

CITY CORDIALS.

The colored opera troop took their departure for Omaha this morning.

The graders set to work to filling Fifth street at Pearl today and the job will soon be accomplished.

State Secretary Nash of the Y. M. C. A., is holding meetings in Omaha this week, in the Y. M. C. A. building.

The sewing society of St. Luke's Guild will meet at the residence of Mrs. R. R. Livingston tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

At the meeting of the Sons or Veterans last night it was decided to have a grand basket social next Tuesday night at G. A. R. hall.

Regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. Thursday afternoon, March 21st, at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. S. A. Davis, on Pearl street.

Mr. John H. Young and Mr. Thos. Goodier both took out their final papers of naturalization this afternoon before Judge Chapman.

Judge Russell this afternoon performed the ceremony uniting Mr. Albert Slagel and Miss Myrtle Hendricks, in wedlock both of Liberty township.

The Black Hussar band is an organization that can run a lively race with Col. Patsy Gilmore. "A Postage Stamp" is a comedy that can furnish plenty of fun for a week; they are both great cards for Manager Judah.—Kansas City Times.

There has recently been a new beautiful and useful piece of furniture added to the hall of the Sons of Veterans. It is a desk, made, finished and varnished by John I. Robbins, and donated to the S. of V. of this city. It was just what was needed and is highly appreciated by the boys.

Friday evening this week, Joe Klein the one-price clothier, will have a grand spring opening; music will be furnished by the Bohemian band and every lady or gentleman attending will get a beautiful present. Joe has an extensive stock of spring goods and invites all to come and see them.

The winter was so mild people hardly realize it is over, and that spring has taken possession. In a very few days lawns and fields will put on their emerald garbs, and sweet scented blossoms burst from their prison walls. He must be indeed a thinkless mortal who does not feel a sense of gratitude for such gifts.

The free lecture tomorrow evening at the M. E. church by Rev. J. M. Jeffrey will be an interesting and doubtless profitable discourse. Mr. Jeffrey is pastor of the M. E. church at Provo, Utah, and has had much experience and observation among the Mormons. The subject will be, "Five Years with Utah Mormonism."

By a consolidation of companies in Omaha made yesterday, Omaha is to have eight miles of car line operated by electricity, all connected with the Council Bluffs & Omaha system. A power house is to be built in Omaha at Twenty-second and Nicholas streets, to furnish power for the Omaha lines but connections will be made so that cars can change from the Omaha to the Council Bluffs current without difficulty.

District court was rather dull today. The jury went out last evening in the case of Bachelor vs. C. B. & Q. and was out yet this evening as we go to press. A jury was impaneled this morning in the case of Scenellbacher vs. Jones, but the jury was dismissed and the district clerk instructed to take the testimony and report to the May term of court. Motions and demurs were heard by the court the rest of the time.

A telegraphic report from Boston gives this report of the C. B. & Q. for 1888: "The annual report of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad for 1888, as compared with the year previous, shows a decrease in gross earnings of $3,787,000; increase in expenses, $2,785; decrease in net earnings, $7,261,000, and an increase in debt of $8,399,000. The miscellaneous income was reduced by reason of the strike on the Hannibal & St. Joe and Council Bluffs roads, so they returned no dividend to the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, while in 1887 they paid $672,000."

The other day we were handed a package of Merrill's Washing Compound with the request that we give it a fair trial. We have done so and can say it is a blessing to all who have to do washing. It does away with the washboard and you can do the washing in one-half the time it now takes and with a great deal less labor. It will wash the finest linens and laces as well as the coarsest garments without the least injury. It works as well in hard water as in soft, and we recommend it to all of our readers. Joseph Shers, of Rock Bluffs, is general agent for Cass county. Send to him for a free trial package, and you will never use the washboard again.

Y. M. C. A. ELECTION.

Three New Directors and Executive Officers Elected—J. M. Bothwell for Secretary.

A Grand Anniversary to be Held.

The annual election of Officers of the Young Men's Christian Association occurred last night at the parlors of the association. A large number of active members assembled with the board to elect three new members to the board. The retiring members were Fred Gorder, W. H. Pool, and Clayton Barber. The names of O. H. Ballou, Clayton Barber, W. H. Pool, G. B. Kempster and S. C. Green were suggested, and Messrs. Ballou, Barber and Green were chosen, which position they are elected to for three years.

