NUMBER 81.

THE SMUGGLING CONSPIRACY.

Circumstances Attending the Arrest of Neilson, Alias Leonard.

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 17.—A. C. Neilson, alias J. M. Leonard, is the name of a man arrested in Denver, charged with opium smuggling. On Tuesday last Mark Harding, a special agent of the treasury department, reported to United States Marshal Hill that he suspected Neilson's presence in this city. Harding had a copy of a bill from the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba railway for some freight shipped at Battineau, Dak., for this city. The consignors claimed that the freight consisted of household goods. This consignment was directed "A. C. Neilson, Denver, Colo.," and weighed 850 pounds. Deputy Marshal Currier proceeded to the Union Pacific freight office for the purpose of making the arrest when the goods were called for. On Wednesday a stranger with ill-fitting clothes asked for the goods consigned to Neilson, and was placed under arrest. Neilson's trunk at the Metropolitan hotel was subsequently searched and found to contain 147 packages of prepared opium, amounting to seventy-three pounds. The prisoner waived examination when arraigned before the commissioner, and was taken Friday night by officers to St. Paul.

St. Paul, Dec. 16.—There is every reason to believe that the smuggling conspiracy which United States officials here discovered by the information of one of the band arrested at Denver, and the subsequent seizure of 800 pounds of opium at St. Vincent is more far-reaching and of vastly greater proportions than at first proposed. It is certain that the operations of the smugglers were not confined to opium, but that large quantities of silks and other costly fabrics from China had been landed in British Columbia and brought to various points on the Canadian Pacific railroad and consigned to smugglers. It is known that government officers have recently seized several small lots of silks that are to be disposed of to St. Paul and Minneapolis merchants. The officials are preserving the utmost secrecy in the hope of catching more of the smugglers.

An Anti-Vice War.

ELKHART, Ind., Dec. 17.—The county sheriff Saturday arrested every saloon-keeper, every gambler and every abandoned woman in the city as well as several drugstore proprietors, who are likewise charged with violation of law. A detective has been working here under the direction of the law and order league, and the raid has stirred everything up from the bottom. The mayor called a public meeting for Saturday night to take further measures for relief from lawlessness, and the law and order league charge in a circular that the entire city police are acting in conjunction with the disreputable element.

Fighting at Suakim.

SUAKIM, Dec. 17.—An exchange of shots has taken place between the Arab redoubts outside the town and the Egyptian garrison aided by the British vessels. During the firing considerable damage was done to the enemy's breastworks. A reconnaissance was made on the left and rear of the rebels' position yesterday. The party was headed by Gen. Grenfell, and advanced under a heavy fire from the forts. The Arab opened fire, but did no damage.

The Chicago Anarchists.

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 17.—Two or three small meetings of anarchists and socialists were held here yesterday, but developed nothing sensational. Mrs. Parsons, contrary to announcement, did not arrive home last night from her trip to Europe. A committee of her friends who were to meet her at the depot were notified last evening that she would not reach the city till today.

Destructive Floods.

PARIS, Dec. 17.—Terrible storms have been raging for the three days in the department of the Pyrenees-Orientales, flooding the villages and causing wrecks and much loss of life.

Government Concessions Forfeited.
PARIS, Dec. 17.—The government concessions to the Panama canal company have been declared forfeited.

—The Pat Muldoon Company gave the people a chance to laugh last night and that seems to be the great desideratum of public amusements. If there has been a famine of laughter making elements for our theatre goes the siege was raised last night, and a feast provided for the starving. The mission of the company is to make fun, and welldo they fulfill it. They had a large house as deserved.—Joplin (Mo.) Daily Herald.

The above named company will appear at the Waterman opera house tomorrow (Tuesday) evening. Seats on sale at the usual place.
