CITY CORDIALS.

—Joe, The ONLY One Price Clothier in Plattsmouth, will have a new advertisement on first page tomorrow. Look out for it!

—The leap year social given by the "Ys" at the residence of Mr. Wash. Smith, last Saturday night, was very largely attended.

—Tickets for the concert to be given under the auspices of the Woman's Relief Corps will be on sale from now on at the usual place.

—Rev. W. B. Alexander preached a sermon for the benefit of a large congregation of young men at the M. E. Church last night.

—Mr. W. J. Campbell, brother of Mrs. J. P. Young, will be married on Wednesday next at California, Mo., to an estimable young lady of that town. The Herald extends congratulations.

—Mr. Joe Kline, one of our city clothiers, has been confined to his home for more than a week by sickness. He put in his first appearance at the store to-day and is able to attend to business once again.

—Mr. Henry Babb, of Cheyenne county, is attending court today. He informs us that a widow lady living in the locality he comes from, has raised a large number of potatoes this year weighing over five pounds each.

—The September adjourned term of the district court of Cass county opened in Rockwood hall, to-day Judge Chapman presiding. Nothing special has transpired as yet and preparations were only made to commence work.

—The Murry & Murphy Company, "Our Irish Visitors," arrived from Omaha this morning. They will show at the Waterman opera house to-night. The Omaha papers speak very highly of their two entertainments there of Thursday and Friday nights last.

—The body of Harry King who was murdered at the Paxton Hotel last Saturday morning, passed through here on the flyer yesterday afternoon enroute for Chicago where the remains will be interred. Mrs. King number 3 accompanied them.

—The Murry and Murphy Company arrived from Omaha this morning. They played to full houses there last week. They will appear at the Waterman opera house tonight as "Our Irish Visitors." The company is very popular here, and as a comedy is always fully appreciated by Plattsmouth people, it is expected that they will be greeted by a bumper house.

—We are not yet certain who was the lucky man at drawing on the capital prize in the Louisiana lottery. The report has been circulated that Mr. J. R. Cox is the man who holds the number, but he has denied the charge. Whoever he may be, he had better come to the front and own up, for we will spot him sooner or later. We will draw on him at sight.

—The work of grading the fifth street hill south of Main street has already been commenced. Messrs. George Poissall and Fred Kroehler were tendered the contract of grading at fifteen cents per yard, and they started their men to work yesterday morning. At the present rate of progress the work will be completed in a very short time. The city will be vastly improved by the continuation of Fifth street through the bluff.

—Mr. Frank Carruth has received a number of very handsome and useful filters, which can be connected with the water company's pipes. When the water is filtered by these new filters, it loses all its discoloration and is as clear as crystal. He secured contracts to put them in the residences and offices of the following citizens: Messrs. H. Boeck, residence; Drs. Livingston, office; O. P. Smith, drug store; Dr. Schildknecht, office; and Wm. Weber, saloon.

—We are about to have a minstrel company of our own in Plattsmouth, and we believe the end made secured cannot be surpassed as humorists, Messrs. O. P. Smith and E. A. St. John. The date for the first appearance has not yet been decided on but it is expected that the entertainment will be given in about a month. The managers of opera house in cities for several miles distant have put forth every effort to secure them for one night, but the company was obliged to disappoint them all on account of the demand at home. They will probably show three hundred nights at the Waterman unless egg bouquets are thrown. We bespeak for them, success, here, as it is composed of some rare talent, both singers and comedians. The material such as tamborines, bones, drums and all articles necessary for a minstrel production has been purchased and a rare troupe is being organized in Plattsmouth.

—The King murder of last Saturday afforded the Omaha newspapers a whole page sensational article yesterday. As was stated in the Saturday issue of the Herald, King was murdered by a woman who claims to be his wife, at the Paxton hotel. Harry King the murdered man, is the son of H. W. King, sr., of the great clothing firm of H. W. King & Co., of Chicago. He is about thirty-two years of age. He grew to manhood in Chicago, enjoying all the pleasures of that great city under the liberal gratuities of his father who is ranked among the wealthy men of that place. The firm is one of the most substantial clothing houses in the world. It has eight branches, one in each of the cities of Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Boston, Kansas City, St. Paul, Milwaukee, St. Louis and Omaha. Mr. Harry King was engaged in doing the outside business for the firm. He had come to Omaha to open up the business there and after he had come west had married a Miss Duffy, a daughter of Judge Duffy, of St. Louis. He had been married three times. His first wife was divorced, and his second wife, the murderess, claimed to be deserted. When she learned of his last marriage she followed him to Omaha to prosecute him as she said, for bigamy. After she arrived at the Paxton Saturday morning she was directed to Mr. King's room by a bell boy. She persuaded him after several attempts to go to the parlor. A short conversation was held there and when she threatened to prosecute him when he was about to leave her he seized her by the throat and threatened to choke her to death. She then shot him three times, each shot taking effect. She is at present in jail at Omaha.

