DRESSED BEEF MONOPOLY.

The Senate Committee Now in Session at St. Louis.
St. Louis, Nov. 21.—The Vest Senate committee to investigate the alleged dressed beef monopoly, held a preliminary meeting at the southern hotel this morning for the purpose of agreeing on a plan of procedure. All of the senators composing the committee are now here, namely: Vest, of Missouri, chairman; Manderson, of Nebraska; Plumb of Kansas; Cullum, of Illinois; and Coke, of Texas.

At 2 p. m. the committee announced itself ready to begin work. Senator Vest explained in opening that an impression had been created that this committee had some connection with the convention of the Range association and butchers. This was not the case.
The committee was not here to "defend or attack any interest." Senator Vest then read the resolution under which the committee had been appointed in substance to make investigation as to the transportation of beef cattle and whether any combination on the part of the trunk line association, control traffic association or other agencies of transportation, or among those engaged in buying and shipping meat products whereby the price of beef and beef cattle had been so controlled as to diminish the prices paid producers without lessening the cost to consumers. The only witness examined was D. H. H. Snyder, a ranchman residing at Georgetown, Williams county, Texas. The committee adjourned to meet this morning at 10 o'clock.

Ejecting the Settlers.
WATERLOO, Ia., Nov. 21.—About a dozen ejections from the Des Moines river lands have been made by the federal authorities. At one place horns were blown by farmers as a signal that the marshals were coming. The settlers responded by coming out to defend their homes with force, but scattered at the sight of guns. No shots were fired. The posse visited a number of localities, seizing horses and cattle to pay the costs. One farmer named Boyington resisted desperately, but was overpowered and ejected.

South Carolina's Railroads.
COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 21.—The annual report of the state railroad commission issued yesterday, shows an increase in the mileage of the railroads of South Carolina of 9 per cent during the past year, and the remarkable increase of 38 per cent in their net earnings, the year having been an exceedingly prosperous one. The gross receipts increased nearly $1,000,000 while the expenses increased about $300,000.

Pennsylvania's Entire Vote.
HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 21.—Entire returns from all the counties in the state show that almost one million votes were cast for president. Harrison's was 79,570, and his majority over all was 54,008.

Yellow Fever Statistics.
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 21.—There were twenty new cases of yellow fever during the twenty-four hours ending at 6 a. m. yesterday, and one death. Total cases, 4,643; total deaths, 403.

A Weaver's Strike.
NEWBEDFORD, Mass., Nov. 21.—About 160 looms in Wamsutta mills No. 1 are idle, as all of the wide loom weavers in that mill have struck work because of additional fines for black marks in weaving.

The Alabama Count.
MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 20.—The vote cast for presidential electors was counted today by the governor and secretary of state. Cleveland receives 117,310 votes, Harrison 57,197, Fisk 583.

After Many Years.
PARIS, Nov. 21.—The police of Lille have arrested a gang of six men, who several years ago stole in Brussels and Mons bonds to the value of $100,000, which they negotiated in England.

Senator Colquitt Re-elected.
ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 21.—A. H. Colquitt was yesterday re-elected United States senator.

Clothing must go, Men's Business Suits at $4.60. Elson, the One Price Clothier

HOW CAN PARENTS allow their children to cough and strain and cough and calmly say: "Oh! it is only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap and dangerous medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP! It has no superior, and few equals. For sale by O. P. Smith & Co., druggists.

RIGHT AND WRONG.

Animals with Beckoning Faculties.
For myself, I cannot see why the conclusion is denied that animals, as they come to apprehend the advent of Sunday, have some way of keeping count of the seven days of the week. The following fact bears directly upon that point. Something like half a century ago the writer had the care and milking of five cows during one summer. They grazed in a pasture lot many rods from the dwelling. It was the custom to give the animals salt every Sunday morning. They enjoyed the treat, and it was evident that they began to expect it. After a length of time—I cannot say how long—a curious behavior of the cattle became conspicuous, for every Sunday morning they were found standing in the house, the point nearest the house, with every appearance of mute expectation. At every other morning, as well as at evening, they had to be sought and brought to the bars for milking. Sometimes I would forget to take the salt with me, and they would, when, instead of moving off to feed after my task was done, as they usually did, they remained about the spot an hour or so, as if waiting for their weekly rations of salt.

Here, then, is the problem. Every Sunday morning these cows came of their own option to the place of milking, and where on that day they generally got salt, and not on other mornings. How could they do that, except through some faculty of estimating the seven days of the week.—A. S. Hudson, M. D., in Popular Science Monthly.

Bald Eagles in Pennsylvania.
The Blue mountains, especially in Schuylkill and northern Berks counties, besides furnishing breeding and feeding places for the wild turkey, provide several species of eagles with food so inaccessible and fields of prey so extensive and fruitful that the advance made by civilization on every side have as yet been insufficient to drive them from their chosen haunts. Any one who has ever tramped over that part of the Blue mountains has noticed the great number of tall, dead tree trunks that stand on the highest and rockiest summits, out of the reach of the boldest mountain climber. Early in the morning or toward nightfall one or more cards may be seen hovering about the tops of those dead and sentinel like trees. The birds are bald eagles, or, in rare cases, golden eagles. They select these dead trees on the isolated summits to build their nests on. It is one of the superstitions of the Blue mountain woodsmen that it is the presence of the eagles and their nests that has killed the trees, but the fact is that if a tree is not first dead an eagle will not select it for a nesting place. The bird uses the dead trunk because it gives a better post for observation. Sometimes the top of a naked and inaccessible rock serves the same purpose.—Cor. New York Times.

