

The Evening Herald. OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY. A. Salisbury, Dentist, Rockwood Building, Telephone No. 35. Dr. Withers, Dentist, Union Block.

CITY CORDIALS.

Easter entertainment at the M. E. church tonight.

Spring vegetables are rapidly appearing in the market in quantity and variety.

The lawn mower has been resurrected from its winter resting place and is grinding off the first crop of blue grass.

Grant Ensign a leading livery and hack line man from Lincoln, was in town today for the purpose of purchasing horses.

A clothier in Lincoln named Semmons has in his show window "Pigs in Clover" illustrated with five little pigs in an exact duplicate of the puzzle box, and a boy with a whip to work it out.

G. B. Kempster returned on the flyer last night from Grand Island where he has been for two weeks erecting a pipe organ in the new Episcopal church there, which is a beautiful structure and just completed.

A number of young people gathered at the M. E. church last night and placed handsome decorations to give an inviting and cheerful appearance for the Easter services to be held there tonight. After the song and literary service, decorated Easter eggs, button hole bouquets, etc., will be for sale.

An abundant supply of tramps has been around all the week. The winter was so light that they are an exceptionally robust and healthy crop this spring. As long as there is a show for a "hand-out" their politeness is exceedingly exceptional, but they often become rude when politeness fails to work.

Plattsmouth will, in the course of a few weeks have a chance to redeem herself on the pontoon bridge question. Col. Stewart says he will be here in May with new propositions to the business men, which cannot help but be acceptable. He reports the bridge at Nebraska City in sound condition and in constant use.

An ordinance passed at last week's session of the city council is the cause of another case for the coming term of the district court. The ordinance ordered the removal of the four large trees on Main street at the corner of fourth. Mrs. Charlotte A. Wheeler, owner of the facing property has secured an injunction to restrain the authorities from cutting the trees down until the case can be heard in the district court; setting fourth in her petition that twenty-one years ago she got permission from the mayor and council to plant them and that now their destruction would greatly detract from the beauty and value of her premises.

This spring seems to bring to Plattsmouth many opportunities of improvement, which are not beyond her reach, and many of them are being carried through. There now seems to be a show for securing an orphan's home here which shall be an institution, conducted by the Masons of Nebraska. Such a home is to be established, or at least it is proposed to start one. There will probably also, in time be added to the home an educational department, and it would be quite an extensive benevolent concern. Such a home in our city would be a worthy one and it is hoped the Masons and others who can, of this city will look out well for her interests by inducements.

The eighth annual meeting of the Nebraska State Pharmaceutical association will convene for the second time in Lincoln, May 14th, 15th and 16th. The local committee are now at work making the necessary arrangements in order to make this, the second meeting at Lincoln, the largest and most interesting gathering of its kind that has ever been held since the organization of the association. Last year was Lincoln's first opportunity to entertain the association, and their efforts were crowned with success, but not of the nature they propose to make it this year. Prof. Nicholson, of the state university has promised to give some interesting lectures, illustrated by chemical experiments.

Attention. Tickets are now on sale at J. P. Young's for the Washington reception and banquet. The ladies will esteem it a favor if those expecting to attend will procure their tickets early. Banquet tickets 75c. Gallery tickets 25 cents.

C. J. Inskeep, is at Gering & Co's, to attend to the optical defects of all classes and eyes of people: if WANTED:—A good competent girl for general housework. Wages $3 per week. Apply at office or residence of W. S. Wise.

It is a very important thing to have glasses properly adjusted for defective eye sight. Gering & Co, offer special inducements to those needing glasses this week.

THEY DUG HIM OUT. The "Lame" Tramp is Arrested and Jailed and His Pals Plug the Jail.

A Set of Troughs. The "lame" sneak thief mentioned in last night's HERALD as having led officer Fitzpatrick a chase out by the water works pump house, led him the other way. Fitzpatrick and Walt Holmes followed him over to the Iowa side and arrested him at the end of the graded approach to the B. & M. bridge. The thief tried to walk the bridge but the watchman fired him and he went below and was rowed over in a boat. After arresting him officer Fitzpatrick left him in charge of an Iowa constable, shackled, and came back for assistance.

