OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

A. Salisbury, Dentist, Rockwood Building, Telephone No. 35. Dr. S. S. Gilling, Office in Gering's Drug Store, Residence Cor. Sixth and Granite, Telephone No. 42. Dr. Withers, the Palace Dentist, Union Block, over Fricke's Drug Store, Plattsmouth.

CITY CORDIALS.

-Vote for Polk. -It's a "Cold Day," go and see it played tonight. -What's the matter with Cleveland? Nobody knows. -We would like to see every republican get Thayer. -The republicans are betting two to one on Harrison. -The flies roost on Cleveland, and he can't get suckers to bite. -The republicans can be contented to act Polk-y at this election. -Cleveland will ask Thurman for his bandana on Wednesday morning. -All prodigals have returned home to vote. Harrison will kill the fatted calf for them. -Judge Russell united in marriage last Saturday afternoon, Mr. John West and Miss Joseph Kasl. -If all people were to "vote as they pray," it wouldn't take long to count the ballots. -Lincoln Journal. -A certain young man has not provided himself with the proper Gearing to pull through this election. -The arrival of a little daughter at the home of Mr. George Doney yesterday can be given as the reason for his numerous pleasant expressions today. -It is reported that Cleveland now wears an adjustable hat to serve the purpose of fitting a changeable head. It will be stretched to its full extent Wednesday morning. -Please remember the ladies lunch room tomorrow, in the building corner of Main and 4th streets. Hot coffee and lunch at all hours, oysters in the evening, every body invited. -Mr. C. M. Holmes is in Omaha today purchasing cattle for the Plattsmouth market. He returns tonight on this side of the Missouri with the intention of swimming the herd across the Platte. -The assignment of Mr. John A. Dayies to speak at Murray on the evening of November 2nd was a mistake, in as much as he had been previously assigned for Avoca, by the county central committee. -The "Cold Day Company" arrived this morning and they are all prepared to present their popular comedy at the opera house tonight. It is expected that there will be a full turnout as the seats are being sold rapidly at J. P. Young's store. -The bluff on south Third street is being cut away and the ground used to fill up the old creek on the north side. It will make a vast improvement in the appearance and convenience of that locality. The "cut," which contains a thousand horrors for many people who are obliged to pass that way, will be opened up so that it will present the appearance of a street more than a demon's den, as it is now known. -A bachelor's club, comprising about twenty members, has again been organized in this city within the last week. They have rented a convenient room in the Fitzgerald block, and have furnished it so completely that it will certainly prove to be a great attraction for their society during the long winter nights. Every accommodation has been provided by them, and we certainly believe, as well as everybody, that it was a wise move. -Dr. J. H. Hall, who is well known in the city, leaves tomorrow night for Philadelphia. He will be accompanied by his wife, who will remain there during the winter, while he attends the Jefferson Medical college to take a course of lectures. Dr. Hall was a student under Dr. Livingston about eight years ago after which he graduated at the Rush Medical college at Chicago, and then attended the Bellevue college hospital at New York for some time. He goes to Philadelphia to make a complete study of his profession, and he has the best wishes of the HERALD for success in his work. -Messrs. J. C. Gilmore and Matthew Gering, the democratic jumbo and their banty, assisted by Andrew Matoush and Will Holey, two democratic Bohemians, addressed a large assemblage of Bohemians yesterday afternoon at their school house in the west end of the city. We learned that as the orators, David and Goliath, could not reach the comprehension of the foreigners, they gave up the job after a few minutes talk and the other two gentlemen spoke for a short time to their brothers. We don't believe the meeting will be material in changing any votes.

The recital at the Methodist church last evening was fairly attended, though the character of the entertainment was such as to entitle it to a very large audience. To speak of the performances in detail would be superfluous, as one word—"splendid"—applies to all of them. Miss Barnes and Miss Paul deserve great credit for the selections as well as their individual performances. Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. Campbell are both beautiful singers, and sustained their parts well. Mr. Derrick has a very fine and highly cultivated voice, which he uses with the very best effect. The frequent and hearty "encores" indicated the high appreciation of the performances. It is not too much to say that this was one of the very best musical entertainments ever given in York, and if repeated would draw a much larger audience.—York Daily Times. The party who went from this city to assist in the above recital, returned by the flyer Saturday afternoon, feeling well repaid for the trip, and much refreshed after a couple of days' recreation. All were favorably impressed by the entertainment received at the hands of their hosts, and entertain fond recollections of their successful efforts. The following are the names of those composing the party: Miss Clara Paul, Mrs. D. A. Campbell, Mrs. Carpenter, Miss Emma Johnson and Mr. W. A. Derrick. Overcoats for men with fur collars and cuffs for $12.50 at Mayer's Popular Clothing Store. A Correction. MR. EDITOR:—I wish to say that my little girl is not leader of the Zither club, as was stated in Saturday's daily. Mrs. Clark is both leader and instructor. Mrs. T. M. KAUBLE.

Who is He? John Murphy of Plattsmouth visited Omaha Saturday for the purpose of buying goods. He had several hundreds of dollars with him and expended the greater portion of it before starting for home at night, but he still had about $40 when near the B. & M. depot. When near the ice house he was assaulted by an unknown man, who struck him over the head with some sharp instrument, cutting his scalp to the bone and knocking him senseless. Robbery was evident the object of the assailant, but he was apparently frightened away before accomplishing his purpose, as Mr. Murphy's valuables were untouched. He was removed to Bell's drug store, where his wounds were dressed, but not in time to catch the train for home.—Omaha Bee. Ladies Called Meeting.
