CITY CORDIALS.

—The new Y. M. C. A. hall will be occupied tomorrow at 4 p. m. for the first time for a men's gospel meeting.

—A surprise party was given Miss Lizzie Steinkamp last night at her home on Seventh street, by a number of her friends.

—A fishing party of five couples, and enough to eat for twenty, took a carry-all this morning and went out to the Platte bottoms to fish and have a general good time.

—A horse belonging to John Robbins, attached to a wagon and in charge of several of the younger members of the family ran away yesterday morning. No one was hurt but the wagon was damaged somewhat.

—A strange fact exists in regard to the recent heavy rains. It was thought that the whole state had been well soaked—and it is true most of it was—but it is stated on good authority that twelve miles south of Plattsmouth rain enough did not fall to make it muddy.

—Every man in Plattsmouth is cordially invited to attend the first gospel meeting to be held by the Young Men's Christian Association in their new hall tomorrow. For two weeks the rooms have been under process of repair and the arrangement of furniture, and a very pleasant hall, with a seating capacity of over two hundred is now ready to be occupied. Rev. F. S. Blaney, president of Bellevue college, a man well educated and acquainted with the scriptures will address the men who attend the meeting. The new rooms and hall are in the Waterman block over Bennett & Tutt's, and though not fully completed yet, are ready to receive visitors.

—For some time the Dago question and the best way to get rid of the Dago in the city has been agitated by a certain class of laborers of the city, and last night a number of men gathered before the house in the Second ward occupied by them, and while hotly discussing the situation among themselves, a delegation of two, representing themselves to be officers of the law, went to the house and told the Dago to leave town by tonight or there would be trouble. Marshal Dunn was informed of the signs of trouble and reported on the scene. No arrests were made; the Dago is still at work and nothing serious has yet happened. The house they occupy in located on Vine street, near Seventh, by the head of the sewer, and is owned by Mr. Billings.

—Main street was convulsed with laughter last evening at the expense of a light built gray headed old gentleman. He was near the corner of Main and Sixth streets when the K. C. for Omaha whistled in at the depot, and suddenly getting a move on himself he made down the street, evidently hoping to catch the train. As he crossed Fifth street with his head high and his eye on the cars, lest they should start, he stumbled into the sunken pavement at Mumm's corner and fell headlong on the sidewalk, rolling over a couple of times. He quickly gathered himself and his hat up, however, and started to run, at the same time attempting to brush the dust from his pants. With his head down in this manner he bumped and fell into the stomach of a son of an ex-alderman who was coming up the street. The young man only had a second's warning and couldn't get out of the way. He looked astonished and the old man was chagrined, and with the exclamation "can't you see anything" reduced his speed to a trot but after going a half block thought of his pants, and this time stopped to dust himself. When the old gentleman fell he attracted the attention of the many bystanders in the vicinity and the second incident created a great deal of laughter. He reached the depot in time for the next train.

—The pay car will be this way Monday.

—Two deaths recently occurred in Omaha by hydropobia, from bites from one dog. A Bohemian named Porkene had a pet dog which he gave away to John Schubert, but before he gave it away the animal bit him. Up to last week Porkene seemed all right, but then he was taken with hydropobia and died. The dog also bit Schubert on several occasions and he died yesterday, having been taken sick Wednesday. The same animal is said to have bitten eight other persons, and has since disappeared. These are said to be the first deaths from hydropobia in Omaha for four years.

PERSONALS.

R. B. Windham was in Glenwood today.

E. G. Vanatta and brother, W. D., left for Denver, this morning.

Misses Gering, Mrs. Houseworth, Mrs. Byron Clark, Misses Anna Murphy and Lou Richey were visitors in Omaha today.

Dr. C. A. Marshall, returned this morning from Des Moines, Iowa, where he has been attending the Iowa State Dentistry association.

Mrs. Geo. Clark and Mrs. W. Crawford, of Geneva, Neb., who have been visiting at the home of Wash Smith, left this morning for Corning, Iowa.

Chas. W. Ingalls, who has for more than a year soberly and satisfactorily held the position of make-up foreman on this paper, left this morning for his old home, Indianola, Iowa, intending to spend the summer in Des Moines. He has said good-bye to Plattsmouth but the HERALD and a host of warm friends extend him best wishes for success. Mr. C. W. Eatabrook, of Chicago, Illinois, will succeed Mr. Ingalls on the HERALD.

Elmwood Notes.

From The Echo.

The town board officers for the ensuing year are as follows: John Clements, chairman; Geo. Hatch, clerk and Dr. Hobbs, treasurer. John McGuire was re-appointed city marshal and street commissioner. The board starts out with prospects of greatly benefitting and protecting the village of Elmwood, for which there is plenty of room. New walks will be built, streets will be graded, important ordinances will be passed and enforced and a general stirring up will be made.

Born.—To Mr. and Mrs. George Towel, a son, May 5th, 1889. All doing well.

S. H. James, stable caught fire in some mysterious way last Sunday afternoon and burned up. A set of harness, some hay and other things usually kept around a stable. The horses were just taken out in time. Mr. James has no idea as to how the fire commenced.

