

The Evening Herald. OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

A. Salisbury, Dentist, Rockwood Building, Telephone No. 25. Dr. Sigling, Office in Gering's Drug Store, Residence Cor. Sixth and Granite, Telephone No. 42. Dr. Withers, the Painless Dentist, Colon Block, over Fricke's Drug Store, Plattsmouth.

CITY CORDIALS.

Mr. Dan Spurgeon was jailed last night for being drunk and disorderly on the streets.

Timothy McCarthy was arrested last night for being drunk and disorderly on the streets.

Col. A. R. Anderson, the independent candidate for congress, of Sidney, Iowa, was defeated.

A large crowd of Harison and Morton juveniles had the city lighted up last night with bonfires.

J. B. Weaver, the Iowa greenbacker who was a candidate for congress from the Sixth district, was defeated by a good majority.

Louis Bauer, the six-year old son of Mr. John Bauer, who died last Tuesday from membranous croup, was buried this morning at 10 o'clock. He was aged 6 years, 9 months and 28 days.

Mr. Frank Carruth, a prominent republican and a live business man of this city, showed us the first ticket he ever voted—the old union ticket on which Abraham Lincoln was elected. It is a sacred treasure to him.

A club of seven young men of this city have contracted to give parties on their respective birthdays. Mr. Charley Murphy falls a victim to the penalty on this his eighteenth birthday, and tonight his six friends, accompanied by their young lady friends will meet at his home to do him the honor due.

Mrs. John Gradirile, a Bohemian lady who lived on Pearl street, died yesterday at 12 o'clock. She was afflicted with dropsy, and had been ailing for some time. She leaves a husband and five children to mourn her loss. She was 45 years of age. The funeral took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The ladies of St. Luke's Guild are agitating a Chrysanthemum social and hop, which is to be held in Fitzgerald's hall on Thursday evening, November 15th. The ladies of the above society are putting forth every effort to make the coming event, the event of the season. As it will vary much from the ordinary style, the coming social and dance will be a great novelty here. They will surely secure a good crowd.

Miss Etta Shepherd gave a progressive euchre party last night at her home in honor of her guest, Miss Kennish. There were about fifteen young ladies and gentlemen present, and a very enjoyable evening was spent at the game. Miss Mia Gering secured the ladies prize, a beautiful card sack containing a package of cards. Mr. E. M. Schlegel secured the gentlemen's prize—a paper weight in the form of an alligator, while the booby prize was awarded Mr. L. Moore.

An invitation was received this afternoon from the secretary of the state central committee asking all republicans to attend a grand jolification meeting to be held at Lincoln tomorrow night. One hundred names can be secured, a special train will be run from Plattsmouth to Lincoln at a reduced rate of fare.

The war is over and the county seat still remains where it belongs. The self important creatures of our sister burg failed in their disreputable schemes to remove the county seat from here to that corporation of nincompoops. Over this matter there has been more skull-duggery on the part of those people than we are yet able to comprehend, and still they have not secured a grip. The community cannot be completely civilized when peaceable citizens from here endanger their lives by visiting the place. Two young men from here were so badly used up there on election day that they still bear the marks of violence received, at the hands of a mob of ruffians, and they report that had they not made their escape when they did, their lives would have been valued as nothing. Sewardpool, one of the young men from here informed us that they were standing near the polling place, without offering a word of insult to anyone, when they were pommelled. He said that some unknown person came up to them when he recognized them as Plattsmouth men, and advised them to leave the town, or bear the consequence if they remained. As they supposed the law was recognized there and that on man had as much right to stand in the streets as another, they paid little attention to the threat. We are informed that an all-important personage named Woolley picked up a brick or a stone and struck him violently in the back, and then the scene opened up. They fled for their lives, and did not stop until they reached Manley, a small station a short distance from there, and they were obliged to send some person after their rig, which they had to leave at Weeping Water. The two fellows were pretty roughly handled and they will not recover from the blows received for some time. This city became indignant when the news was circulated that such depredations had been committed, and the citizens' blood for resentment arose within their veins. We trust that the toughs who were guilty of these acts will sorely regret them.

PRECINCT RETURNS.

Given as Far as Obtainable—They Come in Slowly, and Divide the Ticket.

Louisville. W. B. Shryock was at the county seat Wednesday looking after the election returns.

Superintendent Maynard Spink passed through the city yesterday enroute for Plattsmouth.

Every thing at election was quiet and satisfactory; the vote stands 116 democratic and 115 republican.

Mr. A. W. Hall has changed locations from the Pacific house to the Louisville house.

Mrs. F. S. Rockwell left for McCook Monday morning on the flyer.

Our town was honored with the presence of a goodly number of teachers last Saturday; they report a profitable and pleasant "local."

Miss Stell Neely and her two sisters have been quite sick but are slowly improving.

Mrs. M. Peterson and her son were in Omaha on business Tuesday.

The democrats say: "The star is dimed that lately shone." Even that disciple whom he loved, poor Grover had to send him home."

We can now Murrah for Harrison Home and Honey Morton Might and Money.

Mrs. Kate Johnson, of Valpariso, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Allen, the past week.

Mrs. Julius Bates has been granted a pension of $20 per month for herself and four children.

Now that the election is over and the democrats have very handsomely scooped off the Journal man will advertise the lay and hour where he will pay that election bet with his Iowa friend, we will take the responsibility of promising him a delegation of one hundred from Rock Bluffs precinct to witness that payment of that wheelbarrow debt.

A new line of Astrachan Coats and Vests just received at S. & C. Mayer and selling fast at $13. d-tf

An American press dispatch was received here last night to the effect that New York gave Cleveland a majority of about 15,000. The report called forth the most intense excitement for some time from both parties, until a party of our staunch republicans who could not view the dispatch as anything but a hoax or a money-making scheme, telegraphed to Omaha to learn the truth of the matter. Word was soon received that the report was false. This morning the Omaha Herald conceded that their ticket was lost, giving a detailed report of the cause and endeavoring to show up the great error the American people were to blame for.

PERSONALS.

Mr. W. Shryock of Louisville, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. W. G. Keefer returned from Wahoo this morning, where he went to cast his ballot.

Miss Maggie Straight returned from South Bend this morning after a short visit with her cousin, there.

Mr. E. M. Schlegel, time-keeper of the master-mechanic's office, took his departure for Rapid City, Dakota, this morning, where he will visit a few days with friends.

Mr. George Staats, clerk in Mr. J. P. Young's book store, is left a grass widower, and for the next two months he will be compelled to pull through a siege. His wife will visit at her home in Pekin, Ill., during that time. She took her departure last night.

Mr. Cliff Shepherd, who returned to his home here on account of sickness, has recovered sufficiently to again attend to his duties as clerk in the office of the B. & M. R. R. fuel department at Lincoln. He was threatened with typhoid fever, but we were pleased to see him rally forth before the disease secured a firm hold upon him.

Amusements The patrons of Taylor's Opera House were much pleased with the charming performance of Miss Tutcin in the musical comedy of "Struck Gas," last evening. Miss Tutcin is new to us but hereafter she may be sure of a warm welcome. Her style is peculiarly her own; fascinating, bright, and original; and that coupled with a very sweet voice wick by the way she knows how to use, is a rare combination. Mr Harry Pepper sang and acted his part to perfection, and the rendition of his ballads was a musical treat.—Trenton True American.

Go and laugh tomorrow night at "Struck Gas".
