

The Evening Herald. OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY. A. Salisbury, Dentist, Rockwood Building, Telephone No. 35. Dr. Withers, Dentist, Union Block.

CITY CORDIALS.

The wife of Mr. Chas. Harris is said to be in a critical condition. Mr. J. L. Roden arrived today from Chase Co. He reports cattle in splendid condition out there.

Mrs. Lesse Hunt will entertain a party of friends at her home this evening in honor of the Misses Gering.

Mrs. J. R. Cox will give a card party at her home, Main street, in honor of Misses Eva Harrison and Lizzie Allen, guests of Miss Alice Eaton.

The editor of the Journal don't know beans, according to his description of the costume at the masquerade ball the other evening representing a sea shell.

While one of our undertakers walked down Main street this morning with a face beaming with smiles, he was asked by a young man who noticed the pleasant expression, "Is somebody dead?"

The party who borrowed the city harrow last fall from the corner of 12th and Walnut streets, is requested to return it to the place where he got it, as the street commissioner has his eye on him.

Miss Alice Eaton entertained a few friends last evening in honor of her accomplished guests, Misses Eva Harrison, of Lansing, Mich., and Lizzie Allen of Omaha. A most enjoyable evening was spent.

W. D. Jones took his departure for Fairfield, Iowa, by the flyer yesterday, where he intends to purchase one of the finest stallions ever brought to Cass county. He is said to be of Norman blood, and will cost Mr. Jones $3,500 at the least, should he purchase him.

Mrs. Charles Wright died very suddenly at her home on north Sixth street yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, from her late residence. All members of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. are requested to turn out and attend the funeral.

Mr. Ed Sampson, who left here several weeks ago for Washington territory to look for employment at railroad work, returned to the city this morning. The information he imparts to the young men who are anxious to go west, is not the most encouraging, as he says that part of the country is overcrowded.

The southern part of the city was kept in an uproar last night and early this morning by a party serenading W. H. Rogan and wife, who were married at the Catholic church. The bride and groom were located at Mr. Adam Pretig's home, corner Rock and Sixth streets where the crowd congregated and "made Rome howl."

The two tramps who were caught in the act of stealing clothing from the stores of Mayer Bros., and "Joe's" have been arrested at Lincoln and sentenced to the "pen" for store breaking. The arrest and conviction of such thieving vagrants is welcome news at any part of the state as Plattsmouth has not suffered alone from their intrusions.

The police believed they had the job of dealing with tramps off their hands for awhile since they riddled the city of the last band of outlaws with which they had a tussle, but it seems that their troubles will never end in that respect. Last night they were obliged to "run in" six of the toughest characters they have yet encountered.

The six year old son of Geo. Setze fell down a pair stairs leading to the basement of the Fitzgerald block, yesterday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, while playing with a number of other boys. When he was picked up and carried to Dr. Cook's office, it was thought every bone in his body had been broken by his screaming, but it was discovered that he had received no injuries more severe than a few ugly bruises on his face and arms.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hicks, of the Pacific House honored that couple by their presence on Wednesday evening, the event being a tin wedding—the celebration of the tenth anniversary of the wedded life. About twenty five people were present, and a most brilliant few hours were spent. The host and hostess were made the recipients of numberless articles in the form of tinware. A sumptuous repast was provided for the party.

Sheriff Eikenbary and deputy Sheriff Miller captured Calvin Hubbell near Pacific Junction last evening. The son, and abductor of the three children, was brought to the city this morning with the two children. Yesterday the boy persuaded the children to go out driving and drove them to Manley where the trio took the train for Louisville. They arrived in the city last night about 9 o'clock by No. 30, and went to Pacific Junction, where Sheriff Eikenbary found them this morning. The wife of Hubbell arrived from Tamora this morning.

PERSONALS.

C. G. Mayfield, of Louisville, is in the city.

Hon. Wm. Neville went to Lincoln yesterday on business.

Mr. McNurlan, of Greenwood, is in the city today on business.

Mr. Jay, of the firm of Turner & Jay, Omaha, is in the city today.

Mr. John Bauer and wife took their departure for Papillion this morning to visit a few days with friends.

H. N. Doye has gone on a two weeks' visit to Washington. He will witness the inauguration which is close at hand.

D. A. Campbell, county treasurer, took his departure for Washington by the flyer yesterday afternoon to attend the inauguration.

Mr. C. S. Hardy, the genial salesman for the firm of Kahn Bros., Chicago, is in the city today taking orders for spring goods. He is now on his return to Chicago after an extensive trip over the western country.

The Gladiator.

For the past six months I endeavored to secure a date from Robt. Downing, and through the encouragement of some of our citizens, I felt safe in giving him a certainty to come here, and I can feel safe in assuring the opera house patrons an entertainment on next Wednesday night that will surpass anything ever seen in Plattsmouth and our citizens can go with the full assurance that the performance will be as represented, and produced with all their own elaborate scenery and effects same as in Omaha, Chicago, New York, Boston, and other large cities. Secure your tickets and give them a crowded house. I am

Respectfully Yours, J. P. Young.

That Cow.

MR. EDITOR:—It would seem that you do not fully understand the full text of the purchase of that cow by the Journal editor. Mr. Cole still has that cow for sale. The fact of the business is, that Mr. Sherman bought the cow on a fair and square bid but has never claimed her or gave the least hint of a settlement, hence the cow is yet for sale. It is customary that when a buyer fails to take the property he bought in good faith that he pay ten per cent. of the price as damages, but as Mr. Cole and the Journal have a common political faith it is not at all likely that he will ever say anything about damages.

Revival.

Everybody is requested to remember the revival meetings to be held next week in the M. E. church. Evangelist Miller will be on hand and begin work Sabbath morning. The main features of the meeting will be good singing, clear and earnest preaching, and faithful work for souls. Let every Christian be diligent in trying to bring somebody to the meetings, and in working for their success.

Presbyterian Church.

At the close of the services tomorrow (Saturday), evening, at the Presbyterian church, there will be a business meeting, to which all the members of the church and congregation are invited.

—Read Peter Merges' ad. on first page.

—All persons who signed for tickets to the "Downing" entertainment next Wednesday, are hereby informed that the reserved seat tickets will go on sale tomorrow, Saturday, morning at 9 o'clock. Manager Young promised those who signed the lists, as an encouragement to help him secure something fine for Plattsmouth, that they should have their first choice of seats; there were about two hundred tickets subscribed at $1.00 each. There are only two prices. Gallery 50c, entire lower floor $1.00; no extra charge for reserving.

—A privileged character known as "Old Ben" made himself very conspicuous on Main street this morning as he meandered the whole length of the street. He stumbled into one of the business houses and made known his intentions of prosecuting some hotel man for firing him. "If I—I—could only re—re—member the hotel, I'd be all right," said he, but he was at a loss to know what hotel he was fired from or what man he wanted to prosecute.

—About fifty friends of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Khroeler assembled at their home last night to celebrate the 25th anniversary of their wedded life. The occasion being a silver wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Khroeler were presented with some beautiful articles of silver.

—Since the Omaha Republican has changed hands and been fitted out with a new dress, its circulation has increased rapidly in this city. It is said that the paper will be made double its original size on Sunday. It is a very satisfactory journal for the small sum of two cents.

—The finest lot of socks ever in the city at Elson's; only 5c per pair.

Plenty of feed, flour, graham and meal at Heisel's mill. tf