The officers of the association are elected annually by the board of directors. The board is now composed of S. C. Green, Clayton Barber, O. H. Ballou, H. M. Gault, Thos. H. Pollock, J. H. Waterman, D. B. Smith, Wash. Smith, R. B. Windham; and they immediately assembled to elect officers of the association from March 1889, to March 1890. J. H. Waterman was re-elected president; Wash. Smith, vice president; Thos. H. Pollock, re-elected as recording secretary; Clayton Barber elected treasurer, retiring officer, H. M. Gault; Cliff Westcott, elected financial secretary with Ed. J. Streight assistant. The board was unanimous in calling General Secretary Bothwell to the secretaryship here for another year.

The progress of the association having been so great, and so strong an interest taken in the work by the public since an organization of the association here, the board decided to hold an anniversary celebration one week from tomorrow, March 28, at the rooms. This will be a grand occasion for the members of the association and the citizens. The Y. M. C. A. was organized here, first, a year ago by Mr. Witte, and from that organization, so feeble for six months, has grown, under the management of Secretary J. M. Bothwell, President Waterman and a business board of directors, one of the most active associations in the state. About $3,000 has been subscribed to the work this year, and there is room for a grand anniversary, indeed.

Bereaved in Utah.

The announcement of the death Wednesday, March 6, of Wm. H. Burnison, at Ogden, Utah, will be sad news to many people here, when they remember he married Miss Anna M. Dakin, of this city, about seven years ago, and went to Utah to live; being engaged in lead mining in Beaver Co., Utah, and in the newspaper business at Frisco, Utah, where he published the Southern Utah Times. Mrs. Burnison, was a sister of Mrs. John A. MacMurphy, of South Omaha, and Mrs. Jas. Pattee, of this city. At the time of her husband's death he was living at Ogden, having moved there the latter part of February from the Red Warrior mine, near Frisco, and was engaged in publishing the Utah Daily Union. Death was caused from paralysis of the heart, superinduced by lead poisoning which he contracted several years before in the lead mines. There were two little boys in the family. The funeral occurred Friday, March 8.

A Gay Wedding.

Last evening about 6:30 Mr. George Lushinsky and Miss Barbara Gabelmann were united in the bonds of matrimony by Rev. F. W. Witte, the German Presbyterian church. The wedding ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents on lower Main street in the presence of a large assembly of friends of the contracting parties. After the ceremony a grand wedding supper was partaken of and the wedding day festivities were continued till a late hour.

Mr. Lushinsky is a painter in the shops and ranks well among his fellows who heartily join in wishing him well. Mrs. Lushinsky, nee Niss Gabelmann, is well known among the German society of this city.

A Large Funeral.

The funeral of John Greye, who died Monday evening, took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence on Granite street, between Fifth and Sixth. Mr. Greye was a member of the Plattsburgh Liederkranz, and that organization turned out complete to follow the remains to the cemetery and pay a last tribute of respect. Selected men from the B. & M. and Bohemian bands played the funeral march and lead the procession. A number of friends of the deceased followed the hearse in carriages. Rev. F. W. Witte officiated.

Death at Manly.

Mrs. Sarah Mullins, wife of Chas. L. Mullins died at Manly, this county, Sunday, March 17, 1889, of hemorrhage of the lungs. Deceased was aged 18 years 11 months and 10 days, and was buried at Louisville, Tuesday.

A young man down by the ferry was chopping wood last evening, the ax slipped and cut one foot very severely. His name could not be learned.

A colored opera troupe held forth in Fitzgerald's hall last night.

A SUDDEN DEATH.

Dan. Unzicker Succumbs to Fever and Bowe Inflammation.

Mr. Daniel Unzicker, died of typhoid fever and inflammation of the bowels at 5 o'clock this morning at his residence in the Herold block, on Main street. He was 30 years of age and came to Plattsburgh with his wife and child about three weeks ago from Milford, this state, where he had been in business with a Mr. Alexander, brother of Rev. Alexander, of this city. He went into the drugstore of W. J. Warrick as clerk and rented the upstairs of the Herold block for a residence, retaining his usual health up to Saturday. He was a man of considerable experience and went from Illinois to Milford; was a German, and had been married about two years. Deceased took severely ill Sunday morning and constantly grew worse until this morning when he died at 5 o'clock. His father and mother arrived in the city Monday evening and remained with him till the time of his death. The remains will be sent to Milford tomorrow morning for burial. Deceased suffered great agony during his illness and despaired of his own life yesterday morning, but retained consciousness most of the time.
