CITY CORDIALS.

—Mrs. Morgan's condition is said to be much worse today, and little hope is entertained for her recovery.
 —Prof. Gaynor, of Omaha, held his regular dancing school last night at Fitzgerald hall. There was a large attendance.
 —City attorney Clark returned from Lincoln this morning bringing 30,000 bonds. Fremont's bonds were rejected by the state auditors.
 —The regular meeting of the Chautauqua society will be held at the office of Byron Clark next Tuesday evening. A full attendance is desired.
 —Mr. E. L. Scofield, assistant superintendent of the Home Life Insurance Co. of New York, arrived in the city yesterday and will remain a few days in the interests of his company.
 —A gold cuff button, bearing a Knights of Pythias emblem, was picked up on the streets by a son of Mr. S. E. Joiner. The owner can secure same by calling at this office and paying for this notice.
 —Newton Beers and company arrived this morning. The company will present "Lost in London" at the Waterman opera house this afternoon and evening. Tickets are for sale at J. P. Young's for the evening's performance.
 —Grace Hart, a girl about nine years of age, who has been a victim of diphtheria for the past three days, died at her home on Third street last night at 11 o'clock. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon.
 —The ladies of the M. E. church gave a social last evening at the home of Rev. W. B. Alexander. There was a large attendance and a very enjoyable evening spent in the usual way. The party did not break up until the threatening of rain dispersed the crowd.
 —Judge Russell issued marriage licenses to the following named couples during this week: Mr. Jos. Brandt and Miss Barbara Fraucendorfer, Mr. Albert F. Sterzbach and Miss Nellie Thomson, of Cedar Creek; Mr. John Coop and Miss Nakman, of this city; Mr. Delbert W. Greenslate and Miss Laura Fowler, of Elmwood, Mr. Wm. A. Swearinger and Miss Bertha Greenslate, of Elmwood.
 —The little seven year old daughter of Mr. P. C. Peterson, while in company with other children and while playing with a barrel hoop, met with an accident: the other evening, the effect of which, it is greatly feared, will prove serious. The hoop was thrown so that the sharp edge came in contact with one of her eyes, injuring it so that it is feared she will lose the sight of both. The shock on her system may also be too severe to survive.
 —The editor of the Weeping Water Eagle has made an estimate of the number of cases of diphtheria in this city at present. He states there are two hundred cases of a serious type and informs the people that the situation is very alarming. He has no doubt exaggerated so much in estimating his scanty subscribers, that he has formed such a habit in counting, and it is sticking to him. The number of cases reported here has not reached much over thirty, and only about six of those have been fatal.
 —A couple of urchins were arrested this morning by city marshal Poissal charged with stealing a box of tobacco from the B. & M. depot. Last Monday a farmer living near Murray went to the B. & M. depot and after securing a box of tobacco which he had ordered from Omaha, left it standing on a truck outside until he would go and secure his team. Upon his return the box could not be found, and no information could be obtained concerning it. Nothing was known of it until this morning when the boys were discovered trying to sell the tobacco at the rate of nine plugs for a nickel. The city marshal was informed and the two boys were arrested and placed in jail. They gave their names as Pete Riley and Rudolph Sanson. They are both about twelve years old.

Birmingham (Ala.) Herald.

The Newton Beers combination appeared in the successful melodrama "Lost in London" and played to a very good matinee audience yesterday afternoon and a large patronage last evening. The scenic, spectacular and comic features of his show are really excellent and met with hearty appreciation. All the characters are in good hands. As a scenic and spectacular representation, "Lost in London" probably excels anything ever seen here. Mr. Seavey has done admirable work and every one of his pictures were abundantly recognized as meritorious by the spectators. Especial mention may be made of the "Heart o' Bleakmore" the "Streets of London," with the snow-effects, the conservatory, and the transformation of the cottage into the tableau and apotheosis of "Job's Vision," which last was the finale.
 This excellent company will hold forth at the Waterman opera house tonight in the popular and fascinating melodrama, "Lost in London." We feel certain that the commendation received from those who attended the matinee this afternoon will be sufficient evidence of its merit and secure a good house tonight. Seats now on sale at the usual place.

Warden Myers Resigns.

Warden Myers tendered his resignation yesterday to take effect on the first day of January, and asks leave of absence until that date. Deputy Warden Hopkins was appointed to act as warden during the absence of Mr. Myers, and he will have temporary charge of affairs at the state penitentiary. No reason has been given for the resignation and the cause is a matter of conjecture only. Parties who pretend to know say that the step is due to the well known differences existing between him and the governor. The truth will doubtless come to the surface in a few days.—Omaha Bee.
 Mr. Myers and family are well known in this city, having resided here for several years. He filled the office of county sheriff here for a time, and all who formed the acquaintance of the family speak in the highest terms of them. Since Mr. Myers has resigned, we trust that he may decide to return to Plattsburgh and make this his future home.
 —The latest style in young men's collars has taken a raise compared with the lower and more comfortable one introduced a short time ago. It would be impossible for a man with a short neck to wear this latest style as it extends nearer to the ears than any we have yet seen, and a man who is liable to turn his head suddenly is apt to receive injuries when dropping his chin against the sharp edges of these sideboards. A young man who came in from the country yesterday and apparently entertained great fears of diphtheria since the report of its prevalence has been circulated far and wide, noticed a young man wearing one of the tall collars, when he immediately became alarmed and inquired if the fellow had diphtheria because his neck was done up in that shape.
 Stop in at Warrick's and see the largest and cheapest stock of holiday goods in the city. He has nearly double the stock he has ever carried before and prices are lower. Don't spend a dollar until you see his display. d1w —Brother Sherman of the Journal, is always on the lookout for a reason of some kind, no matter how trivial, to howl. The county clerk, in giving the proceedings of the County Commissioners meeting a few days ago added an account of $12.75 for a sheriff's chair, instead of making a statement of nine chairs for the poor house, and a witness chair for the court room, which in all aggregated that amount. If the worthy editor was as particular with his own affairs as he is with the business of others, he would occasionally make a true statement of things.

 Remember you get a chance on a beautiful lot in South Park for every $2.00 worth of goods you buy of Will J. Warrick from now until Jan. 1st. He has more holiday goods this season than ever before and prices are lower. You will be sure to be satisfied if you buy of him.
Guarding Against Future Evils.
 Sheriff (to doomed man): "I must now conduct you to the scaffold. Will you have a drink of whisky to stimulate you?"
 "No, thank you; when I drink whisky I always have a horrible headache next morning."
 The finest line of Albums, Dolls, Christmas Cards, Odor Cases, Dressing Cases. To s, in fact most anything you want suitable for a holiday gift you will find at Will J. Warrick's. Prices down to lowest notch. d6t

The Sarcastic Man Again.
 "You are a fish dealer, I believe, Mr. Hadlock?"
 "Yes, sir."
 "I suppose that, having so much to do with fish, you seldom eat any?"
 "Oh, you're wrong; I eat fish nearly every day."
 "Well, how singular! I have always believed that fish is an excellent brain food."
 —Lincoln was badly scorched last night.
 "Why freeze or starve?" is the pointed question asked by the manufacturers of "Garlan Stoves;" and we would add: Why buy a poor imitation when for the same price you can get the genuine "Garlan!" Sold exclusively by JOHNSON BROTHERS.