—If we were to answer for the appearance of Mr. C. W. Sherman yesterday on the streets, seated on the back of a sucking bronco, we would state that as near as could be guessed at, he was only paying off a bet which he made on the result of the election. He started out from the Bonner stables and thought himself about as comfortable as men are allowed to be under similar circumstances until he reached Sixth street where a number of road scrapers were being operated in the vicinity of the Holmes tables. The bronco became indignant for some reason and Mr. Sherman's situation for a time was found very rocky. He endeavored to exhaust the little fellows wind by flopping his legs against its side with all his strength, but the notion was kept up for a time until he believed he had paid the penalty a hundred times. Only when the animal found that C. W. was a stayer did it let up and obey his command to move on. When the animal became subdued, as he thought, it quietly moved on in the direction he piloted and after some time reached the terminus of Marble street, where Mr. Sherman desired to go and gather hickory nuts. When he had secured the number required to satisfy him for his return, he again straddled his bronco and started for home. Only a few yards had been traveled when the animal again thought his head too heavy or convenient, and the same performance was resumed as before, until the worthy editor was shaken up so severely that he looked about as broad as long. After he had discovered that all attempts to gain sympathy from the animal were useless, he gave it up and then resolved to strike the ground in some shape if possible. The rocking motion of the animal threw Mr. Sherman out of the saddle on to its hips where he found great difficulty in remaining. Fortunately he succeeded in working both feet from the stirrups and landing on the round with his life, but today he is stiffened up like a rheumatic. People say he walked home leading the contrary route.

Interesting to Ladies.

Our lady readers can hardly fail to have their attention called this week to the latest combination of improvements in that most useful of all domestic implements, the "sewing machine."

As we understand it, a machine for family use should meet first of all these requirements: It should be simple in its mechanism; it should run easily; it should do a wide range of work; it should be as noiseless as possible; it should be light, handsome, durable, and as cheap as is consistent with excellence throughout.

These conditions the "Light-Running New Home" certainly meets. It has also several very important and useful attachments and "motions" of its own, which go far to make good its claims to popular favor.

The "New Home" specially recommends itself to purchasers on account of its superior mechanical construction, ease of management and reasonable price. Over half a million have been sold in the last three years, all of which are giving universal satisfaction. The unrivalled Machine is manufactured by the NEW HOME SEWING MACHINE CO., Orange, Mass., and 28 Union Square, New York.

—Major R. H. Hendershot, drummer boy of the Rappahannock, and so, who will give an entertainment, assisted by the best local talent of the city, at the opera house on Tuesday, Nov. 27th, have been engaged by the Women's Relief Corps. He will bring with him the original silver drum presented him by Horace Greely through the hands of General Winfield Scott, after the battle of Fredericksburg, in December, 1862. The drum presented him by the W. R. Corps of the drum sticks presented by the G. A. R. post, at Honolulu, H. I. April 1887, and the gold mounted Garfield and Arthur sticks of 1889; also the drum won in the great drumming contest at Helena Mont., July 4 1888. A full programme of the evening's entertainment will appear later.

—M. B. Murphy has been attacked by rheumatism so severely for the past week that he has been unable to leave his bed.

New York Times.

Messrs. Murray and Murphy were seen at the Union Square theatre last evening in "Our Irish Visitors." There is neither ingenuity in dramatic construction nor brilliant dialogue in the play. It was written to amuse, and it is capitally suited to elicit the hearty laughter of popular audiences. It is, of course quite beyond description analysis. Its incidents are carried on by Colonel Gilhooly and Jerry McGinnis, two typical Irishmen, by Mrs. McGinnis, a no less typical Irish woman, by Miss Arabella McGinnis, who apes the ways of a young lady of fashion, and by sundry subsidiary personages, and these people crack jokes, sing songs, and dance the very rhythmic steps that set an audience to accompanying the dancers with a pedal accompaniment, with a spirit which never flags. There was considerable laughter over the unceasing repartee between Gilhooly and McGinnis, yesterday, liberal approval of the neat terpsichorean efforts of Seymour Blanche Seymour, and much sympathetic warbling, but the hilarity and enthusiasm knew no bounds when Messrs. Murray and Murphy, with two fellow-performers, appeared as ballet girls, and indulged in a pas de quatre, which for a droll exaggeration could scarcely be excelled.

Murray and Murphy and their company of comedians will appear at the Waterman opera house tonight. This company is sure of a full house here. Tickets on sale at J. P. Young's book store.
