OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

A. Salisbury, Dentist, Rockwood Building, Telephone No. 35.

Dr. Withers, Dentist, Union Block.

CITY CORDIALS.

—Where is the new weekly paper? We are still awaiting Vol. 1, No. 1.

—Sampson occasionally stands for a long time waiting for the mayor.

—The icemen are now hauling ice that you can see a little farther into than the first lot.

—With a handsome church and a $25,000 hotel, Plattsmouth should boast a boom.

—Mr. Sherman did not test the ice this morning, and even turned on his friends when they insisted that he should.

—A large number of high grade trotting horses passed through the city yesterday afternoon from California, on the flyer.

—The game of marbles is again occupying the attention of the boys, and they are already knocking down to the ground.

—A prohibition slang and pun law would doubtless be more beneficial to more people than to prohibit the sale of liquor in this city.

—The only ice which the boys can find to skate on here will serve for two purposes. It is too much of a sandy complexion to suit most people.

—We would recommend a continual practice with hard gloves for Mr. Sherman, as he is liable to be called on at any time to defend himself as best he can.

—Since the young ladies were so successful last year in many ways by holding balls, why do the bachelors not follow suit when the opportunity stands open.

—Mrs. M. Shannon, who has been visiting relatives and friends at Leadville and Denver, Colorado, for some time, returned to Plattsmouth by the flyer yesterday afternoon.

—Messrs. J. V. and Henry Weckbach, accompanied by their families, left this morning for Omaha to attend the 70th anniversary of their mother's birthday, and join in a grand family reunion.

—Plattsmouth contains many kickers. The merchants kick among themselves because some of them will go to Omaha to purchase goods merchants in a different line carry at home. Who is to blame for all the trouble?

—The proposed location for a church on the eastern portion of the high school lot is a very desirable one. An ordinary building, if nicely finished, would present a very attractive appearance to any portion of the city. The proposed church will cost, if built, about $15,000, and for that money on the lot above-mentioned a building could be erected which would be very attractive.

—Go and take your children to see the "Matinee" on Saturday afternoon at the opera house, where you will see a fine performance of "Uncle Tom's Cabin." Good music, and singing by a company of 35 people. You can reserve your seats for 10c for children and 25c for adults. For the night performance prices are 25c, 35c and 50c. No extra charge for reserving.

—After Sunday next the flyer which passed through this city each morning at 5:10, going west by the main line of the B. & M., will run by way of Omaha. This will knock the Bee's enterprise of running a special to Plattsmouth each morning, in the head, and leave us with out the accommodation of a 9:20 train to Omaha. Although many will grumble over this information, the merchants will dance for joy over another obstacle in the way of their customers who occasionally go to Omaha for the purpose of purchasing goods.

—Mr. Chas. Lewis who was hauling ice yesterday, narrowly escaped a neck break when thrown from his wagon by a runaway team. When he drove up to the ice house at the rear of the American Exchange to unload his ice, a block slipped from the chute between the wagon and ice house and fell against one of the horses. The team immediately took fright and starting down the alley at a rapid pace, swung the wagon around when they reached Main street, throwing the man and the load of ice into the street. It is a miracle that the man escaped without any serious injury as he plunged headlong from the wagon among the ice. The noise and spectacle made by the spilling of the ice into the street, scared another team which was standing in front of Poissall & Spencer's, which took down Third street and run till they were stopped. The team was owned by John Carnes. The first runaway team was stopped in front of the postoffice. No damage excepting the scattering of all the loose attachments to the wagon, was done.

—Joe the One Price Clothier is connected with four of the largest retail clothing houses in Illinois and Missouri, which enables him to buy cheaper than any of his competitors. 5-1w

A New Encampment Instituted.

Yesterday, F. Bryant and Geo. A. Bennett of Omaha, arrived on the morning train to institute the new encampment of Old Fellows at this place. Grand Representative Bryant of the grand lodge officiating. At 2 o'clock Mystic Camp No. 21, was instituted and officers installed.

L. G. Larson, chief patriarch; L. E. Karnes, Sr. warden; Loran Davis, Jr. warden; Frank Boyd, scribe; B. C. Kerr, treasurer; J. W. Williams, high priest.

After the transaction of some local work, all adjourned for supper. Major J. W. Nichols and other Omaha members arriving on the flyer to assist in the evening work.

At 8 o'clock the encampment was called to order with several visitors in addition to the Omaha force present. There being ten candidates out of twenty-six in readiness, they were introduced into the mysteries of the advanced degrees of the order. At 11 o'clock a recess was had for refreshments. A lunch of hot coffee, cake, sandwiches, etc., was freely partaken of.

At 4 o'clock a. m., adjourned, well pleased with the work as being so plain and well executed by the grand officers. The Omaha members returned home by the early K. C. train.

What He Did and Did Not Do.

He has never denied the fact that he wanted to enter into a conspiracy with another paper to rob the city.

He has never denied the fact that he made out two bills for one piece of work and swore to both as being just and correct when the difference between the two bills amounted to $50. On which one did he perjure himself?

