CITY CORDIALS.

—The regular meeting of the city council will be held tonight.
—The pay-car is in the city today. Who knows what a day may bring forth?
—Tramps are just numerous enough in the city to be a great annoyance to the public.
—Anti-prohibition is the all-absorbing topic in many of the business places in this city.
—The ferry is running now between here and the Iowa side as regular as in the summer.
—Mr. Fred Stadelmann and family will move into Mr. Wm. Neville's house, on the corner of Vine and Sixth, this week.
—It may be possible if the weather continues as changeable, to jump from a meadow field into a snow drift in an adjoining field.
Rev. Hart, pastor of the German Methodist church, took his departure for Riverton, Ia., where he will hold revival services this week.
—Mr. Jas. Antill has converted his place of business into a restaurant and will in the future serve meals at all hours. Meals only 25 cents.
—The mayor announced a special meeting of the council for Saturday night, but as a quorum could not be secured, no meeting was held.
—The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mr. Cooper, corner of Maiden Lane and Vine streets.
—The churches were all well attended yesterday. The fruits of the revival meetings of the past few weeks were admirably manifested at the Presbyterian church. The Christian church was also well filled at both morning and evening services, and eloquent sermons by Evangelist Everett, of Omaha, were listened to.
—A large attendance was had at the 4 o'clock gospel meeting at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association. These meetings are conducted by the young men in such a free manner that it is pleasant for all who attend, and much good influence with one or more conversions has been the result of each meeting this year.
—It is said there is a man in Chicago who possesses such muscular power over the drums of his ears that he can become deaf at leisure. Such an advantage would be a blessing to those who try to sleep and are obliged to listen to the pow-wow made by the thousands of canines that are harbored in this city, each night.
—The K. of L. will hold their masquerade ball tonight at the opera house. The ball will doubtless be well attended, as many tickets have already been disposed of. The society of the K. of L. here have grown rapidly of late, and by the assistance of all other labor organizations which will attend, the house will probably be filled.
—Mr. Carl, who was "supposed to be dead" last Friday night, presented himself to Mr. Sherman Saturday afternoon in such a manner that the editor believed he was rather a lively corpse. Mr. Sherman was accused of sending a dispatch to the Be announcing the death of the "scraper," which, judging by his tone of voice and strong language, he did not altogether approve.
—An editor's life is truly one of such consideration. He is continually obliged to think of thumpings which he has promised him from day to day. If he would occasionally meet with an opportunity to display what little science he has and gain a little information from an opponent, there might be some possible chance for one to defend himself when any serious trouble might arise, but as a rule, the suspense a man is kept in is harder on him than the battle would be.
—The number of young men of Platts-mouth planning to attend the first conference of this (the Second) District of the Nebraska Y. M. C. A. has grown quite large. The association as accomplished a great deal of good in this city and it will take a large delegation to fairly represent the success of the work here. From the present outlook fifteen or twenty will be at the conference, which meets at Pawnee City, Feb. 15-17, to represent the association of this city. A grand time is in store for all who attend.
—We were informed that it is the intention of Mr. Fred Stadelmann, who is remodeling the building adjoining Antill's confectionary store, to run a first-class restaurant as soon as the work on the building is completed. This is an accommodation the city has not had for some time, and it appears that a man with as much experience in that line of business as Mr. Stadelmann has, would find no difficulty in meeting success. We are glad to know that he is looking to the interests of the people as well as his own.

—Seventeen converts of the late revival services joined the Presbyterian church yesterday. Their names will be published later.

—Mr. Rasmus Peterson was thrown from a wagon yesterday afternoon and had his ankle seriously sprained. It was reported at first that his limb had been broken.

—Mr. S. Waugh's youngest boy, who has been afflicted a short time with membranous croup, is in a critical condition although somewhat improved since yesterday.

—Judge Russell issued marriage license this morning to Mr. Conrad Stochm and Miss Lizzie Mesinger, Edward McComb and Miss Josephine McMullen, and Wm. F. Hartsook and Miss Lizzie A. Foster.

—The Omaha amusements this week are—Lizzie May and Geo. T. Ulmer Monday and Tuesday evenings in "For Congress;" "A Postage Stamp," Wednesday and Thursday; "Terry the Swell," Friday and Saturday, and Saturday matinee. The latter two are both very amusing plays.

—Mr. Byron Clark received a dispatch from Omaha last Saturday night, that his brother, J. W. Clark who went there a few days ago for treatment, was dying. As he was too late for the Saturday night train, he left here yesterday morning. The news of his brother's death is momentarily expected.

—Mr. John Robins succeeded in stopping a runaway team this morning as it was coming along Vine street at a very speedy rate. The team pulled a light spring wagon, and had it not been for the nerve he possessed to attempt such a feat, some damage would doubtless have resulted.

—Mr. Jno. Saddler, who has been in the employ of Mr. H. Boeck, furniture dealer, for the past eighteen months, has purchased the furniture stock of Mr. John Chase, of Weeping Water. He will take possession the first of next month. We have been informed that he has a splendid opening there.

—Many of the Omaha Herald readers entered a kick yesterday because of the advanced price on that paper. Notice was given in yesterday's issue, that the price would be raised from fifteen to twenty cents per week. It was stated that they would publish the best paper west of Chicago, which would necessitate the advance.

—The B. & M. was supplied with new time cards which went into effect yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The trains will run as follows: Going west—No. 1, 4:30 a. m.; No. 3, 5:51 p. m.; No. 5, 7:47 a. m.; No. 7, 6:25 p. m.; No. 9, 6:17 p. m.; No. 13, (freight) 6:45 a. m. Going east—No. 2, 4:29 p. m.; No. 4, 10:30 a. m.; No. 6, 7:13 p. m.; No. 10, 9:45 a. m.; No. 14, (stock express) 8:27 p. m.

—By the appearance of some of the express teams doing service in this city one would be led to believe that their owners placed green spectacles over their horses eyes and turned them out on the gray pastures in this vicinity. The dried up blades may look green through the glasses but the taste cannot be as represented or they might have an opportunity to fatten a little.

—The following converts have been received in the Methodist church as probationers within the past three weeks: Eli Florer, Sigel Green, J. W. Bridge, J. L. Farthing, Rachael Green, Ed Barstow, Mary Barstow, May Richey, Stella Leech, Mary Edwards, Leila Pine and C. W. Ingalls. The following Christians were admitted to the church by letter during that time: Mrs. Carrie Green, A. P. Campbell, Ella Campbell.

—Complaint comes to us from our subscribers at Cedar Creek and other local points in regard to the delivery of the HERALD. We must say that we are done an injustice by the mail service, and we are not at fault. If the Journal arrives at Cedar Creek before the HERALD there is surely some partiality shown, as this paper is delivered at the office here nearly every afternoon before the Journal. If this negligence is still continued the matter will surely be investigated.

—A new sidewalk is being laid to the eastward in front of the lot adjoining Fitzgerald's block. There are many other places which present a deplorable condition on account of the negligence of property owners in laying a respectable walk. The city council should take steps to see that the work of laying sidewalks to reach the curbing is immediately commenced, as the sidewalks in the condition they are now in, are a disgrace to the city and more so to the business men who have paid no attention to such work.

—"Uncle Tom's Cabin" was presented to one of the largest assemblages seen in the opera house this season, on Saturday night last. There were many present who were never inside the doors of the opera house before, and consequently much appreciation of the old and popular play was manifested. The company could not be termed exceptional, as there are several on the road surpassing them in the same play. The receipts at the main show were $65, and at the evening performance, $175.
