CITY CORDIALS.

—Order your poultry of the Empire market.

—Chaplain Wright has been confined to his bed for the past few days with sickness.

—Thanksgiving day will be dead on turkeys. They will all be "gobbled" in this vicinity.

—New York Sun:—"Murray & Murphy are among the cleverest of all the Irish comedians.

—Thanksgiving day will be a great convenience to republicans. It happens along in the right time.

—New York Telegram:—"Murray & Murphy received a welcome that must have gladdened their hearts. Their faces are their fortune."

—New York Mail and Express:—"Our Irish Visitors is all that it pretends to be. The audience laughed and applauded immoderately."

—Wonder what the farmers around Weeping Water will do with their farm hands now since the county seat question is settled? The town went feel like putting up for them any longer.

—The "Y's" will hold their leap year social tonight at the residence of Mr. Wash Smith, corner of 5th and Marble streets. It is expected to be a grand affair as all leap year events are.

—The Weeping Water Eagle soars a little too high on Dago charges against Plattsmouth. Come down, or Plattsmouth may call you down, and this paper will have a chance to HERALD the drop.

—It is the intention of our city fathers to again make an attempt to meet at the council chamber tonight. The cause of the several postponements this week is attributed to the sickness of a couple of members.

—The dance given last night at Fitzgerald hall by the machinists of the B. & M. shops here was better attended than any occasion of the kind this year. The hall was crowded so that much difficulty was experienced in making room for the dancers.

—Gertrude McCarthy, infant daughter of Mr. Con McCarthy, section foreman, died last night at 10 o'clock of membranous croup. She was aged one year and eight months. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the father's residence, Third street.

—Secure your tickets for Murray and Murphy in "Our Irish Visitors," at the opera house next Monday night. Our citizens know what the company and play is, and therefore do not need any praise at our hands. They draw crowded houses everywhere and the company is reported far better than last year when here.

—Mr. T. H. Leach was very agreeably surprised yesterday by receiving an order for $115.00 from the treasury department, being the amount due him for a horse and saddle which he sold to the government in 1862, the voucher for which was lost. He had tried repeatedly to collect the bill, but without avail, and had almost given up all hope of doing so.

—Remember the "Benefit" for Manager Young on Thanksgiving night, when the beautiful comic opera "La Mascott" will be presented by the Andrews Opera company consisting of 30 first-class artists and a fine orchestra. This opera has not been presented here, since Foy Templeton opened the opera house, and it is hoped our citizens will appreciate the coming of a first-class opera company and give Mr. Young a rousing benefit.

—The dedication services will be held in the new colored M. E. church tomorrow afternoon, commencing at 3 o'clock. Elder Woolby and Rev. Harris of Omaha, and Elder Watson, of Nebraska City, will address the audience. There will be a morning service commencing at 10 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Boswell. All ministers of the city are cordially invited to assist in the services tomorrow afternoon.

—The winter again at hand. The second snow storm of the season was seen here today.

—Judge Russell granted license to wed last evening to Mr. Mathew A. Daugharty and Miss Emma H. Butler, also today, to Mr. Wm. Knadle and Miss Clara Welton.

—A small party of Plattsmouth people were entertained last night at the home of Mr. W. J. Hesser, who lives about five miles southwest of this city. A very pleasant evening was spent.

—On Tuesday evening, Nov. 27th, N. D. Hubbard, state master workman, and Capt. Geo. H. Bowers, state statistician, will make private addresses to the members of the lodges in this city.

—The advance agent for Adien Benedict "Monte Cristo" Company arrived in the city this morning to make arrangements for the appearance of the company on the evening of Saturday, Nov. 24th, at the Waterman opera house. This play has become very popular over the entire country and has gained great favor wherever produced.

—Great excitement prevailed last night immediately after the schools were dismissed among the school children who had gathered in front of the Sherwood block. One of our enterprising shoe merchants, Mr. Robt. Sherwood, sent hundreds of them home rejoicing by presenting each one with a neat school book satchel.

—Mr. Pete Keeler, a popular young man in this city who has worked as tinner for Mr. J. R. Cox and Messrs. Weidman & Brekenfeld, for some time, has severed his connection with the latter firm and leaves this city next Tuesday to seek his fortune in a new field in the far west; Spokane Falls, Washington territory being the point of his destination. Mr. Keeler has been a resident of Plattsmouth since the spring of 1884, and many friends wish him well. A tin smith from Omaha has been engaged to fill the vacancy.

—The meetings at the Young Men's Christian Association rooms this week have been very interesting and well attended, one young man who attended the rooms last night, went into the parlor where the young men were holding their meeting. He became interested and after the meeting was over he spoke to one near him saying he had concluded to become a Christian. The week of prayer has been well attended, and the young men think much good done. These series of meetings will close tomorrow evening with a union service of the Presbyterian and Methodist churches, at the latter church, where a sermon will be preached to young men by Rev. Alexander; unlike the meetings at the rooms, which were for men only, this service will be for everybody. The usual gospel meeting for men only will be held at the rooms at 4 p. m.

—A report was put in circulation this morning by some train men upon the arrival of the Kansas City train from Omaha that a Plattsmouth man had been shot in the Paxton hotel there this morning. The news spread over the city like lightning and to gain a true statement of the matter, the reporter interviewed Sheriff Eikenberry concerning it. Before that time he had heard no such report and went immediately to the telephone office and telephoned the Police headquarters at Omaha, asking if the report was true. He was informed that the wounded man's name was King, and that he was a member of the firm of King, Browning & Co., a large clothing firm in Omaha. The report was that King had registered at the Paxton house with a woman as his wife, and about 7:30 this morning his wife, who suspected his disloyalty, had visited the above house and found her husband's name registered with another woman as his wife. She sent the bell boy to his room requesting him to come down immediately. He came, and upon his arrival, the woman shot him twice, killing him instantly. No further particulars were learned.

New York Morning Journal.

"Our Irish Visitors" at the Union Square. A mirthful, rollicking, side splitting piece is "Our Irish Visitors," brought out under the management of J. M. Hill, at the Union Square theatre, and fitting exponents of such a boisterous, though none the less amusing, hodge-podge are found in Messrs. Murray and Murphy, who share the starring honors of the production. They both possess the undeniable quality of humor, but in each does that fun making characteristic take a different direction, so that the one, if it were, proves a foil for the other. An audience of goodly proportions laughed itself hoarse at their queer antics and oftentimes lively and pointed sallies of wit. The supporting company was generally more than acceptable. A notice of this laughter-provoking entertainment would not be complete without mention of Miss Blanche Seymour, who played with excellent discretion and unmistakable signs of ability the soubrette part.

Murray & Murphy will appear at the Waterman opera house on Monday evening next. This company secured one of the largest audiences ever seen in the opera house on their last visit to the city about one year ago. Reserved seats tickets on sale at J. P. Young's book store.

Plattsmouth Holds a Lucky Man.

The printed list of the prizes awarded at the last drawing of the Louisiana State lottery has been received here. The lucky number which draws the capital prize is 56,631, and the circular states that tickets calling for shares in that prize were sold at New York, Chicago, San Francisco, Louisville, Ky.; Truckee, Cal.; Dayton, O.; Waverly and St. Louis Mo.; and Plattsmouth, Neb. That surely strikes this city, but the man holding the ticket has not yet been heard from. He, whoever he may be, probably holds a twentieth ticket, as they are generally sold here, and it calls for $15,000, a handsome fortune for somebody. We are looking for him. He will probably set up the cigars if nothing more. We would like to see him. Call on us whoever you are. We would like to shake hands with you.
