

MAKING UP A LOVERS' QUARREL.

Was it all a mistake? Ah, fold your arms closer. And press my head nearer your breast.

BURIED IN A MINE.

Was I ever down in a coal mine? Yes, once. I will tell you the story. I had some friends living in the coal mining region of Pennsylvania, and I was induced to pay them a visit.

the subject into consideration, except that of my being still haunted by that presentiment of evil, of which I have spoken. Our guide led the way to some moving lights which we could see sparkling in the profound darkness, and we soon found ourselves at the top of another shaft, where another descent of a hundred and fifty feet was made in a bucket.

her the reason that we could advance no further in that direction. "Nay, dear Miss Sibyl: I will not hear you blame yourself for our being here," I replied. "You simply did not see the danger in the same light that I did—perhaps I should rather say that you did not see the danger at all."
