated up to that standard.
Men's Wool mitts at 25 cents, Men's fur hats $1.25, Men's fur stiff hats $1.50 at Mayer's Popular Clothing Store.
—A large number of Plattsmouth people went up to Omaha this morning to attend the grand opening of the new bridge between Council Bluffs and Omaha.
