OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

A. S. Sallaway, Dentist, Rockwood Building, Telephone No. 33.

Dr. Stangor, Office in Gering's Drug Store, Residence Cor. Sixth and Granite, Telephone No. 42.

Dr. Withers, the Painless Dentist, Union Block, over Fricke's Drug Store, Plattsmouth.

CITY CORDIALS.

—The Elmwood Echo says Sherman's a liar. Wonder if he is?

—"Rhea" at the Waterman opera house to-night. Everybody go.

—Lost—A tiger eye cube charm. The finder will be suitably rewarded for its return to Fred Carruth.

—Thank heavens, it is over.—Elmwood Echo. We think Plattsmouth put it all over them, and this is where the thank comes in.

—The Union Leader, which has recently come to light, can find room as yet in the first column of its editorial for the names of the subscribers.

—The train passing through York to Lincoln, which was to convey the Rhea company, was so late that they will not arrive in the city until the flyer is due.

—On figuring by the vote of Cass county at the last election, it is estimated that the population will aggregate about 41,550, showing a growth since 1870 of 18,850.

—The trial docket of the September adjourned term, 1888, of the district court of Cass county, has been printed and distributed. The September adjourned term opens on the 19th of this month.

—Elmwood gave Weeping Water 156 votes for county seat, Manley 4, Plattsmouth 1 and Elmwood 1.—Elmwood Echo. Thanks. There is one sensible man in your midst. He deserves the fattest sit on the list and he may echo the truth to your village.

—The street car company are engaged in laying their track again, and the work has been completed as far as Sixth street, on Vine. The city has been without street transportation for some time, and the suburban residents of the city who are obliged to walk to their places of business daily, will be pleased to see the work progress.

—The Chrysanthemum social and hop given by the young ladies of St. Luke's church at Fitzgerald's hall last night met with encouraging success. The most beautiful display of Chrysanthemums ever seen in this city adorned a large table which reached from one end of the hall to the other and won much praise for Mr. L. Moore, the florist who furnished them for the society. The hall was comfortably filled with pleasure-seekers who indulged in a delightful dance until a late hour. The Bohemian band furnished the music for the occasion.

—Mr. G. B. Kempster, it is reported, is endeavoring to secure the required number of singers in this city to produce the cantata of "Queen Esther," in a creditable style. We do not know what success he has met with so far, but we have heard several of the ambitious young musicians expressing their desire to participate in such a production. As this beautiful cantata has not been presented in the city for years, the prospects for success are evident, and if this gentleman succeeds in bringing a class of trained singers before the public in this piece, we bespeak for him rich compensation.

—The Y. M. C. A. rooms, which are located on Fourth and Main streets, have become a very desirable quarter for young men of the city. The rooms are comfortably furnished, convenient to the city, abundantly supplied with first-class literature of all kinds, and various game tables. No stranger, who can enjoy himself at any edifying amusement or study can feel himself anywhere but admirably provided for. The rooms are fast becoming popular among the young men, and as the nights grow colder and the rooms present a more attractive appearance, there will no doubt be difficulty in accommodating the crowd. Success for this popular association in Plattsmouth is already apparent.

—Mr. Coon Vallery, a staunch democrat living a few miles west of this city, has signed contracts which will, unless he manages to throw up the job in some mysterious way he is not onto at present, keep him hustling for the entire winter months. If pressed for a bet we believe he would have staked his life on Cleveland's election if he had run short of funds, but as it is he has only signed contracts, and the execution of them is apparently worrying him enough at present. We learned that he made a contract with one, Wm. Witten camp, to shell two thousand bushels of his corn gratis, if Harrison was elected president for the coming term, and it defeated, those with whom he contracted were to pay him double money for shelling the same amount. "Coon" will not run across many homesome hours during the winter because of no work for him made a number of such contracts which he will be obliged to complete. He admitted the wrong "this" that time.

A Happy Event.

A happy event occurred yesterday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Kate Oliver in the marriage of her daughter, Miss Julia, to Mr. Charles Ends. It was the most extensive affair which has been seen in this city for many a day, nearly a hundred guests being present. Joy apparently reigned supreme in the presence of the happy couple, and each face in the large assemblage expressed a sentiment of good wishes for future happiness and prosperity to the contracting party. The bride and groom are both favorably and extensively known here, having resided here for years and earned the friendship of many. The bride was attired in a most beautiful pea green silk and presented a very charming appearance. Rev. J. T. Baird of the Presbyterian church tied the knot. Miss Eda Wiggens, of Ashland, acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. D. C. Morgan, of this city, as groomsmen, and they performed their parts gracefully.

The happy couple took their departure for Burlington, Ia., the home of the groom, by the flyer shortly after the ceremony was performed. Refreshments, consisting of all the delicacies of the season, were served in abundance shortly before the couple took their departure.

—The fire alarm was sounded last night about 10 o'clock and news spread that a fire had broken out in the 3rd ward. It was discovered that a small fire, at the rear of a house on Marble street in which Mr. Ed Emery and family side, was on fire. Great difficulty was experienced in extinguishing the flame before it reached the house, and had a mild south wind been blowing at the time here would have been no possible chance to save the main building. A short time after the alarm was sounded the fire hose team of the 3rd ward put in an appearance, but as their hose lacked over a hundred feet of reaching the desired spot, no effective work could be done by throwing water and it was abandoned. The cry arose "Where are the other hose carts?" and the excuse came that the second ward cart could not be pulled from its station on account of the high bank left in front by the grading, and all attempts to get it out to the fire were given up. The general opinion is that half the town would have burned before another effort would have been made to get more hose to the fire. Such a way of leaving the fire apparatus seems very negligent on the part of the fire company and steps should be taken immediately to make preparations for another fire should one ever occur again.
