-Though most cities of the state will pass Plattsmouth in Arbor day celespecial services, as Easter Sunday in all the churches of the city. The Episcopal church observed the day specially, and was crowded to overflowing at every meeting. Sweet-scented flowers and fruit blossoms were tastefully arranged over the church which gave a welcoming appearance. Communion service was held at 9 o'clock, and at 11 a. m., Rev. Burgess delivered a very appropriate sermon. For a text, speaking of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ, First Corinthians, 15:20 was read: "Now is Christ risen from the dead and become the firstfruits of them them that slept." Dwelling upon the divine side of Christ's power over the grave, Revelation 1:17-18 was the text: "He laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, fear not; I am the first and the the last: I am he that -Ed. Morley takes up his tonsorial liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive forevermore, and have the keys of hell and of death."

At the Methodist church a large attendance was had morning and evening. In the morning the twentieth chapter of St. John's gospel was read for a lesson and a befitting sermon preached from First Corinthians 15:19-20. The church was also beautifully decorated.

Rev. J. T. Baird, of the Presbyterian church preached an interesting sermon in the morning from Acts 9:4-6, after reading John 20 for a lesson.

At the Catholic church grand services were held morning and evening and closed the last day of lent with customary ceremonies.

City Legislation Tonight.

This evening is the regular council meeting night, but there are several things to transpire of interest. The report of the fire department for '88-9 is toj be made, the six new democratic alderman are to be sworn in and assume their official responsibilities for the coming two years, while two faithful servants of the people, Messrs. Dutton and Weckbach, give up their seats. The incoming members are Claus Brekenfeld, First ward; D. M. Jones, second term, Second ward; Chas. Hemple, Third ward; P. McCallen, Fourth ward; L. O'Neil and J. D. Simpson, Fifth ward. It is probable two crdinances will come up. One an amendment to the special occupation tax ordinance, and another a rubbish ordinance, especially for Main street. An-