When he robbed the city of $150, why did he pay it back if it was just debt? In paying back, is it not an acknowledgment that he stole that much.

Joe's boys' and children's clothing department will be the nicest in the state of Nebraska. Look out for his Grand Spring Opening. 5-1w —Dallas, the backstop for the Beatrice club last year, has been fortunate enough to be favored with an opportunity to sign with the Omahas for next season. We don't wish him any misfortune, but we are pleased to know that the umpires of professional teams have the privilege of muzzling such faces as his when they open too frequently. It will be well remembered by those who attended the Beatrice-Plattsmouth games here last summer that his mouth and kicking ability made him very prominent. Now, if Omaha wishes to star out her nine with another prominent winning whose ability no one will dispute, and they are at a loss to know who to select, we will gladly propose the name of ex-captain Strock of the Council Bluffs nine, who is also considered a "bird" in base ball circles. Should these two men be secured, the Plattsmouth boys will charter a train to Omaha occasionally.

—Joe's line of white, fancy, silk and fanned shirts will be the grandest and finest ever brought to Plattsmouth.

—Bids were received yesterday by the county commissioners for the county printing for the ensuing year. Bids were tendered from the Plattsmouth HERALD, Wabash News, Weeping Water Eagle, and Weeping Water Republican. The commissioners considered the bid of the Weeping Water Eagle the most satisfactory in every particular, and consequently awarded that paper the work. All the bids were very close. The Eagle agreed to print fifty copies of the docket at twenty-five cents per case, all over fifty copies at ten cents per copy. Treasurer's statements at 2 cents per line; road notices at half rates and all other work gratis.

—Joe will surprise you on his grand opening of spring and summer goods. Nothing in his line that Joe won't be able to show you—goods that his competitors won't dare offer to the public. Joe's low prices will make his competitors wonder how he can sell so low.

—Lots of warm Shoes and Slippers at Merges' cheap. 5-1w

It is said that the Minden board of trade will build a number of cottages at that place to be disposed of at reasonable prices.

Nebraska Jottings.

A gentleman from Iowa is talking of establishing a commercial college at Nebraska City.

It is said that a hotel man with some money could secure a bonus from the citizens of Edgar to erect a first-class hotel.

The district court now in session at Aurora has many whisky cases before it and an effort will be made to close up all the saloons.

The Seward G. A. R. post has passed a resolution endorsing Captain Parkinson's candidacy for commander of the state department.

George B. Thompson, of St. Paul, who is a student at the Iowa state university, won first honors in the contest to select orators to represent the institution at the state-oratorical contest.

A special from Edgar says the B. & M. branch through that place is to be made a main line. From De Witt to Shenan, Iowa, the contract is let, and from Chicago to Denver. This will be sixty miles shorter than any other route. A ten stall round house will be immediately erected and this will be a division, with machine shops, with at least 250 men employed.

How Switzerland is Governed.

It has about one twelfth the population of our "two little islands," and its tiny territory is surrounded on all sides by powerful states, chiefly despotic. The inhabitants speak some German, some French, some Italian. In religion they are divided into Roman Catholics and Protestants, the latter being chiefly Calvinistic Presbyterians. Yet this strangely composite population admittedly possesses the oldest, the freest, and the most enlightened form of government in the world—a government to which the people are so devoted that in its defense 400,000 citizen soldiers can be relied on to take the field on the shortest notice.

And what is the Swiss form of government? The federal. Little Switzerland contains not merely four, but twenty-two separate "cantons" or commonwealths, each governed by its own laws, legislature and executive. The supreme authority of the nation is vested in a parliament of two chambers, the state council and the national council. The former consists of forty-four members, two from each canton. The latter is chosen directly, one deputy for every 20,000 souls. The two together constitute the federal assembly. From the federal assembly emanate the federal council, or executive of seven, and the federal tribunal, or supreme judicature of eleven. The harmony of all the parts of this wonderful machine of government is complete; and whenever a constitutional amendment is proposed, it has to be put to the vote of the entire electorate—yes or no.—Reynolds' Weekly.

What to Wear.

Attention to a few general rules would prevent many strange appearances. For instance, a woman should never be dressed too little, nor girls too much; nor should a woman of small stature attempt large patterns, nor a tall woman bonnet; about throats should not carry feathers, nor high shoulders a high collar. From the highest to the lowest there is not a style of beauty with which the plain straw hat is not on the best of understandings. It refines the homeliest and composes the wildest; it gives a coquettish young lady a little dash of demurement, and the demure one a slight touch of coquetry; it makes the blooming beauty look more fresh and the pale one more interesting; it makes the plain woman look, at all events, a lady, and the lady more lady like still.—Leisure Hours.

My love was like a lily fair,
Low drooping in the sultry air,
My heart was rent with grief and care,
I loved her well.
But lo! The wonder grows and grows;
My love's now like a blooming rose,
How bright her face with beauty grows,
I dare not tell.
The wandering bee would stop to sip,
The nectar of her perfect lip,
Twas Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
That wrought the spell.

meal at Heisel's mill. 1f
