We have no objections to shaking hands with Bismarck, but he will please take off the glove first.

The electoral vote was counted today in congress, and nothing now remains to make Gen. Harrison president.

The latest news in regard to the cabinet is to confirm the general impression that the only man who has positive knowledge about it is disposed to keep it a secret until after the 4th of March.

The course of Mr. Bayard in the Samoa matter has been so mild that it has done a great deal to reconcile the enemies of Mr. Blaine to the idea that he is peculiarly fitted for the office of Secretary of state.

Gen. Harrison was presented the other day with a costly and elegant bible. He will find a great deal in the book which will give him ample reasons for removing democrats from office as rapidly as possible.

A dispatch from Berlin says: "The recall of Mr. Sewell, the American consul in Samoa, has produced an excellent impression here."

Gen. Boulanger is the theme of gossip again on a far different topic than of a week ago. Now it is alleged that if he secures a divorce from his present wife he will marry a St. Louis woman.

Demore's illustrated monthly magazine for March, 1889, will be published at noon on February 15, in all parts of the United States.

"My little son, three years of age, was terribly afflicted with scrofula. His head was entirely covered with scrofulous sores, and his body showed many marks of the disease. A few bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla cured him."

February the 6th was the coldest morning we have experienced this winter, the mercury standing at 10° below.

Many women find great difficulty in arranging their hair becomingly, because of its harsh and coarse texture.

prizes, and, secondly, the resolution, if adopted, would act as an obstacle against the investment of foreign capital on the American continent, in interoceanic waterways or any other projects.

The reasoning of the enemies of the resolution can readily be shown to be fallacious. The resolution is not directed against the Panama Canal as a private enterprise.

The pretense that the resolution would discourage the investment of foreign capital on the continent is even more silly than the other. Capitalists will, safely being assured, put their money in a country where there is a promise of the largest returns.

Instinct in Brutes.

Few things are more wonderful than the instinct that guides the brute in the choice of its food or medicine.

for which I believe it to be the greatest medicine in the world."

"My wife had a distressing cough, with pains in the side and breast. We tried various medicines, but none did her any good until I got a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral which has cured her."

"Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cured me of a severe cold which had settled on my lungs. My wife says the Pectoral helps her more than any other medicine she ever used."

Horseshoes of Rubber.

The proposed substitution of India rubber for metal in the manufacture of horseshoes is based upon various supposed advantages.

According to this design, the shoe consists of an India rubber bottom piece molded to fit over or around the frog of the hoof, with a ledge or protecting rim rising up the front and around the level where the nails are clamped.

An Unfortunate Recognition.

The minister's wife sat on the front porch mending the clothes of one of her numerous progeny.

"You seem to be well supplied with buttons, Mrs. Goodman." "Yes; very well, indeed."

The Highest Waterfall.

A recent traveler in New Zealand describes the great Sutherland waterfall. "The water," he says, "dashes over the cliff in three grand leaps, and constitutes about one-half of the entire volume of the Arthur river."
