CITY CORDIALS.

—See John Dillon at the opera house tonight.
—See John Dillon tonight as a "Sky Scraper."
—Union revival service at the M. E. church tonight.
—Tom Riddle says: "There's a new coon in town."
—A striker presented a rebate check to the ticket agent at the B. & M. depot this morning and stated that he wished to cash his last month's check.
—The two assemblies of the K. of L. of this city have united their efforts to give a masquerade ball at the opera house on the 11th of next month.
—The trial of Charley Nichols will occur tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock before Justice Pottenger. It is the desire of the community that justice be meted out.
—The Presbyterian church proved too small last night to accommodate the large attendance at the revival meeting, and tonight the M. E. church will be used for that purpose.
—Many wondered why Mr. F. E. White rushed home from Lincoln yesterday in such haste, but we learn that he returned to entertain a young senator who lately arrived during his absence.
—A skating carnival will be given on Saturday night next, weather permitting, by the young people of this city. The skating field selected is the stretch of ice from the depot south, and a lively time will be had.
—Mr. Wiley Black, who was slugged by Charles Nichols last Tuesday, and who has since suffered the most excruciating pains, is resting slightly easier today. The report was circulated on the streets last night and this morning that the injured man was in a critical condition, but such rumors are untrue.
—The following officers have been elected by McConihie Post, No. 45: C. M. A. Dickson; S. V. C. Benj. Hemple; J. V. C. S. Carrigan; Adj. Geo. Niles; Surg. A. Shipman; Chap. L. C. Curtis; Q. M. Henry J. Straight; O. D. A. Tarsch; O. G. James Hickson; S. M. Q. M. S. A. C. Fry.
—The dance given at Fitzgerald's hall last night turned out to be as predicted, a grand success. A larger crowd has not yet assembled on any occasion for the purpose of dancing this season. There was scarcely room for pleasure, but all participants apparently thoroughly enjoyed the evening's amusements. Music was furnished by the Bohemian orchestra, and a bountiful repast was prepared for the occasion by Mr. Jas. Antill.
—Mr. J. E. Carmichael and family took their departure for Red Oak, Ia., last night. We are sorry to lose the family from our midst, but trust that they may be greeted with success and numerous friends in their new home. Mr. Carmichael has managed the jewelry business of Mr. H. M. Gault for some time and we learn that he has given perfect satisfaction, and his leaving the city is only occasioned by a change in the business which has recently occurred.
—Mrs. John Kannear, daughter of Mr. S. L. Cables, who has been visiting with Miss Trust about twelve miles south of this city, died last night very suddenly. Dr. Cook of this city was sent for early this morning, being called to hold a post mortem examination over the body in order to ascertain what caused her untimely death. Further particulars will appear in tomorrow's issue. The remains will be interred in Mount Pleasant cemetery Sunday.
—The marriage of Mr. Bradford White and Miss Mary Fellows occurred at the Methodist parsonage on Wednesday night last about 7 o'clock, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. W. B. Alexander. The happy couple left for Nebraska City by the 7:15 train the same evening, where they are at present spending their honeymoon. The HERALD extends to them best wishes for a bright and prosperous future and will be glad to chronicle their return to Plattsmouth in the near future.
—Readers of the Omaha papers will remember an item which appeared Tuesday morning in reference to the abduction of a child by Mr. E. F. Donlon from his wife whom he had deserted. The wife's father, Mr. Ben McGlynn informs us that the perplexed mother succeeded in finding her lost child. She arrived in the city by the flyer Tuesday afternoon and started for Weeping Water where she has friends living who gave her valuable information concerning her lost treasure. The child was found in charge of a Mrs. Roberts, where it still remains, and the lady has promised to take good care of it promising not to give it up. The mother has returned to Omaha. She has the sympathy of the citizens of Weeping Water.

SAVAGE BREAST BOOTHINGS.

Music by the Boston Symphony Club that was Music

The Ladies' Musical society may well be proud of the triumph in the high art of music that was scored under its auspices last night by the Boston Symphony Orchestra Club. Larger audiences have greeted less deserving artists at the opera house time and again heretofore, but a more critical one probably never assembled under its roof. Nearly every local artist in the city was present, and the generous manner in which the members of the excellent organization mentioned were received and applauded, was sufficient recognition of their meritorious work.

The club as a whole showed that it was fully able to grapple with this very highest order of music.

