PLATTSMOUTH is still improving, the council has appropriated money to go a head with the grading, and the indications are that more paving will be done this summer.

HENRY JAMES in an article upon "Our Artists in Europe," which will be published, with portraits, in Harper's Magazine for June, declares: "If the centuries are ever arranged at some bar of justice to answer in regard to what they have given, of good or of bad, to humanity, our interesting age (which certainly is not open to the charge of having stood with its hands in its pockets) might perhaps be worse than put forth the plea, 'Dear me! I have given fresh interest to black and white. He reviews the work of a number of men who have had much to do, especially by magazine illustration, with creating that "fresh interest" - the work of F. D. Millet, Edwin A. Abbey, Alfred Parsons, George H. Boughton, George Du Maurier, and C.S. Reinhart.

The supreme court of the United States has affirmed the validity of the bill passed by congress in September last for the restriction of Chinese immigration. This is the measure that was rushed through both houses on the strength of a rumor that China had refused to ratify the proposed new treaty with this country, although it was not disposed of finally by the senate until definite news of the rejection of the treaty had been received.

Ostriches as Waltzers. "Ostriches, like cattle, are liable to stampede," said a Cape Town man now at the Palace hotel, "but the funniest thing they do is to waltz."

GREAT NAVAL REVIEW. The New York Commercial Advertiser suggests that some of our modern warships and cruisers be present at the great naval review which is to take place at Spithead, England, a few weeks hence, in honor of the visit of the German Emperor to Great Britain.

Don'ts. There are several "don'ts" which should be observed whenever two or more women are gathered together, but which, alas! are frequently disregarded. For instance, don't say to a friend, "How stout you are growing!" No lady likes to be told that she is growing or has grown stout.

Mrs. Villard's Romance. Mrs. Henry Villard, wife of the remarkable financier, ex-president of the Northern Pacific, ex-king of Wall street, ex-bankrupt, the story of whose rise and fall and restoration makes one of the remarkable pages of American personal history, is the only daughter of William Lloyd Garrison.

RATS FOR A NICKEL EACH. A BUSINESS THAT MAY BE PROFITABLE BUT NOT POPULAR. Catching Rodents for the Market—People Who Have Rat Dogs Buy Them—How the Catchers Go About It—Talk with One in the Business.

Another important advantage would come to the country from the presence of a few of its war ships at the coming naval pageant. To some extent the designs or many of our newer vessels are based on foreign models. Most of them involve an innovation of some sort in construction and arrangement. This necessitates a new departure in the mode of handling and working the vessels. The chances are that our naval officers might get some new hints or suggestions of value by inspecting foreign methods and witnessing foreign maneuvers. It is altogether possible that some knowledge capable of being turned to good account; should the emergency arise, might be gained in this way.

The Ostrich Regiment. Gen. Edward Hatch, some years ago, was made the butt of much fun, and was caricatured in New York papers as riding over the New Mexican plains with his cavalrymen of the Ninth regiment mounted on ostriches. The ridicule all came about through a mistake. Gen. Hatch found that the American horse broke down after little travel over the rough mountains, and in a private letter to an officer in Washington said that he was making some experiments with the intention of replacing the clumsy horses by the agile and hardy Mexican burro, a little lacking in immense strength.
