

The Evening Herald. OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY. A. Salisbury, Dentist, Rockwood Building, Telephone No. 25.

CITY CORDIALS.

The Rhea company left for Council Bluffs this morning where they will hold forth this evening. Plattsmouth cast a solid vote of 2,310 against the interests of Cass county.

The leap year sociable which will be given by the "Y's" at the residence of Mr. Wash Smith, tomorrow evening, has become the main subject for conversation among the young men.

Since the paving of Main street is about completed it must be about time for some more of the business men to commence work on the building of sidewalks of some description in front of their business houses.

O'Rourke's dog, of Plattsmouth, cast its vote for keeping the county seat at that burg. Down there they think it is funny, but it is an insult to the people just the same.

The following figures are emblematic of the classical standing of Plattsmouth with other places of the same population and less. The receipts at the opera house last night amounted to $139.50, while at York they gave them $350, and Grand Island, $540, the two last towns in which the Rhea company played before reaching Plattsmouth.

Rhea and her excellent company appeared at the Waterman opera house last night in Shakespeare's "Much Ado About Nothing." The house was fairly large but did not fully reach the expectations of the management, on such a rare occasion for this city.

Mr. Waterman, proprietor of the Waterman opera house, has made arrangements to give a complimentary benefit to the manager of the opera house, Mr. J. P. Young, on the evening of November 29th, (Thanksgiving night).

Celebration at Greenwood. GREENWOOD, NEB., Nov. 15.—The closing political event of the year was the republican ratification here last night. There were few visitors but the people of Greenwood turned out en masse to witness, or assist in, the final work of the campaign.

A new line of Astrachan Coats and Vests just received at S. & C. Mayer and selling fast at $13.

Pirates on the Missouri. NEBRASKA CITY, Nov. 15.—Last evening a request was received by the chief of police to look out for five men, supposed to be coming down the river on a flatboat which they had stolen, together with other property, at Plattsmouth.

Woolen Jackets from $1 and upwards made by the celebrated Germania Knitting Mills, at S. & C. Mayer.

Grand Entertainment At Waterman's opera house the evening of Tuesday, November 27. Given by Maj. R. H. Hendershot and son, assisted by the best local musical talent, under the auspices of the W. R. C.

Ask for Mayers Laundered Shirts the best in the market either plain or plaited bosom, only $1 at S. & C. Mayer.

Thursday, November 29, is set apart by Governor Thayer as a day of thanksgiving. Plattsmouth will give thanks to the Dago's, for saving to them the county seat; yes, the Dago should be taken to church that day by all means; don't be selfish down there on that occasion, it cost you lots of money to hire men to do your dirty work, now give generous thanks for the result.

For perfect fitting Suits or Overcoats for Men Boys and Children call on S. & C. Mayer the popular Clothiers.

The new colored church which has recently been erected here will be dedicated next Sunday afternoon. The service will commence at 3 o'clock and Elder Woodby and Rev. Harris, of Omaha, and Elder Watson, of Nebraska City, will address the audience.

The "grouse" which was shot by a couple of hunters in some farmers barnyard a couple of days ago, made an elegant chicken stew. Some farmers were also paid well to allow them the privilege of shooting at their turkeys.

Mr. Will Crehan, who had his head severely cut about a week ago while at work in the pump-house at the water works, has recovered sufficiently from the injury to be around on the streets.

The circulating library belonging to the members of the Y. L. R. R. A. has been placed in the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, but the members of the ladies' reading circle are to have the usage of the books.

Riddle house arrivals: O. H. Draper, J. D. Morris, D. Straw, Wells, Minn.; C. McIntire, Burlington; Aug. Rothe, Chicago; Mr. Feiler, Chicago.

W.; Henry, Heck; Johnston, Mrs. H. L.; Money, J. W.; Montgomery, H.; Moser, H. B.; Sculler, James; Vallery, Walter; Wroth, Thomas.

An Ingenious Poison Stopper. An ingenious stopper has lately been patented for use in bottles containing poisons. The stopper is made of india rubber, and is surmounted by a perforated ball of india rubber brightly colored so as to render it distinctive in the light, and containing a bell which rattles when the bottle is moved, thus drawing attention to the character of the contents, even though it be impossible to see the label.

A table prepared for a workingman's society in Leipzig represents that a loss of different members of the body reduces the capacity to gain a living in the following proportions: Loss of both arms, legs, hands or feet, 100 per cent.; loss of right hand, 40 per cent.; of right thumb, 33 1-3 per cent.; of one eye, 22 per cent.; of left thumb or right index finger, 14 per cent.; of any finger, 5 per cent.—Brooklyn Eagle.

European Troops in India. The total number of European troops in English India in 1888 was 61,015, and the average death rate per 1,000 was 15.18. In the province of Bengal there were 32,000 men, and the death rate was 15.6. In the province of Madras 11,000, and the death rate 16.2. Province of Bombay 11,000, death rate 12.7. The number of native troops was 106,010, and the death rate was 12.46 per 1,000.—Chicago Herald.

A Bible Lesson.

"Johppie, who was the most patient man?" "Gen. Harrison." "Harrison? Well, I expected you to say Job; but since Harrison reads several thousands of letters of congratulation without murmur every day, I guess you're right. Please move to the head of the class."

His Eye in a Sling. "Yes, I can tell nearly all about a man's habits from the appearance of his eyes." "Please experiment on me." "Easy enough; you are in the habit of referring to large men as Hars."
