CITY CORDIALS.

Judge Field is presiding at the court today.

Mr. Staats is the only man in the city we know of who can spell his name in two directions.

Mr. H. T. Clarke, of Omaha, acted as a pall-bearer at the funeral of the late Chaplain Wright yesterday.

Louisville is crushing out symptoms of hydrophobia with lead. Seven or eight foaming curs were scuttled last week. —Omaha Herald.

The ladies aid society of the M. E. church, will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. D. E. Smith, Winterstein Hill.

Why don't Phil Harrison of this city claim his right of relationship to the president elect, and strike Ben for a job in the postoffice department?

Mr. Wiley Black has purchased a fine carload of hogs for the Omaha market and will ship Wednesday. He is now paying $4.80 per hundred for them.

Mrs. Julius Pepperberg was attacked by fever Saturday evening, and fears are entertained that it may advance. We trust her physician may succeed in breaking it up.

Verner sends his audience away after lots of tears and smiles, hearty claps and boisterous plaudits, pleased and happy. —St. Louis Critic.] You can both laugh and cry tomorrow night if you go and see him.

Mr. Verner has a handsome stage bearing; his dialect is good, and the songs he introduces are all reminiscent of melodies of the greenisle. —Cleveland, Ohio, Plaindealer.] Will appear at the opera house tomorrow night.

Correct in his conception, faultless in his treatment, the role, under Mr. Verner's skillful treatment, grows and grows, until, at the fall of the curtain, one must be reminded of the fact that this man was acting, not living the part. —St. Louis Sunday Sayings.] You will be well repaid if you go and see him at the opera house tomorrow night.

Mrs. Dr. McCrea and son, Ed Barker, were called to Harvard one day last week by a dispatch from Mr. H. S. Keller, a son-in-law of Mrs. McCrea, who was an old resident of this city, stating that their little girl was very ill and not expected to recover. A dispatch was received here Saturday announcing that the child had died a short time before.

The young man to whom we made reference in Saturday's issue as the burglar who was brought in from Cedar Creek Saturday night, is quite well known in this city. His name is Art Creighton, and he is highly connected in Omaha, being a relative to Mr. John McShane, and a member of a wealthy family. He was arrested on the charge of larceny from the store of Mr. Clark, of Cedar Creek. There is also another charge against him for stealing billiard balls, there. He is now confined in jail here. He was arraigned before Judge Russell Saturday afternoon, but the case was continued for about two weeks.

Mrs. C. Johnson has purchased one of the fine Bush and Gerts pianos, of Mr. N. W. Nelson, now in the city representing the above firm. This will make the third piano of this make sold in the city, as the instruments are only being introduced in the west. In the east this firm has become very popular, as the instruments resemble the celebrated Steinway piano and are in every way as durable. The last instrument sold is valued at $400, the standard price for their up rights. Mr. Nelson will leave the agency in charge of Mr. J. P. Young, our popular news and music dealer.

The annual meeting of the Cass County Agricultural Society was held at the court house Saturday afternoon. There was a large attendance of members and great interest manifested in the proceedings. There was a very spirited contest over the selection of secretary. Mr. W. S. Wise was elected over Mr. H. C. Ritchie, who has held the office for the past two years. Mr. Wise has acted as secretary at different times in the past, and there is no doubt but that he will make an efficient officer. Mr. Fred Gardner was re-elected president by acclamation, with Sam Richardson as vice-president; a vice-president was also elected from each precinct in the county. Mr. R. B. Windham, who has served in the capacity of treasurer for the past year, and who has made a most careful and pains-taking officer, was unanimously re-elected. A board of seven directors was elected. Owing to the great expense of fitting up new grounds quite a debt has been incurred by the society. The board of directors were authorized to borrow the necessary funds to meet this indebtedness, and likewise to pay the premiums that were awarded at the last fair.

What's more surprising than a surprise party?

On account of the absence of the president, there will be no meeting of the Board of Trade Tuesday, Dec. 4th.

Mr. T. L. Murphy, a well known contractor of this city, leaves tomorrow morning with a gang of about ten men, to do tunnel work for the B. & M. in Wyoming territory. Two of the party left for there last night.

Shasiff Eikenbary, Deputy Sheriff Miller and Mr. Thos. Kiddle removed Harry Westlake, Patrick Moore and Chas. Ellis to the penitentiary at Lincoln last Saturday morning. They also had Jacob Nelson, the lunatic from Greenwood, in charge.

We were sorry to learn that Mr. John Ballenger has become so dissatisfied with Plattsmouth that he considers Schuyler a more favorable locality for his residence. He and his family took their departure for there Saturday night, where they intend to reside permanently.

The two "stars" or the "Two Johns," Messrs. A. B. Todd and W. D. Jones, who are to take prominent parts in the district school which will be held shortly, will meet tonight and learn their little song. These two stars will surely afford much amusement to the fun-loving people. They will appear in their original song and dance costumes, of short pants and waists.

The two engravers of Omaha, who have secured many of the finest business blocks and residences in the city for the Journal's boom edition, have completed their work, and the prints of the Journal have also finished their work, and the great paper which has been looked for and talked of for many weeks, will be distributed over the city this afternoon. We are waiting patiently to view the production.

An old land mark and delapidated structure which has been an eye sore for the residents of Washington avenue ever since they have taken up their abode there, was burned to the ground last Saturday night about twelve o'clock. The building was vacant at the time of the fire, but was formerly occupied by Mrs. Newland. The building was the property of Mr. Thos. Gordon, of Glenwood. We have not been informed whether the building was insured or not, but if it was, it being vacant at the time of fire, the policy would be null and void. The building was valued at about $300.

The mortal remains of Chaplain Alpha Wright were borne to their last resting place, in the Oak Hill cemetery, yesterday afternoon. The cortege formed at his late residence shortly before 2 o'clock, and proceeded to the Presbyterian church where a short service was held, which was conducted by Rev. J. T. Baird, pastor of that church, who was assisted by Rev. W. B. Alexander, of the M. E. church. The pall bearers were W. T. Clarke, of Omaha, Edwin Davis, Wm. Hayes, J. M. Patterson, P. P. Gass and B. Spudlock. The choir of the church made the service very affective by their singing.