Foreign Population of France.
The rapid increase of the foreign population in France is causing great concern to the government. Since 1880 no less than 482,000 Belgians, 265,000 Italians, 100,000 Germans, 78,000 Swiss and 80,000 Spaniards have gone into France, in addition to the foreign population previously resident there. In 1881 there were about 381,000 foreigners in a total population of nearly 36,000,000. In 1888 the foreign population exceeded 1,000,000, while the native population remained nearly stationary.—Chicago Herald.

Beating the Weighing Machine.
One of these machines is stationed at a certain railroad station in this state. The same room contains a newstand, attended by a boy who will tie a string to a nickel, step on the platform, drop the nickel in the machine, and get his weight. Before stepping off, he calls up next, the machine giving their combined weight. The boy steps off, at which the machine gives the correct weight of No. 2. This process is repeated until the supply of subjects to be weighed is exhausted. Now, before the last party steps down, the boy, who has held on to the string all this time, carefully pulls in the string and gets his nickel back. I am of the opinion, when this machine is examined for cash, there will be little found.—Indianapolis Cor. Scientific American.

Religious Shrines in Japan.
The Japanese are not generally considered by Europeans a religious people, but there is scarcely a house in which a shelf is not set apart as a kind of altar, bearing on it a little shrine or a small round mirror, emblem of the sun goddess from whom the rulers of Japan are supposed to be descended. The shrine represents a temple of Shinto, the ancient, and now once more the national, religion of Japan, but in Buddhist houses it is accompanied, or even replaced, by a Buddhist shrine, with perhaps a figure of the Buddha himself.—Cassell's Magazine.

Bright Piece of Architecture.
The Albert memorial, the monument erected in Hyde park by Queen Victoria and the English people to the memory of the good prince, is one of the brightest pieces of architecture in London. In fact, it looks as if it might have been picked up in Paris and transplanted to its present site, so bright and beautiful is it and so different to anything else in the dark metropolis. Yet the Albert memorial finds no favor with the press and people of London.—Home Journal.

Destroyers of the Fruit Pest.
The parasites recently imported from Australia by the California state board of horticulture to destroy the fruit pest known as the white cottony cushion scale, survived the long voyage and are now thriving in their new home in San Mateo county. These parasites, which propagate with great rapidity, dig into the back of the scale bug and finally kill it.—Chicago Herald.

It Costs One Horse Power.
According to the best scientific authority, it costs one ton of metal or weight; thus every unnecessary 2,000 pounds weight on your line shaft costs you one horse power. To maintain a horse power costs from $25 to $125 per year. Any manufacturer who will take the pains to investigate the unnecessary weight, by heavy iron pulleys, too tight belts, etc., will be surprised to find the enormous waste of power caused in this manner, to say nothing about the loss resulting from the shortened life of the entire equipment.—Boston Budget.

WHAT ON EARTH
Is the reason people will not, can not, or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and ever bottle that does not do its work will cost you nothing. For sale by O. P. Smith & Co., druggists.
If you want a good clock, go to H. M. Gault. He has a large assortment to pick from at prices that can't help but sell them.
Men's Overcoats at Elson's, the One Price Clothier $1.90.
Gold and silver watches enough to supply the country at H. M. Gault's, cheap and warranted to give satisfaction.
O. P. Smith & Co. are making a specialty of Christmas and New Year cards this season.
COUGH! AND COUGH! AND COUGH!
What in the world is the reason you will cough and keep coughing and still keep trying inferior medicines when BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP will positively relieve your cough at once? This is no advertising scheme, but an actual fact, and we guarantee it. Sold by O. P. Smith & Co., druggists.

JOE

THE
Only One-Price Clothing Hustler

In Plattsmouth, is very sorry his Jar of Beans caused one of his
MAD MONKEY COMPETITORS

To get winly. JOE is sorry for the neighbors of this mad, windy Competitor.
JOE
Would advise Mr. Monkey Competitor to sell out and start a menagerie and charge admission, for JOE has no doubt it would pay this mad competitor much better than continuing in the Clothing Business.

JOE'S
Competitors are mad because he has destroyed High Prices. They are mad because he has destroyed a Usurer's Profit. JOE believes in selling Honest Goods at Honest Low Prices.

JOE'S
Trade is getting larger every day, and his mad competitors cannot destroy it by misrepresentation, or by so called reduction prices. The people won't be misled any longer, for they know JOE is selling goods at an Honest Profit

And at One Price Only.
REMEMBER
JOE is selling better goods for less money than ever heard of before in Plattsmouth.

DON'T FORGET
To guess on JOE'S Beans. It costs you nothing to guess and no "monkeying" business, either.