D. S. Day the trustworthy section foreman on the M. P. at this place, fell off the front end of the hand car Monday and received some severe wounds about one leg and knee. The car run up on him but did not pass over him.

Gracie Allen, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Allen, of Elmwood, died Sunday May 5, of whooping cough.

The Elmwood brick yard, established this spring, is about ready to make brick.

Wabash Items.

From The News.

The coming events which Wabash has booked for this season, to be held at the Boating Park are the Teachers Institute and Chautauqua of Cass and adjoining counties, which began Monday, July 22, ends August 10, and the annual Camp meeting of Latter Day Saints, of Iowa and Nebraska, begins August 11, and continues two weeks.

M. V. Wood killed a rattlesnake in his door yard Friday that was the possessor of five rattles and a button. Several children had been playing all around it.

Mr. Hollenbeck who lives between here and Elmwood has had a force of men at work for the past eight weeks, drilling a well at his place. Saturday they had reached a depth of 230 feet, but as yet had not found water in sufficient quantity to warrant them to stop drilling.

WATER WILL BE KING.

A project has been set on foot by Plattsmouth capitalists, whereby Cedar Creek is to be transferred to a canal and brought into that city from a point fourteen miles west. The scheme is assuming a tangible form, and it is claimed on good authority that the power thus obtained would rival in might the famous falls of St. Anthony at Minneapolis. Surveyors are looking it over and state the cost would not exceed common railroad construction. If there is any damming to be done Weeping Waters should be given a chance to bid on the contract.

Notice.

I take pleasure in saying to the people of Plattsmouth that loss I recently sustained in the partial destruction by fire of my dwelling house has been paid in full by the Hartford Fire Insurance Co., represented by Windham and Davies.

BETTER TIME TO CHICAGO.

New Time Tables on the "Q" with Passengers on the Fast Mail.

It is in keeping with the reputation of the Burlington route as always being "in the lead," that some considerable change takes place tomorrow in the passenger train time and service on that road. Time table No. 6, on the B. & M., which takes effect tomorrow at 10:30 a. m. will change Plattsmouth trains to arrive and leave as follows:

GOING WEST.
No. 1 ..... 9:30 a. m.
No. 3 ..... 6:30 p. m.
No. 5 ..... 7:30 p. m.
No. 7 (Schuyler) ..... 7:30 p. m.
No. 9 (K. C. to Omaha) ..... 6:30 p. m.

GOING EAST.
No. 2 ..... 3:40 p. m.
No. 4 ..... 10:24 a. m.
No. 6 ..... 7:19 p. m.
No. 8 (Arr. Schuyler) ..... 10:30 a. m.
No. 10 (K. C.) ..... 9:24 a. m.

According to the above table the principal changes are in trains No. 2 and 5. No. 2 which arrived here formerly at 4:44 now arrives at 3:40 p. m., and 5 goes west in the morning at 7:01 instead of 8:01. There is also an effort to make better time. The vestibule express, No. 2, which formerly took 44 minutes in coming from Omaha now makes the run in 34 minutes, a gain of ten minutes time in 22 miles. This, of course is not the case along the whole line, but a few minutes are saved at other points. No. 2, arrives in Chicago daily at 7 o'clock the following morning, in advance of all competitors and in time to connect with all morning trains out of Chicago for the east. The vestibule trains in Nebraska, Nos. 1 and 2, will have extended to them the famous dining car service of the Burlington route.

Another new feature, displaying the enterprise of the "Q," but which does not affect Plattsmouth, is the addition of passenger service to the fast mail from Council Bluffs to Chicago. A Pullman sleeper and reclining chair car will leave Council Bluffs daily, attached to the fast mail, at 9:25 p. m., arriving in Chicago at 12 noon the following day, making the fastest time ever made between the Missouri river and Chicago, on a regular schedule.

The changes in the train service make a change in the postoffice time card as follows:

ARRIVAL.
No. 5 From the East ..... 7:30 a. m.
No. 3 ..... 6:15 p. m.
No. 9 ..... 7:15 p. m.
No. 10 ..... 10:30 a. m.
No. 4 ..... 10:35 a. m.
No. 6 ..... 7:30 p. m.

DEPARTURE.
No. 5 Going West ..... 6:40 a. m.
No. 3 ..... 5:35 p. m.
No. 7 ..... 6:25 p. m.
No. 10 ..... 10:35 a. m.
No. 4 ..... 10:35 a. m.
No. 6 ..... 6:40 p. m.

Free Clinic.

Verily, the End of the World.

Elmwood Echo: Elmwood is ablaze with animosity, anxiety and curiosity. Old men are pricking up their ears, ministers are turning into pettifoggers, women are seeking to devour whom they may, countrymen are remonstrating and the meek and lowly editor of the Echo is languishing behind the bars—at the postoffice; and yet under all these restraints, our town continues to prosper, and we invite the thronging public to locate in Elmwood and enjoy the full ozone of the "Nebraska Desert."