The man gave his name as "Collins" and was not going to come without a requisition from the governor, but Johnny was too old for him. Messrs. T. W. Riddle, Jim Fitzgerald, Geo. Billings and a blacksmith named Hackett, accompanied the officer back in a boat as deputies. "Collins" was very much displeased with the idea that he was to be removed to Nebraska, and without a requisition(!), but that document was not harped on any longer when he was being pulled along to the boat. On this side of the river during the day "Collins" had begged around with a crutch and ached lame, but after his arrest his lameness was suddenly healed and he fought like a mad man; swore, cursed and threatened to kill. It must have been a comical sight to see Deputy Riddle and Officer Fitzpatrick with "Collins" hands handcuffed under his legs, and a boat or passed between them like a "beef" as they carried him to the boat; and today the deputy has a badly "peeled" hand from "Collins" shoe. But the prisoner was finally gotten into the boat and brought to Plattsmouth and landed in jail. During these proceedings "Collins" four pals hung around town and watched to see if he would escape, but after he was landed in jail the officers supposed they had "pulled out." But not much. This morning a large hole under the north foundation of the jail and another chopped through the floor accounted for the "lame" man's absence from the city part of the jail. His "pals" had, after midnight (for then Officer Malick made a final visit to the jail and all was secure) came to the jail, dug through the foundation and cut up through the floor and let their imprisoned accomplice escape, and of course they all cleared the town together before day. "Collins" was the only prisoner in the city department and of course was the only one to escape. The removed brick are nicely piled up for the city to replace at its pleasure, as the bums are through with them.

It is also learned that these same parties two nights before, almost tore the station house at Pacific Junction to pieces. One of the gang was arrested and jailed and in the night his "pals" from the outside cut their way through the frame building and let him out. They are evidently a very hard set of fellows.

CHURCH SITE SELECTED. The Presbyterians will Build on the Corner of Granite and Seventh.

Last evening the Presbyterian church society met at their church building on Main street to consider what lot should be selected on which to erect the new church building. The lots under consideration were those belonging to Mrs. Patterson, corner Main and Eight, the old Strode property, corner Oak and Sixth, and the O. M. Streight property, corner Granite and Seventh. The Streight property was the choice by thirty-three votes out of fifty-six. These lots are 90x119 feet and cost $1,700. What the cost of the church shall be is not yet known, but the building will be a commodious and beautiful church structure, which will be equal to the demands of the city.

Eyesight treated at Gering & Co's.

Resolutions of Condolence. PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., April 11, '90. Hall of Platte Lodge No. 7, I. O. O. F. WHEREAS, It has pleased the Grand Master of the universe to call our good brother, G. E. Geiger, from his labor on earth to the eternal refreshment of heaven, therefore be it

Resolved, That the brethren of this lodge, while deeply lamenting our brother's death, bow with solemn reverence to the will of our Supreme Grand Master who doeth all things well.

Grand Closing at Wescott's.

Eikenbary in charge of the closing. No bands of music, no souvenirs for the ladies, no bouquets for the gentlemen. Just a common every-day closing, which will occur at the bewitching hour of 9 o'clock on each week day evening, for weeks and months to come.

In the meantime, and at all other times during regular business hours, there will be no lack of music (in the air) — sweet music, too, to all those who are trying, these hard times, to make a dollar go a good ways in buying clothes.

The main point in this notice and the one to remember is the fact that Wescott, the "Boss" Clothier, has just returned from the East, where he bought the Stuff in Clothing, Hats, Furnishing Goods, &c., that will suit you. His line takes in the BEST GRADES and the best styles. He owns the goods for cash and will make you prices (quality and makeup considered) lower than anybody in the town. Your trade is solicited. C. E. WESCOTT, The "Boss" Clothier.
