HERALD STAFF HONORED.

Made the Recipients of a Basket of Delicious Viands.

This forenoon as the dinner hour was drawing nigh, that time of day when an inward feeling of vacancy causes the compositors to watch the hands of the clock impatiently, a modest young lady entered the sanctum with a large market basket on her arm, handsomely decorated and of a general appearance that immediately excited our curiosity. With admirable courtesy the basket was placed on the desk with the remark "This is from the W. R. C. to the HERALD." Accepting our thanks the messenger took her leave. Removing the covering from the basket there was revealed an extensive assortment of good things, in generous quantity, and arranged in an attractive manner by some tasteful and artful hand. The following note:

PLATTSMOUTH, March 26.
At a regular meeting of the Woman's Relief Corps a resolution of thanks was offered to the HERALD staff for their many kind words and favors given. Accepted the basket and contents from the committee of entertainment.
The basket contained a large six-layer, beautifully frosted cake, of most delicate flavor, surrounded with oranges, bananas nuts, caramels and candies. Here was a feast fit for the president and his cabinet. But without an invitation to those distinguished parties the HERALD prints and editors laid the contents on a stone and then set to work to "clear the deck" with a hearty good will. The treat was greatly enjoyed, and the HERALD staff will always entertain pleasant memories of the occasion toward the ladies of the W. R. C.

Methodists on the Move.

At an official meeting of the trustees of the M. E. church on Monday evening it was decided to offer for sale all the church property on 6th street, including the church building, and in the event of a sale, to construct a new church edifice further from the business center of the city. The business committee were also instructed to pay the paying tax recently assessed. It begins to look as if the churches in Plattsmouth meant business. Let the good work go on. Our city is far behind in the matter of good churches.

A Card.

We desire to return our sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors who so kindly rendered us assistance in the care of our late son, George, during his long spell of sickness.
