ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure. Image of a tin of Royal Baking Powder.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alums or phosphate powders.

ELMWOOD TO THE FRONT.

The Citizens interested in the Securing of Water Works.

The HERALD notices with pleasure that the people of Elmwood are moving forward and the present plan, if pushed through would be very beneficial to the city. The following is from the Echo: "Per call of the Echo the greater portion of our business men met at Lackney's furniture store Saturday night for the purpose of considering the propriety of establishing water works in Elmwood."

It is evidently a fact that fire will stand a slim chance in Elmwood inside of two months, as the water works will be in running order by that time.

A Roundabout Way to Chicago.

It is now possible to take a very roundabout way over the B. & M. for Chicago, and by that way get a good look at Nebraska's choicest land, if one desires to travel for pleasure; and yet the trip is almost as quick as on the regular passenger train. Taking the 7:47 train here in the morning one can catch the Beatrice & Wymore train at Lincoln, and change at Wymore for St. Joe. The Beatrice Democrat describes the route thusly: "The Burlington route has opened up to the people of Beatrice a new and complete route to the east in addition to their old lines, one of which runs via Nebraska City, the other via Lincoln and Omaha. The new route is via St. Joseph. By this line passengers can leave Beatrice at 1:10 p. m. and arrive in Chicago the next morning for breakfast at 8:25. This change was brought about by putting on one of the fast trains from the Missouri river which is a complete vestibule train of the very latest and most complete equipment including the C., B. & Q. popular dining car."

April 30, 1889. April 30, 1889

The ladies of the Presbyterian church are busy making and planning decorations for the Washington reception and banquet, to be held at Waterman's opera house Tuesday evening, April 30. Mr. Moore has full charge of the floral decorations. This, in addition to the other decorations is expected to make the most beautifully decorated hall ever seen in this city.

—Hardly a day goes by but what someone remarks to the HERALD scribe, concerning the completed and precept improvements. Today Mr. D. S. Sherman, who has not been in this city for three years remarked, "Plattsmouth has had a wonderful growth," and again, "she is going right ahead." These are truthful observations, and are good evidence there is something about this city that is bound to make her boom.

[Respectfully dedicated to the beautiful picture in the window of O. P. Smith.] Like a spellbound lover I've been gazing, gazing, At thy painting, oh thou maiden, Till my eyes are weak from looking, And I looked so long and steady, Lingered in that look so fondly, That I found myself a sleeping—Sleeping, dreaming, fondly peering, Still with deep impression waking All the spirit of my being, Lovely picture thy creation, Soul of art and thee thou maiden, Art embodied in the drawing, Fascinating as displayed there, Every contour of art skill—Every eye that loves a picture Seems to dwell on this one only—And O. P. is in his glory—Consequent upon this picture—Thus adorning his nice window.
