CITY CORDIALS.

Mr. D. K. Barr is in Omaha today. -The city council will meet tonight. Mr. Henry Waterman and wife are in Omaha today.

-One more case of diphtheria has been reported today.

- Chas. A. McManus, who was here with the "Rhea Co." died suddenly at Big Rapids, Mich., Dec. 12.

-Miss Ollie Mathews will entertain a large number of her young lady friends by a five o'clock tea at her home. -Parties who intend receiving callers good attendance.

-Chas. S. Rogers, comedian, and husband of Mattie Vickers, Plattsmouth's favorites, died at Cristline, O., Dec. 17, while en route to Philadelphia, Pa., where they were to play an engagement.

-Manager Young had an application from Halladay's Minstrel Company who wanted to come next Saturday night, but he thought three shows too much for one week.

-Mr. J. W. Clark, who has been lying in a critical condition for some time and whose death has been momentarily expected, is still surviving although his physician informs us he cannot hold out ! much longer.

-All young men who intend to answer the calls made by their young lady friends last New Year's day, should secure their eards for that purpose. We have the finest samples of New Year's cards yet brought to the city, and we request all parties wishing any, to call and leave their orders before that day.

-Judge Russell, in the goodness of his heart and having a desire to make his mission. On Christmas Day let peace all people happy and contented, granted and amity everywhere prevail. Let the marriageable state today: Mr. S. M. Let the little children be made Wheeler to Miss Florence J. Ellis, Mr. happy with their Christmas toys. Daniel Kelly to Miss Minnie J. Welch. Let camities be laid aside and friendand Mr. Geo. H. Cutler to Miss Anna L.

-A Christmas service will be held tomorrow morning in the German Methodist church, corner of Sixth and Granite streets, to be conducted by Rev. Hirt, the regular pastor. In the evening a Christmas tree entertainmnt will be given at the same place, to commence at 7:30 sharp. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

-A couple of gentlemen were apparently engaged in an interesting convers ation today while standing on the street when an acquaintance of their's passed by, accompanied by his little daughter. He saluted his friends by saying "How do you do, gentlemen?" Whereupon the little girl asked "Papa, why did you call them gentlemen?"

Our Telophone "exchange" is becoming quite extensive. Instruments have been put in the following places: R. A. Eichelberger's grocery, city restaurant, William Briseey's residence, the city meat market, Wm. Wolf's blacksmith shop and residence, A. R. Smith's billiard hall and residence. The advent of the Telephone Co., seems to have awakened up local inventive genious. Union Lea-

-All members of Cobwebb Hall are requested to meet at the drug store of O. P. Smith & Co on New Year's eve, to wood's. make preparations for answering the calls make at their hall by the young ladies of the city last New Year's day. Although the members of the above named society are not as numerous as last year because many have taken up their abode in other cities, yet the remaining members are resolved on doing their society proud. A full attendance is earnestly requested.

-As tomorrow will be Christmas day and the HERALD force desire to celebrate it as other people, the publication of this paper will be suspended for that day. As all business houses have realized a rich harvest by the arrival of this great anniversary which all people should and if chick gets to here it it will be all recognize as sacred, every business house over the riddle house by monday mornshould be closed then if not on any other day in the year. Christmas affords every business ample means for a short sus pension, and the greed so prominently visible in some people should be abandoned for so short a time on such a sacred occasion.

Remember tickets are on sale at J. P. Young's for both attractions at the opera house Dec. 26 and 27-at the usual prices 75c. It has not been fully decided yet by Manager Young which play to have the company present "Kindergarten" or "Muggs Landing" he would like to hear from the opera house patrons which play would be preferred. "Muggs Landing" is a comedy play. while "Kindergarten" is a "Musical Extravaganza." The latter play is meeting with great success through the eastern states, and no doubt would please our ple. Hallen and Harts "Later On" is success, and they made a great ey's theatre, Chicago last week largest business in the Our theatre going

Christmas Day.

Tomorrow Christianity will celebrate the anniversary of her natal day. The homes and altars of those hundreds of millions of mankind who believe in Christ the Son of Man will be decked in evergreens and flowers. From myriades of towering spires and lofty domes will deep-toned bells ring out their happiest notes of rejoicing when solemn midnight ushers in with awe-inspiring ceremony the glorious and sacred anniversary, and within the consecrated temples from which they rise will kneeling worshippers devoutly join in echoing the Divine anthem sung by the Angel choir at Nazareth: "GLORY TO GOD IN THE HIGHEST, AND ON EARTH PEACE TO MEN OF GOOD WILL."

Civilization will everywhere be decked in I oliday attire, exchanging gifts and showing such evidences of fraternal amity and universal peace as would make the earth a paradise were it perpetual. For on that day are celebrated the prophecies fulfilled, the plentitude of God's infinite mercy, the exhalting of man's dignity, the union of God and man in Christ the Redeemer, and on that day the Christian feels his confidence renewed that He who came on earth and suffered to save the sinning will not withhold | for $1.00. His blessing from mankind.

That divine pledge of "Peace on earth to men of good will" was exemplified in an especial manner in the lives and labors of the early tounders and teachers of Christianity and has been a constant and eloquent rebuke to fierce fanatics and preachers of violence and hatred in every age. Armed only with the divine commission to teach the Truth they faced the $5.00 each. mightiest empires of the world and they triumphed. The humble stable was exalted above the kingly palace and learned philosophers bowed in awe before the unlettered fisherman. The civilization of the world accepted the new Dispensation and with one acclaim selected the first Christmas Day as the great monument by which the world's history should be reckoned and all true philosophy be guided. So complete has been this victory of Christianity that, outside of those who are made glad on Christmas Day by Christian teaching, the world is today a barren desert of barbarism and savagery.

Let civilization then rejoice upon this sacred holiday and keep its traditions forever green that the conquests of Chrisian truth may still continue; spiritual tarkness dispelled, religious discord displaced by Christian charity, and man be made more worthy of his redemption and the following permits to enter the kindly tokens of affection be exchanged. ships pledged anew, for such a celebration makes us better Christians and better citizens. In the genial glow of the common festival of joy the ice of mutual prejudices melts and disappears, and we grow to better appreciate the blessings of unity and the folly of selfishness and discord. In such surroundings are youth's unertain footsteps guided aright and mangood's wisest resolutions formed and
