The southern statesmen are willing that the white vote of that section shall be divided only upon the condition that the colored vote shall be suppressed. That is to say, they do not so much object to the way in which the negro is disposed to vote as they do to the fact that he has the legal right to vote in any way.

THE HAYTIEN CASE.

The alacrity of the administration in ordering ships of war against an insignificant country like Hayti, upon what is at best a doubtful point of offense, has a very absurd look when contrasted with the weak and truckling policy which was pursued toward Canada under circumstances of a much graver character. In the case of the latter country, a direct insult was given and a positive wrong inflicted. The facts were beyond dispute in every respect. Congress discussed the matter thoroughly, and authorized proper measures of retaliation. But instead of accepting the chance thus offered to vindicate the national honor and protect the interests of American citizens, the administration dallied and trifled in a fashion that was most cowardly and disgraceful. It not only failed to assert its authority as directed by law, but it proceeded to negotiate a treaty which involved a complete surrender of all the claims and rights that should have been defended at every hazard. In all the history of our diplomacy there has never been another such a shameful instance of tame yielding to a foreign power. The only explanation for it is to be found in the fact that the aggressor was strong, and that the administration was afraid to risk the possibility of a war. This view gains special force by reason of the proceedings in the case of Hayti.

This administration is quick to assume the aggressive when a small and helpless nation is to be dealt with. It is not at all certain that we have any cause of quarrel with Hayti. She has seized and condemned an American vessel, to be sure, but the circumstances of the transaction are not yet definitely known. The condemned vessel may have been engaged, as reported, in the transportation of insurgent troops, contrary to the plain provisions of international law. It is not reasonable to believe that Hayti has knowingly and deliberately invited a conflict with the United States. She is not in a situation to fight even one of the smallest of nations; her strength is taxed to the utmost by the rebellion which she has on her hands. There is no necessity for haste on our part.

The bluster and bravado of the administration brings only reproach upon our boasted love of justice and fair play.

STANLEY A PRISONER.

The great explorer has at last been heard from, and he is a prisoner in the hands of the Mahdi and will, in all probability, be killed unless England acts quickly, as a letter from Osman Digma states that if Sukin was not surrendered within a given time, both Stanley and Emin Pasha would be executed.

Ayer's Almanac for 1889, published by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., comes to us in the shape of a neat presentation book of about five hundred pages, being made up of numerous editions calculated for the latitudes of many lands. A score or more of nationalities are addressed in their own languages in this volume, and could they all be heard clamoring together for Ayer's Sarsaparilla and Ayer's Pills what a Babel would break forth! Ayer's Almanac, in its familiar yellow cover, has long been known as the most accurate and reliable of its kind; and if any one is ignorant of the superior merits of Ayer's medicines, and suffers in consequence, it is not the fault of this enterprising firm, who scatter their "leaves" by the million, "for the healing of the nations." Ask your druggist for Ayer's Almanac.

$500 Reward.

For many years the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy have offered, in good faith, a standing reward of $500 for a case of chronic nasal catarrh which they cannot cure. No matter how bad the disease has become, or of how many years standing, it yields in due time, to their skill. This famous remedy is sold by druggists at 50 cents.

WHAT ON EARTH

Is the reason people will not, can not, or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work will cost you nothing. allow their children to cough and strain and cough and calmly say: "Oh! it is only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap and dangerous medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior, and few equals. For sale by O. P. Smith & Co., druggists.

Jules Imbs' Air Ship.

An amiable inventor named Jules Imbs is, it appears, quite sanguine about his new method of aerial locomotion by means of boats worked on something like the "switchback railway" system. These marvelous crafts are, it is said, to transport people from Paris to St. Petersburg in eight hours, unless the aeronaut's invention is making game of him. Jules Imbs is working at his wonderful invention in the Rue de Traktir, off the Avenue Victor Hugo, but people will have to wait a little before they can put any trust in his promises on such unprecedented velocity of locomotion.—Paris Cor. London Daily Telegraph.

let that cold of yours run on. You think it is a light thing. But it may run into catarrh. Or into pneumonia. Or consumption.

Catarrh is disgusting. Pneumonia is dangerous. Consumption is death itself. The breathing apparatus must be kept healthy and clear of all obstructions and offensive matter. Otherwise there is trouble ahead.

All the diseases of these parts, head, nose, throat, bronchial tubes and lungs, can be delightfully and entirely cured by the use of Boschee's German Syrup. If you don't know this already, thousands and thousands of people can tell you. They have been cured by it and know how it is, themselves. Bottle only 75 cents. Ask any druggist.

The standard remedy for liver complaint is West's Liver Pills; they never disappoint you. 30 pills 25c. At Warrick's drug store.