Miss Elsa Clark Cushing, the only vocal soloist member of the club, acquitted herself nobly, and added new friends to her already large acquaintanceship. She is a beautiful young lady of pleasing address and good stage presence. Her exquisite rendition of Gounod's "Jewel Song" from Faust earned her a merited recall, accompanied by a beautiful corsage bouquet from some ardent admirer. She responded with Suppe's flirtation song "Proposing" never heard here before on the lyric stage. Herr Charles Palm accompanied her on the piano from memory when she sang his composition, "Du Bist Wie Eina Blume," and after singing Eaton Fanning's "I Have Something Sweet to Tell You," in the most bewitching manner, she was obliged to respond to another recall with Blumenthal's "Venetian Boat Song." Adolph Burose played Demerevan's "Grand Air varie" as a flute solo, and as an encore gave Mollenhour's "Nightingale Song" as a piccolo solo. Mr. Willis Nowell recalled visions of Ole Bull's fire when he played Sarasate's "Fantasie" from Faust as a violin solo, and acknowledged a recall with the "Polish Dance." Herr Richard Stoelzer gave his own composition, a fantasia, "Pour le Viola d'Amour," on that instrument and responded to a spirited encore with "Robin Adair." He is the first artist to attempt a solo in this country on the fourteen-stringed fiddle, and the difficult bowing and fingering it requires will be well understood when it is remembered that seven of the strings are vibratory accompanists to the ones bowed and fingered. Herr Philip Rote well earned the reputation of being the first 'cello soloist ever heard here, and the encore he received was a merited recognition of his artistic work. He played Chopin-Servais' "Nocturne" and Popper's "Gazotte" arranged for orchestral accompaniment. A detailed criticism of this musical treat must be reserved for a future edition.—Omaha Republican.

The Boston Symphony Orchestra Club will give a concert at Fitzgerald's hall, Thursday evening, Jan. 24, for the benefit of the Presbyterian aid society and the Y. L. R. R. A. Reserved seats, 75c; general admission 50c.

Revival Meetings at M. E. Church.
The union revival services which have, during all this week, been conducted in the Presbyterian church, will tonight be held in the M. E. Church. Last night the usual place of meeting was crowded and some were turned away for lack of room, and tonight the Methodist church will be used, where many more can be seated.

K. of P. Installation.
The following officers were duly installed last Wednesday night in their hall by Dr. E. W. Cook, D. D. G. C.
P. C.—J. N. Summers, C. C.—W. W. Drummond, V. C.—H. N. Dovey, Prel.—C. W. Holmes, K. R. and S.—B. Elson, M. of A.—C. A. Marshall, M. of F.—C. Breckenfeld, M. of E.—August Reinhardt, I. G.—W. J. Straight, O. G.—C. G. Morrison.

Hear John Dillon Tonight.
John Dillon will favor Plattsmouth with a visit tonight. Judging by the advance sale so far, there will be a full house. The great comedian will doubtless be greeted by all and a reception given him like he never knew before. As Manager Young has been so frequently requested to secure the services of this company, his efforts to make a date for them should be appreciated.

To Delinquent Tax Payers.
The delinquent tax collectors is making vigorous efforts to collect delinquent personal property taxes. Persons owing taxes for 1887 or any previous years will save trouble and costs by paying at once. Treasurers office open Saturday evenings from 7 to 8:30.
D. A. CAMPBELL,
Co. Treas.

At the meeting of the Livingston Loan and Building Association, which was held last night, the following members were elected directors: Pat McCallan, Robert Donnelly, Ed A. Olliver, J. W. Johnson, Geo. Dodge, C. M. Wead, D. Hawksworth, F. G. Fricke, J. H. Waterman. The directors will meet tonight for the purpose of electing officers.
Two well known to need lengthy advertisement.—Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

Tremendous Comet in the Heavens

A terrible ball of fire has recently been discovered in the Heavens, and is said to be approaching the Earth at the rate of one hundred and seven million miles per day. Astronomers are somewhat alarmed as to the direction in which it is centered, and tell us that if it does not change its course, it will surely be the destruction of the earth. It is estimated to be twelve times larger than the great planet Jupiter, which is the largest planet of the Universe. Astronomers tell us it will soon be visible to the people of this continent. It can be easily observed by the people of China and it is said that the Chinese by close observation have discovered upon the tail of the great comet printed in roman letters
