The contest in West Virginia still continues and both Goff and Kenna are tired of it, each are within four votes of the number which will elect. The chances favor the democrats but the republicans may succeed.

It is reported that President Cleveland will veto the river and harbor bill in case it reaches him. When he had a chance to veto a bill appropriating $22,227,000 he refused to do so, but let it become a law without his signature.

The problem of our coast defenses has been satisfactorily settled by a scientist in the New York World. All you have to do is to pipe out some eighth or ten miles to sea from a big city fearing an attack and attach a spigot.

ASSASSINATION OF CLAYTON.

If Arkansas is anxious to have itself shunned, as Mississippi is shunned, by all friends of freedom, order and law, it is proceeding in an intelligent way to bring this condition of things about.

The eyes of the country at this moment are resting with critical interest upon the Authorities of Arkansas. If there officials have any regard for the honor or welfare of their state they will take measures promptly to arrest the assassin of Clayton.

Death Preferred to a Cork Leg. Robert McBride, Jr., who committed suicide near his home in Johnsburg, Warren county, by shooting, was in his 16th year, and two years ago lost one of his legs in an accident on the Adirondack railroad.

When Mrs. Cleveland travels over the Pennsylvania railway between New York and Washington she always observes and calls the attention of others, if she is not alone, to a large sign on a factory standing close by the track in the city of Newark.

entire scheme of representative government is based. Mr. C. R. Breckinridge, who was Mr. Clayton's opponent in the recent congressional canvass, has the reputation of being a fair minded and honorable man.

Sweet Flowers. The fairest buds are often the first to wither, and the ravages of disease make havoc with the beauty, as well as the strength and happiness of the fair sex.

Superstitions About Insects. The Koran says all flies shall perish save one—the bee fly. It is regarded as a death warning in Germany to hear a cricket's cry.

Flies are regarded as furnishing prognostications of the weather and even of other events. Spaniards, in the sixteenth century, believed that spiders indicated gold when they were found in abundance.

The ancients generally maintained that there was a close connection between bees and the demon Porphyry speaks of "those souls which the ancients called bees." German tribes regard stag beetles as diabolic, and all bees are detested in Ireland.

The Grave of Hamlet. Succeeding generations have been very kind to Hamlet in taking such pains to build him a grave and keep it in repair.

Organs of Taste. In the superior animals the sense of taste is located almost entirely in the tongue, the organs of taste consisting of peculiar bodies called taste buds.
